

LOCATE BOYS' CAMP NEARBY

Camp Roosevelt Given Place at Fort Sheridan

Maj. E. L. Beals, in command of Camp Roosevelt, has just announced from his offices at the Board of Education in Chicago, that through the efforts of Superintendent of Schools McAndrew and Angus S. Hibbard chairman of the Camp Roosevelt association, a part of the Fort Sheridan military reservation has been set aside by Secretary of War Weeks as the new location for the camp. This will interest boys from this community who have attended Camp Roosevelt in the past, and who may be contemplating another summer there. Plans are well under way for transferring the camping equipment to the new site, which is 30 miles north of Chicago, and boasts a half-mile stretch of sandy beach on Lake Michigan. Motor transports are making daily trips from the old campgrounds to the new, so that all will be in readiness for the campers on the opening date, June 29.

With the background of an unusually fine army post from which the troops have been withdrawn for the summer, and with the splendid facilities for conducting military maneuvers in regulation army fashion on a government reservation, Major Beals anticipates that Roosevelt veterans will find many new thrills awaiting them at the Fort Sheridan location. The camp will be on a level stretch of ground, which is well situated and beautifully adapted to the purpose. It will make athletics, drills, ceremonies and target practice easy because the parade ground, athletic field and target range adjoin the camp.

There will be three divisions, as in the past; junior, R. O. T. C. and summer schools, including seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades, and the camp will be conducted for seven weeks.

The Chicago Board of Education, under whose auspices the camp is conducted, maintains headquarters offices at 460 S. State street.

Oak Park Man Purchases C. H. Carlstrand House

Winnetkans are invited to attend annual Neighbors' Night at Community House Wednesday, April 29. A neighbor has issued the challenge in the following terms:

Don't you wish you knew the name of the nice person you sat near in church last Sunday? And the new people you see on the trains as you go into town?

How shall we keep alive that good old neighborly spirit? Why, by coming to Community House Wednesday, April 29, to "Neighbors' Night."

Last year's good time is remembered by all who were there. This year's will be even better. And a good deal of the success depends on each one coming and bringing the newest neighbor he can find. You'll be surprised how many you know, and how many more you'll have a chance to know.

LEGION NEWS

From the Post Adjutant

The next regular meeting of Winnetka Post will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Legion room of Community house. All members are urged to be present and, if possible, bring a friend eligible for membership.

We have an important resolution to bring before the Post and one that will interest most of us.

To date we are below our last year's paid-up membership total. Won't you kindly remit immediately if you have neglected this important item.

Yes, the show is an actual fact. You will miss something if you remain away. We have endeavored to give the best and we think you will agree with us that it is the best. Don't fail to make your reservations at once, and tell all your friends to do likewise. The reserve plats look very healthy to date and we are practically assured of three full houses, with Evanston, Wilmette and Glencoe all assisting. Other items regarding the show appear elsewhere in this issue.

"Public Scout Night" Scheduled for May 7

There is one night in the year—a large group of boys in Winnetka always look forward to, and that is "Public Scout Night." It is coming soon! Thursday evening, May 7 is the date. On this night the Boy Scouts will give a big demonstration of their work. It is an evening of interest to all boys and friends of boyhood. There will be a more detailed account next week. In the meantime, there is great activity in the "Scout Camp." The place will be Community House.
