

Social Happenings

With the advent of the golfing season, local devotees of this game will be interested in the announcement of the re-opening of Anchor Inn, in the new clubhouse of the Evanston Community Golfing association, between Central avenue and Lincoln street, Evanston, on the community course.

The Anchor Inn tea room was very successfully run for two years in the old clubhouse on Ridge avenue, and now, as in the past, it will be conducted by the Delta Gamma sorority of Northwestern university for the benefit of its building fund.

Preparations are nearly completed, and Delta Gamma announces that on May 15, Anchor Inn will be open and ready to serve, not only golfers but all those who like to have luncheon and dinner away from home during the summer months.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma Mother's association will give a card party for the benefit of the sorority house fund at the Evanston Country club on Saturday afternoon, April 5, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. James Melville is chairman of arrangements, assisted by the following committee: Mrs. Albert L. Gale, Mrs. Charles W. Wanner, Mrs. C. W. Pank, Mrs. Merritt C. Beymer, Mrs. Gordon W. Bull, Mrs. Charles R. Bixby, Mrs. Louis Blessing, Mrs. George Dickson, Mrs. John C. Harding, Mrs. Glenn E. Holmes, Mrs. William N. MacChesney, Mrs. Howard Wilcoxson, Mrs. Edson B. Fowler, Mrs. William T. Hall, Mrs. Frank MacDonald, Mrs. Henry L. Flentye, Mrs. Louis Melind, Mrs. Richard S. Pattillo, and Mrs. Joseph Pancoast.

On Monday afternoon the Mary Giddings Club of Evanston is giving a card party in the Orrington Hotel Roof Garden ballroom for the benefit of the Illinois Children's home on Ridge avenue. Tickets for the affair may be purchased from Mrs. Stanley Simpson, 824 Hinman avenue, Evanston. There will be a prize for each table in addition to major prizes.

Among the patronesses for the affair are Mrs. Charles Dawes and Mrs. Arthur Towne of Evanston, and Mrs. Frank Barrett of Kenilworth, whose mother founded the Mary Giddings club.

The Evanston Country club will provide the setting for the annual card party the Chi Omega sorority is giving next Saturday afternoon to swell its house fund. Prizes will be awarded at each table, and, in addition, there will be several major prizes. Play will begin at 2 o'clock, and tea will be served.

On Tuesday afternoon, April 21, Dr. Bertold Laufer will give a lecture in Chicago at the Fortnightly on "Art of the Tang Period—Architecture." Tickets for this lecture may be secured by communication with Mrs. William S. Monroe, 64 East Elm street, Chicago.
