

REST CAMP TO FETE ITS BOYS

Homecoming Day for Winter Campers at Arden Shore Set for May 3

PLAN A CROWDED DAY

Boys to Explain Progress in Business World

BY ARDEN SHORE WORKER

Homecoming Day, the annual reunion of the graduate boys of the winter camp and the biggest day of the year at Arden Shore, is set for Sunday, May 3, and the Board of Directors of the Arden Shore association extend a cordial invitation to all friends of Arden Shore to come to the camp and join with the boys in this happy celebration.

The Great Lakes orchestra will be there to help entertain the guests, the Girls Glee club of New Trier High school will sing and the speaker will be Perry Dunlap Smith, headmaster of the North Shore Country Day school. Also, the boys themselves, both the graduate and those at the camp, will add their bit to the entertainment. After the program tea will be served by the social committee and the graduates of the camp will keep open house in their own building which they are giving as a token of their appreciation of what Arden Shore has done for them.

Help Boys to Manhood

It is the aim of the Arden Shore association to look after its boys when they leave the camp until they are established in business and well on the road to independent and respected citizenship. To be sure it does not always succeed, many times it fails, but the great majority of the boys do make good and when they come back to the camp for Homecoming Day and report their progress the Arden Shore staff has good cause to be proud of its work. Perhaps the public does not fully realize what a splendid work is being done in the way of forging this link of friendship between these boys, mostly of foreign parentage, and the men and women of a different walk in life who give their time and their money to support this great camp at Lake Bluff. It is the same doctrine of friendliness that is being preached by all our great social workers and its spirit is making of the Arden Shore boys little Americans who have had planted in their hearts the fine ideals of American manhood and the desire to support, to the best of their ability, the institutions of American government. Every year Arden Shore sends out from 75 to 100 of these boys who have been built up physically to their normal weight and who have been given higher standards of living and thinking than they ever knew before. No mean contribution, surely, to the life of our great city.

Conduct Boys' Clubs

Follow-up work is carried on in Chicago by means of Big Brothers and Arden Shore Boys' clubs. One club meets at Sherman Park Field House, one at Gads Hill Settlement and one at Association House. They are all under the leadership of a young Y. M. C. A. man and they have a governing council of their own members who make the rules and deal with all offenders. There is also an advisory council of Arden Shore board members. The men of the Exchange club, of which F. M. Bowes of Kenilworth is president, take a keen interest in these clubs and contribute to their support. The clubs provide healthful and worth while amusements for the boys and help to keep them away from the mischievous street gangs. These boys do not come from the Juvenile Court nor from the delinquent class and the Arden Shore association endeavors to keep them out of the courts and the reform schools. The older boys are being trained to take a friendly interest in the welfare of the younger ones and the whole organization is pledged to try to live up to Arden Shore ideals and to support the work of the camp in every way possible.

The Big Brothers are also doing a valuable work in giving the boys suitable employment and helping them with friendly counsel. More Big Brothers are always needed and means will be gratefully received by Mrs. F. G. Wacker, 208 College road, Lake Forest.

Homecoming Day gives a special opportunity to the people of the north shore to see for themselves the results of their generous investment in Arden Shore.

The entrance to the camp is on Sheridan road a short distance north of Lake Bluff. Local trains on the North Shore line stop at Arden Shore station.

Re-Shaping Men's Suits

GET a suit back into shape, and it will look new! We rejuvenate clothes! Make 'em fit across the shoulders, around the collar and in the legs the way they did when you first bought them.

Ordinary pressing won't do. It takes the complete North Side process, special dry cleaning equipment, skilled help, lots of care, yes—and North Side's special pressing machines.

Your suit is shaped by five expert pressers, operating as many special pressing machines—one for the right front of the coat, another for the left, still others for the back, the shoulders and the collar.

There is no extra cost for all this extra North Side care. Very quick service for those who need it—we're dependable promisers, you know!

The North Side "napping machine" makes tired, worn-out, shiny cloth seem new again. When your suit shows signs of wear, order us to "re-nap" it. Costs only $3.00 to $5.00 a suit—satisfaction guaranteed.
