

"Good Furniture Makes the Home"

The Neglected Bedroom

One third of your lives are spent in the bedroom. The appointments of the bedroom impress you the last thing before retiring—the first thing upon awaking in the morning.

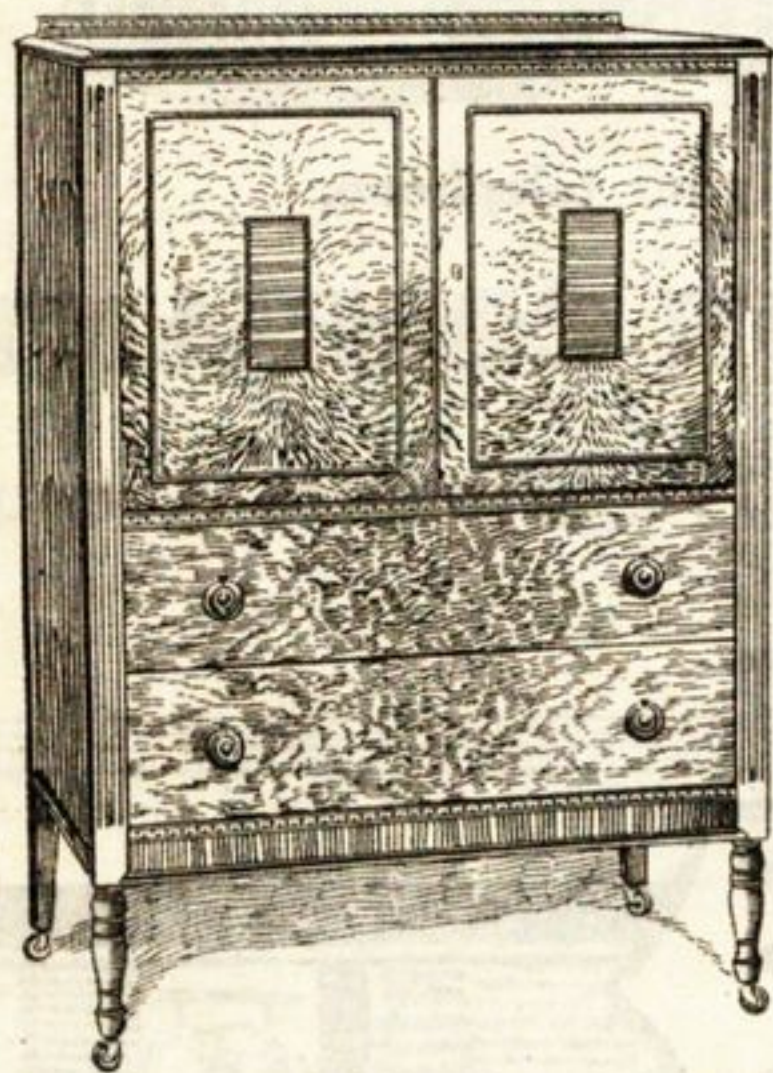

A bedroom suite, which has balance of design makes a foundation for a harmonious setting.

Harmonious surroundings really make a lasting impression upon the subconscious mind as you slumber.

The bedroom suite sketched above is inexpensive, yet consistent with BROWN-UMLANDT policy of "good taste."

It is artistically designed—constructed with great care by Master Craftsmen.

The burl walnut panels are carefully matched, and contrast beautifully with the exquisit rose wood used for trim.

This is a bedroom suite you would not wish to wait to buy at a sale. You can purchase it now, at our "one low, year-round price."

We have a line of selected bedroom furniture at prices—when you compare the quality—will make you realize, it is no longer necessary to delay the fulfillment of your long desire; "to fix up that neglected bedroom."

- Dresser .....$81.00
- Duchess Vanity Group... 85.00
- Chiffonette ..... 67.00
- Bed (full or single) ... 55.00
- Chair ..... 15.00
- Bench ..... 15.00

Inquire about our extended charge account purchasing plan.

Open Evenings
Tues., Thurs. and Sat.
7:30 to 9:30

Brown-Umlandt Furniture Co.

1567 Sherman Ave. Fountain Square EVANSTON Tel. Univ. 6300

ONE LOW, YEAR-ROUND PRICE

IN SOCIETY

Celebrated Irish Poet to Give Reading

WINNETKA society is taking great interest in the announcement that James Stephens, the Irish author and poet, will give his "Prose Tales," and will read his poems on Wednesday evening, April 15, at the Winnetka Woman's club, for the benefit of the Kindergarten of Henry Booth Settlement House in Chicago. Tickets for the reading may be procured from Mrs. Ernst von Amon, 420 Elder lane. Horace Bridges, president of the Henry Booth Settlement, will introduce the speaker.

The committee in charge of the benefit is composed of the chairman, Mrs. Francis A. Lackner, and Mrs. Laird Bell, Mrs. E. V. L. Brown, Mrs. Arthur W. Cushman, Mrs. Cornelius Lynde, Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, Mrs. Roswell B. Mason, Mrs. George S. Parker, Mrs. Paul Starr, Mrs. Henry F. Tenney, Mrs. Ernst von Amon, Mrs. Hathaway Watson, and Mrs. Morris K. Wilson.

Afternoon Tea Church Innovation

A NOVEL venture in Winnetka church work is about to be launched, according to the following notice. "The deaconesses of the Winnetka Congregational church are planning to promote sociability at the same time they further a new church undertaking, by serving afternoon tea and coffee at the Elizabeth Duncan Shop, 812 West Elm street, on Monday and Wednesday afternoons, commencing on Easter Monday, April 13. Those who enjoy a social cup with a friend or two amid cozy surroundings will want to mark the days and the place.

"Watch for the letters, D. N. C. F."
"Drop in and find out what they stand for."

Journalist to Speak at Club Meeting

HARRY HANSEN will speak at the Winnetka Woman's club on Thursday afternoon, April 16. Mr. Hansen is the able literary editor of the Chicago Daily News, reviews books for Harper's Magazine and speaks over the radio every Tuesday evening, and has written a book on the Peace Conference, all of which should recommend him to the club. Club members are requested to please make their reservations for the annual luncheon with Mrs. Sherman Aldrich before April 14.

The twenty-ninth annual business meeting of the Matheon club, which has maintained a nursery at the Chicago Commons for that period of years, will be held in the Green room of the Sovereign hotel on Saturday, April 11, at 11 o'clock in the morning. The election of directors for 1925-6 will be followed by luncheon at 1 o'clock. The speaker will be Howard Mumford Jones, chairman of comparative literatures at the University of Texas. He is a poet-dramatist. Miss Helen Hedges, soprano, will sing a group of spring songs during the luncheon hour. Mrs. Theodore J. Coyne is in charge of the arrangements and the program. Professor Graham Taylor is to be the guest of honor.

The Ash street circle will meet on Tuesday April 14, at Community House in rooms 9, 10 and 11. Following the morning sewing meeting, which commences at 10 o'clock, there will be a box luncheon at 12:30. This will be followed by an important business meeting and program. All members are requested to be present. Mrs. Paul Macqueene and Mrs. Joseph Sauer are in charge of refreshments.

Monsieur Georges Cauuet will give a lecture at the Chicago Woman's club on Tuesday, April 14, at 11 o'clock in the morning. The subject of the lecture is "Sacha Guitry." Everyone interested in French is cordially invited. There will be a small charge for those not members of the Chicago Woman's club.

The Temple club will have an Easter Food sale April 11, from 10 o'clock until 5 at Patchen's Drug store. Home made pastry, delicious cakes, and fine fresh eggs for Easter breakfast will be on sale. This market will afford housewives an easy "Bake Day" Saturday. The prices will be low.

Members of the North Shore Art league will be interested to know that Emory Seidel, sculptor, who recently won the Schaffer prize at the exhibition at the Art institute, will speak at the next meeting of the league on Thursday evening, April 16, at 8:15 o'clock. Saturday afternoon, May 2, the Art league will be entertained at the studio of Benjamin Marshall, Sheridan road, Wilmette, from 2 until 4 o'clock.

Great interest was manifested in the league's recent exhibition of paintings and sculpture at the Rudolph Matz hall, Community House. A showing of the best works along art lines is being planned for the late fall when it is proposed to bring together the representative works of the schools in the villages represented in the League. Applications for membership in the North Shore Art league may be sent to the secretary, Allen Philbrick of Winnetka.

Mrs. Marcus D. Richards, Winnetka chairman for Arden Shore, entertained 30 members of her committee at luncheon Monday. Among her guests were Mrs. Edward Keeler, vice chairman; Mrs. J. M. Dickinson, treasurer; Mrs. Norman Harris, publicity committee; Mrs. Hubert Howard, industrial; Mrs. Fletcher Marsh, Big Brother, and Mrs. John Montgomery, driving. Mrs. Joseph J. Siddall, president of the Arden Shore association, was also present. Plans for the coming drive for funds were discussed at this time.

The Walden Road circle was entertained at the home of Mrs. Lamson Date, 677 Walden road, on Monday last. Mrs. Frederick Henkel was re-elected circle chairman, Mrs. Frederick Thomas, treasurer; Mrs. Theodore Coyne, program chairman; and Mrs. William Buteau, Work committee chairman. A most successful year has been enjoyed. The members working for Dorcas Home. The circle is planning a large card party in May.

The Willow Street circle meeting has been postponed from Tuesday April 13, to the following Tuesday, April 20. The members will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. Stultz of 418 Sheridan road, at 11:30 o'clock in the morning. A buffet luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock, which will be followed by an interesting program.

A large company of friends gathered at the William Taylor home, 508 Cherry street, last Wednesday evening for a genuine surprise dinner served "picnic fashion" in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor's joint birthdays. A delightful program of music followed by bridge was greatly enjoyed by the guests.

Mrs. Lewis Williams, 770 Rosewood avenue, entertained a few of her friends for dinner Saturday, April 11, before attending the last subscription dance held at the Winnetka Woman's club.

The West Elm Street circle was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Leon Longina, 524 Provident avenue, on Tuesday last.

The NEW MARMON

MARMON NORTH SHORE SALES and SERVICE

1008 Davis St. Greenleaf 1038

Open Every Evening until 9:30