

Woman's Society Extends Invitation to Villagers

WEDNESDAY, April 15, is to be a very attractive one for all who can attend the program and luncheon given by the Woman's Society. "Americanization" is the topic of the morning program, and will be treated from two viewpoints. Miss Emma Gertrude White will tell of her remarkable work with foreign children in the Evanston Public schools, and Mrs. William D. Moulton will discuss the work done in the English classes in Community House. Mrs. George Frazer will add a group of songs, and the purpose of the day will be fittingly consummated by a special offering of money, "The Home Tank Ocering," which will go to Tower Hill.

Tower Hill is a 50 acre farm at Sawyer, Mich., given for the use of groups of settlement children in need of an outing, for summer conferences of young people, and for an inexpensive vacation place for many social and religious workers, who now cannot afford the cost of a week or two of rest and relaxation.

Everyone interested is invited to come Wednesday. Mrs. Gerald Beard will open the meeting with a devotional service, and luncheon will be served for a nominal charge at 12:15 o'clock. This is the last regular meeting of the society preceding the annual election and report session in May.

The benefit card party for the Indian Hill Camp will take place Tuesday afternoon, April 14, at 2 o'clock, at the Winnetka Woman's club.
