

Country Day Has Its Annual "Dig- Day" on Campus

North Shore Country Day School pupils had their annual "Dig Day" Wednesday. Dig Day at North Shore is an institution, and much looked forward to each spring.

On an April day chosen by the grounds committee under the student government everyone from kindergarten through high school, including the faculty, gets out work clothes and makes ready the grounds for spring. Everywhere are squads hard at work with rakes, hoes, spades, paint brushes, trowels, wheelbarrows and hammers. From early in the afternoon when the little children begin their play period, on through to 5 o'clock and after, when the biggest boys end theirs, groups are hard at the jobs planned for them by the grounds committee and Miss Musson, business manager for the school.

The bright sunny day following these activities showed a much cleaned up and dressed up north shore campus. Leaves had been raked out of their winter resting places, everywhere the walks had been cleaned or washed down soil, lilies of the valley and other flowers had been transplanted to new beds out of the line of new building or wrecking, hockey and football goals had been re-painted, logs had been sawed up and stumps removed, as well as many other things done.

At the end a gay crowd filed by a counter in the gym lobby to secure ice-cream cones, while tools were checked in again to the committee that had borrowed them from all the students. Dig Day is on its sixth year at north shore, and has become a popular tradition, one of the many ways in which the pupils demonstrate their sense of ownership in and responsibility for the school.

Winnetka Women Active in World's Fair Project

Mrs. B. F. Langworthy and Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber, as well as a number of other prominent Winnetka women, participated in the Women's World Fair, which was held at the American Exposition Palace in Chicago this week. Mrs. Langworthy and Mrs. Lieber both spoke for the National Girls' Week booth and other booths were managed by Winnetka women.

Women Prepare Annual May Market for Village

Winnetka women are making elaborate plans for the annual May Market to be held this year on May 23 on the Village Common. Mrs. Stephen Foster and Mrs. John Hardin are co-chairmen of the enterprise.

In addition to the display of flowers and plants as well as garden accessories, there will be a luncheon and special features to interest the children, including a grab bag.

North Shore nurserymen and gardeners contribute largely to the success of the May Market each year and will again be in evidence with exceptional bargains for the amateur horticulturist.

Among the women who are active in the preparations are Mrs. Hathaway Watson, grounds and arrangements committee; Mrs. Marshall Forrest and Mrs. Willoughby Walling, perennials and plants committee; Mrs. Harry Barnum, nurserymen's division; Mrs. Cornelius Lynde, accessories; Mrs. Marcus Richards, luncheon and refreshments; Mrs. Richard Walsh, ice cream cones, etc., Miss Marguerite Watson, grab bag.

Camp Fire Girls Make Plans for Ceremonial

Camp Fire Girls in Winnetka are to have their annual Grand Ceremonial of Camp Fire on Saturday evening, May 16, in Community House. Plans are going forward for this event and the girls are eagerly working to make it the most successful of any of the ceremonials yet given—which is saying a good deal—for no one who has ever seen this beautiful yearly event can ever forget its appeal.
