

Social Happenings

The North Shore Musical society met at the home of Mrs. C. P. Dubbs, 1221 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette, on March 30, and enjoyed a very fine program. Mrs. Paul Fowler's piano numbers were first to receive merited applause. The selections Mrs. Evans sang suited the lyric quality of her voice and were greatly enjoyed by her audience. Miss Ethel Flentye gave brilliant numbers which were enthusiastically received. The technique and style displayed her usual ability. Mrs. Marjorie Sherman sang the German songs which are so well suited to her voice. Each seemed to grow in interest and were equally well given with faultless tone and diction. Miss Evelyn Dirks very kindly substituted for Mrs. Dubbs, who was called East unexpectedly. Miss Dirks plays her violin with renewed interest since her study in Europe, and pleased her listeners greatly. Mrs. H. D. Pettibone's piano selections were very well given and the Brahms "Lullaby" seemed to stand out as unusually well executed. Mrs. Norman Cophorne gave operatic selections with her clear and resonant tone and splendid interpretation. The modern selections by Hageman and Kriens were also most interesting. The program closed with four hand selections by Miss Flentye and Mrs. Pettibone which were fine indeed.
