

TEACHERS HOLD SESSION MONDAY

Children to Enjoy Vacation While Instructors Ponder School Problems

LOCAL LEADERS SPEAK

All Schools of North Shore to Participate

Children of the entire Lake Shore division, including the north shore, will get another vacation on Monday, April 20, when their teachers go to the Illinois State Teachers' association meetings, the Lake Shore division, which will be held at the Woman's Club of Evanston on that date.

The general sessions of the association will be held in two sections with teachers from Evanston, Wilmette, Kenilworth, Winnetka, New Trier, Glencoe, Highland Park, Lake Bluff, Lake Forest and Waukegan meeting at the Woman's club and all others at the First Methodist church.

New Trier Leaders Speak

Thirteen nationally known educators will appear on the program, besides a number of high school and elementary teachers from this section who will preside and lead discussions in the sectional meetings. Among the latter are R. L. F. Bieseimer, head of the manual training department of New Trier high school who will be chairman of the 1:45 section on fine and applied arts; Mrs. Homer E. Cotton, supervisor of music from the same school who will be director of that session; C. N. Stokes of New Trier, who will be chairman of the Intermediate and High School section at the same hour; and Lucy Tolhurst of Wilmette, who will be chairman of the English session in the afternoon.

Arthur B. Rowell, superintendent of schools in Glencoe, is secretary of the Lake Shore division and E. L. Nygaard, principal of the Joseph Sears school, Kenilworth, is treasurer. The president is Floyd T. Goddier of Chicago Heights, and Emma G. White of Evanston is vice president. F. A. Kuhler of New Trier Township High school is on the legislative committee and Mrs. P. B. Kohlsaot of Winnetka is a member of the resolutions committee.

Hear Famous Choir

Among the features on the program will be two addresses by Lorado Taft, one at 9:30 in the morning and the second at 1:45 o'clock in the afternoon. The A cappella choir, directed by Peter C. Lutkin of the Northwestern university school of music will sing at 10:15 o'clock. The program is so arranged that both of these attractions will appear at each of the two sections in the morning, Mr. Taft and the A Cappella choir alternating at the two meetings.

The afternoon program will be devoted to sectional meetings on various subjects such as the fine and applied arts, music, rural and natural science, Primary, Elementary, Intermediate and high school problems. There will also be sections on English, social science and mathematics and a separate section for principals and supervisors.

Among prominent educators who are to appear on the programs are: E. R. Downing, Science department, University of Chicago; Floyd T. Goddier, superintendent of schools, Chicago Heights, W. J. Hamilton, superintendent of schools, Oak Park, Daisy A. Hetherington, director of Demonstration school at the University of California; Howard C. Hill, of the Science department at the University of Chicago; Paul C. Packer, dean of the Department of Education, University of Iowa; Raleigh Schorling, principal of the University school, University of Michigan, and Adolf Weidig, composer, of the American Conservatory of Music.

Mrs. Charles Mark of Kenilworth announces the marriage of her daughter, Margit, to Bertrand T. Hammond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. Hammond of Wilmette, which took place on April 4.

Seventh Organ Recital to Stress Spring Music

The seventh North Shore community organ concert is to be given on St. Luke's great organ Tuesday, April 21 at 8 o'clock by Herbert E. Hyde, dean of the Illinois Chapter, American Guild of Organists. The program is a "Bow to the season," every number having been selected as appropriate spring music. It includes the Guilmant "Sonata No. 1" with its exquisite Pastorale movement; two MacDowell numbers, "To a Wild Rose" and "To a water Lily;" a number by the Chicago composer, Stebbins, "In the Lifting Spring Time"; the Mendelssohn "Wedding March" from Mid-Summer Night's Dream; the Bach "Bouree," transcribed for the organ; Godard's "Berceuse from Jocelyn;" Schumann's "Traumerei"; the familiar Mendelssohn "Spring Song"; and a new composition "Spring" by Mr. Hyde.
