

"Good Furniture Makes the Home"

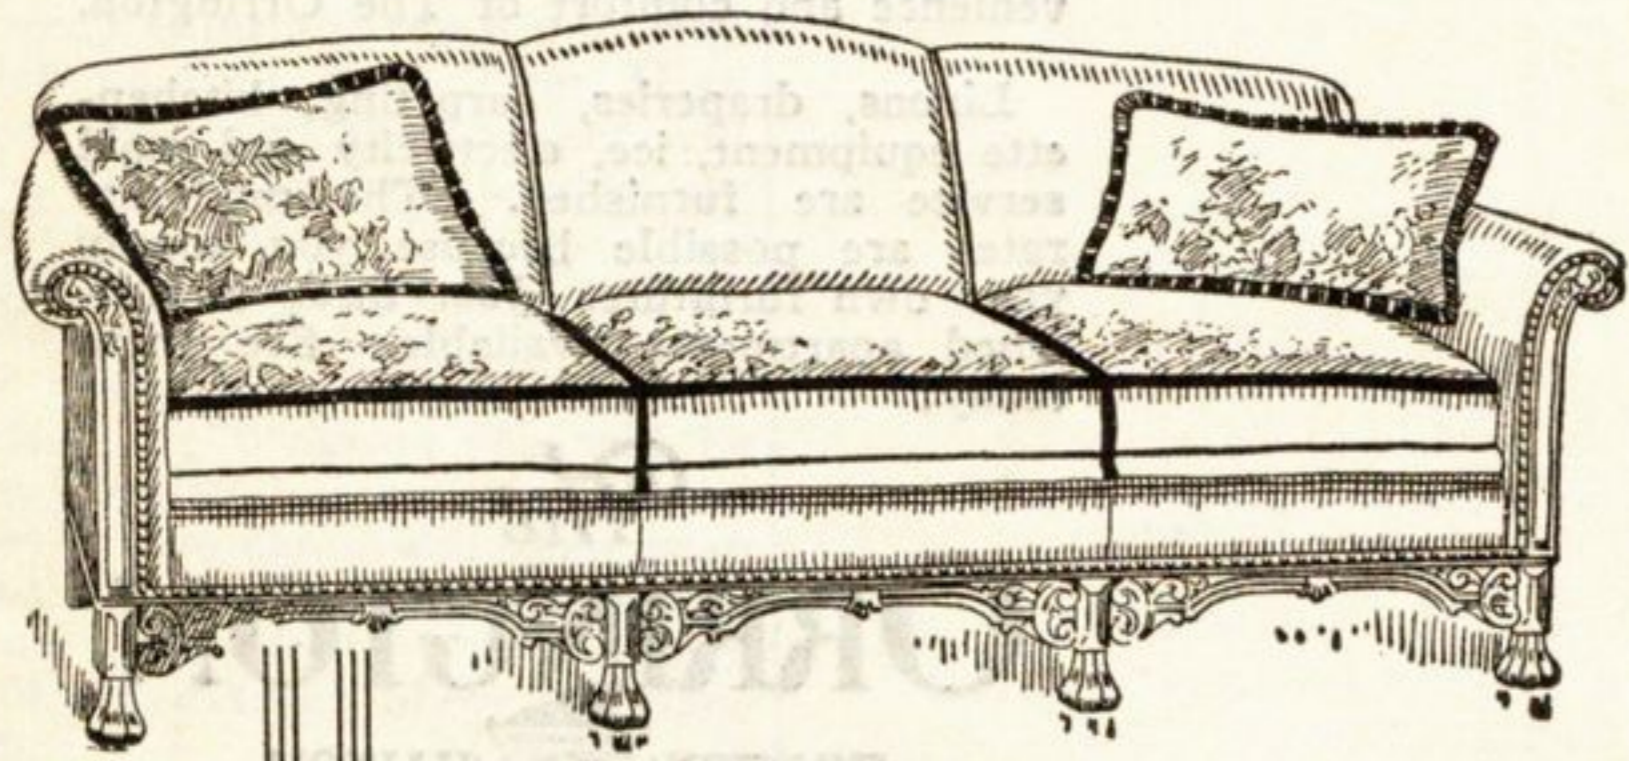

A very well constructed end Table, with a mahogany top and a gumwood base. Beautifully finished and priced at $295.

A 50-lb. genuine layer felt, Sealy Mattress, full size, best striped ticking. Price $19.00.

Italian Davenport

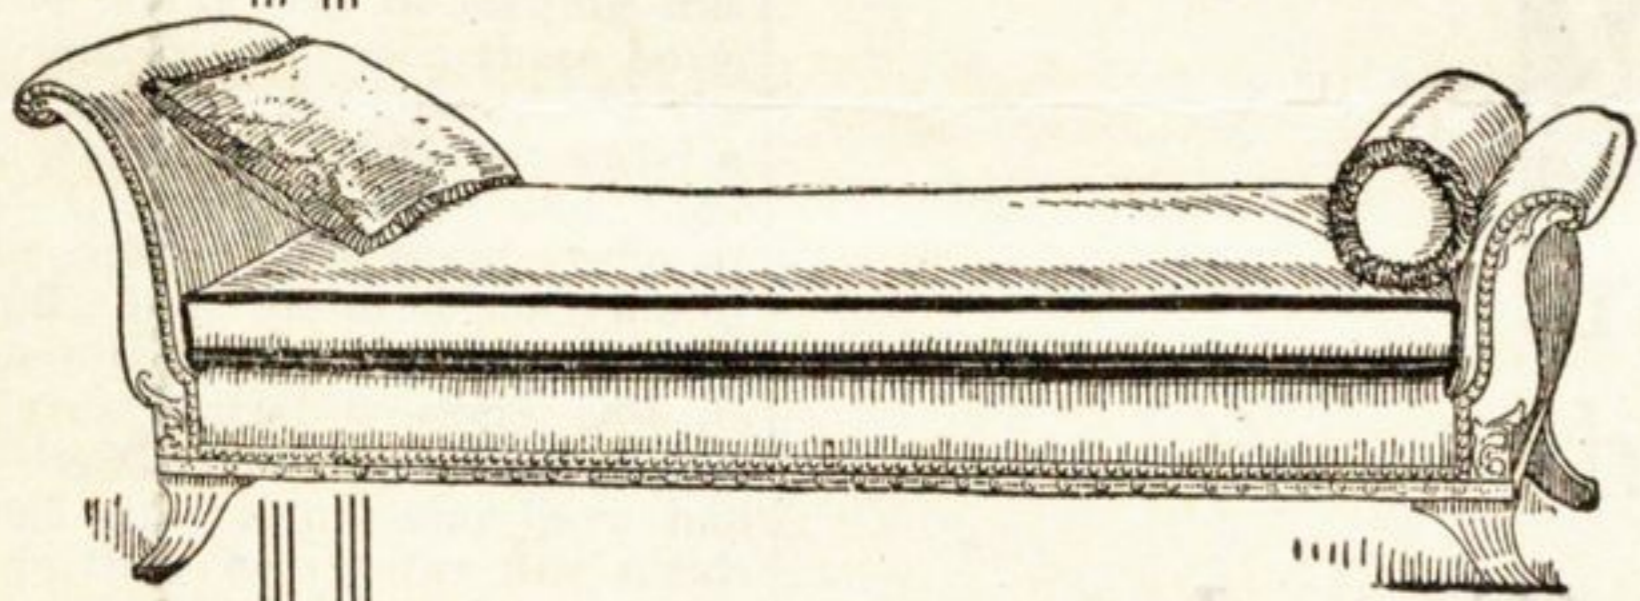

The price is

$267⁰⁰

The work of the old Italian masters is reproduced in the beautiful davenport pictured here. The solid mahogany frame is elaborately hand carved. It is covered entirely with the finest grade of mohair and the reverse side of the cushions with a pastel freize.

Old Colonial Couch

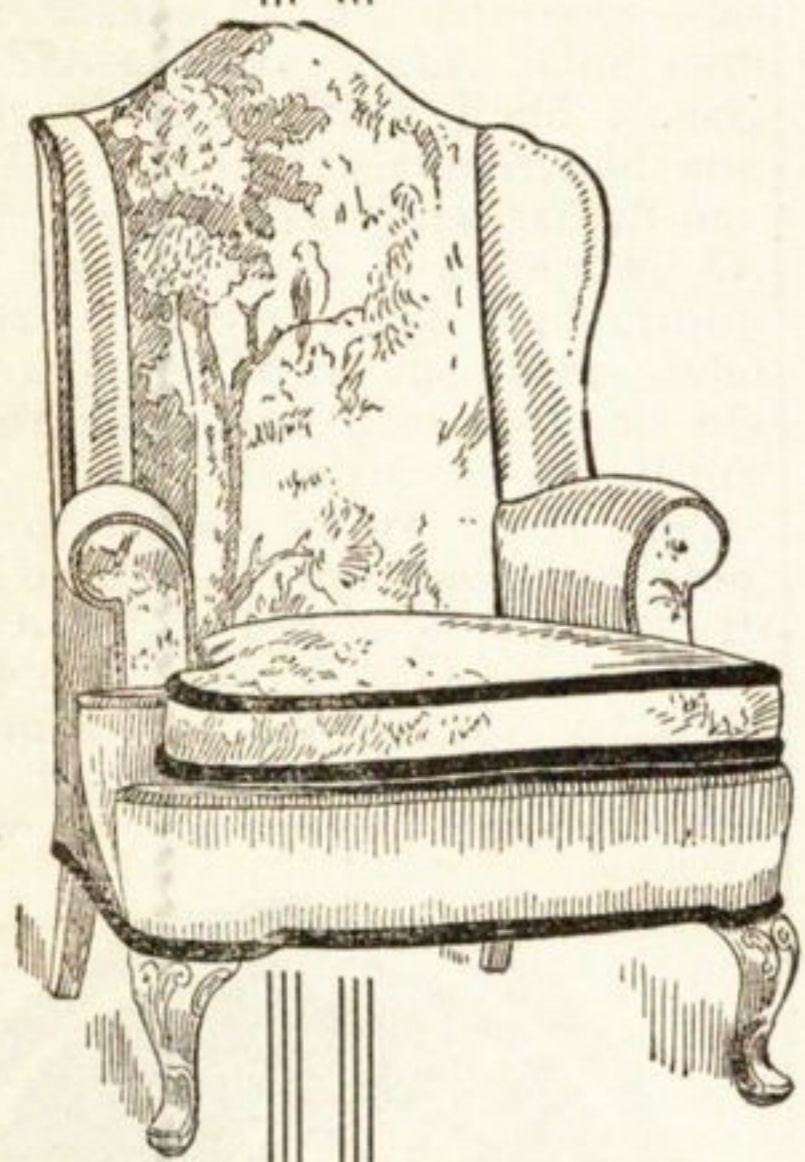

The price is

$243⁰⁰

The very piece of furniture for which you have been searching. The reversible cushion is filled with the finest grade of down, assuring greatest comfort. The solid mahogany, exposed frame is finished in a soft mellow brown.

An English Fireside Chair

With a reversible down-filled cushion and a high back with just the right slant for reading.

It is covered with a beautiful piece of wool tapestry.

The price is

$152⁰⁰

Inquire about our extended charge account purchasing plan.

Open Evenings
Tues., Thurs. and Sat.
7:30 to 9:30

Brown, Umlandt Furniture Co.

Fountain Square

1567 Sherman Ave.

EVANSTON

Tel Univ. 6300

ONE LOW, YEAR-ROUND PRICE

IN SOCIETY

Late Spring Time of Grove House Benefit

TULIP time in charming gardens has been chosen by the Winnetka board as propitious for a large society affair, a bridge and mah jongg benefit on Thursday, May 21, for Grove House, a home for convalescents in Evanston. The three following Winnetka homes will be open for the affair, which is in charge of Mrs. John Scott, that of Mrs. Hathaway Watson, 900 Sunset road, that of Mrs. John Stuart, 990 Sheridan road, and the Houghteling residence at 731 Prospect avenue.

Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Heyliger de Windt, Mrs. Frederick Scott, and Mrs. Cuthbert Adams will be hostesses at the Watson home. Mrs. John Stuart will be assisted by Mrs. Frank Blatchford, Mrs. Francis Butler, and Mrs. Calvin Fentress. Mrs. Victor Elting, Mrs. Arthur Tuttle, Mrs. Ralph Hobart, and Mrs. Morris Wilson will be hostesses at the Houghteling residence.

Eastern Star Party to Be Elaborate Affair

A large attractive event of the coming week is the last of the series of afternoon bridge parties given by the Winnetka Chapter, Number 948, O. E. S. The event will take place at the Temple, Tuesday afternoon, April 28, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Delbert W. Poff and Mrs. William H. Modes are co-chairmen of the affair. Between 45 and 50 tables have already been sold, and tickets may still be procured. Prizes will be given at each table and refreshments will be served. The following hostesses will be in charge of the four tea tables: Mrs. F. O. Neubacher, Mrs. Harold Hill, Mrs. David J. Gillespie, and Mrs. Frederick Richardson, Jr. Each hostess will have her assistants.

Dance Will Be Bryn Mawr Benefit

A novel departure from the afternoon benefits that have been given recently, will be the dance for the benefit of the Bryn Mawr music endowment and the student building, which will be given Saturday, May 9, at the Winnetka Woman's club at 9 o'clock. The Drake hotel orchestra will provide the music.

The North Shore Catholic Woman's league held the last regular club meeting of the year on Monday, April 20, at the Winnetka Woman's club.

The reports of the various officers were read, and that of the president, Mrs. W. A. Kittermaster, was a complete resume of the year's activities. Much worth while work has been accomplished through the social service department. The programs of the year contained much of cultural value and interest. The splendid cooperation of all the members in their various activities, served to promote a very happy and friendly social atmosphere.

The club greatly appreciates the untiring efforts and zeal on the part of the retiring president, Mrs. Kittermaster, and a cordial welcome is extended to the incoming officers of the year 1925-26: Mrs. William F. Brown, president; Mrs. James J. Enright, first vice president; Mrs. Frederick E. Clarke, second vice president; Mrs. William Schildgren, third vice president; Mrs. Frederick Hubsch, recording secretary; Mrs. Raymond Kloepfer, financial secretary; Mrs. Frederick Albrecht, treasurer, and the directors, Mrs. William Kittermaster, Mrs. Joseph T. Janette, Mrs. William Schneider, Mrs. Davis J. Hallinan, and Mrs. T. H. McAllister.

A group of southern women living in Winnetka attended the annual luncheon and musical given by the Southern Women's club at the Sovereign hotel, Thursday, April 23. Mrs. Edgar Foster Alden presided at the North Carolina table. The southern atmosphere was carried out most appropriately by the unique decorations she had made in the South especially for the occasion. A pair of mules, driven by a little pickaninny, and hauling a load of three little bales of cotton, was the favor for each guest. The centerpiece was the same conveyance and load of much large dimensions.

Mrs. Alden comes of a southern family. Her father, Bingham Nehemiah Smith, was one of the promoters of the first graded school in Charlotteville. She is also a great-niece of the late Ex-Governor Glenn of North Carolina.

J. Williams Macy of Hubbard lane, has been spending the past week in Dallas, Texas, where he is playing in the five presentations of "Outward Bound" given at the Little Theatre of Dallas by a cast selected from players in the Little Theatres throughout the country. Mr. Macy has been a guest at the home of Mrs. R. E. L. Knight, who will be remembered in Winnetka for her appearance here with the North Shore Theatre Guild in its production of "The Truth about Blayds" given two years ago. The members of the "Outward Bound" cast have been much feted with luncheons and evening affairs during their stay in Dallas.

The Pine Street circle had a most delightful musicale and reading at the home of Mrs. David Kennicott of Spruce street, Wednesday afternoon of last week, when Mrs. Edwin Bluthardt of Kenilworth, accompanied by Mrs. William McAdams, sang a group of songs, and Mrs. Agnes Mathis Cherry of Evanston gave "Smiling Through."

The pupils of Miss Elsie Zeit will give two ballets on Saturday afternoon, May 2, at 3:15 o'clock, at Winnetka Community House. The choreography is by Miss Zeit.

The two ballets are entitled "The Land of Nod," and "The Circus." In former, two little sleepy heads carrying candles, for they fear the dark, creep up to bed. After they fall asleep, the sandman comes and, discovering a book of Fairy Tales on the table, he puts on his glasses to peruse it. He finds a story to his liking and works it out in dreams. One by one he calls the characters from the book. At his summons, The Dream Fairy, The Weaver of Dreams, Jack of Dreams, and the King and Queen of the Land of Nod with all their court attendants, come to life in dreams for two little children.

In the second ballet, The Balloon Man, the Pop Corn Vender, the Circus Parade, The Ballet Dance with six little toe dancers, The Ring Master, The Tight-Rope Walker, The Clowns, And the Bareback Riders are the special features. Tiny tots will dance steps representing the jumpy movements of popping corn. This charming performance will be a benefit for Community House.

Mrs. Arthur Tuttle, 699 Walden road, is having a tea at her home next Friday afternoon, May 1, for all the workers for the coming Arden Shore drive in Winnetka, Hubbard Woods, and Indian Hill. Among her guests will be: Mrs. Marcus Richards, general chairman, Mrs. W. A. Lawson, vice chairman, Mrs. Edwin Keeler, vice chairman, Mrs. Fletcher Marsh, Big Brother chairman, and Mrs. John Montgomery, Mrs. Horace Armstrong, Mrs. William Bacon, Mrs. Charles Ball, Mrs. Edward Ball, Mrs. E. P. Bartlett, Mrs. Spencer Beman, Mrs. Robert Biddle, Mrs. Ballard Bradley, Mrs. Thomas Bulger, Mrs. Hibbard Casselberry, Mrs. Theodore J. Coyne, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. Charles Goodrich, Mrs. Leslie Gordon, Mrs. Charles Harding, Mrs. Norman Harris, Mrs. Carter Harrison, Mrs. C. P. Hanly, Mrs. William Lyon, Mrs. Robert McKisson, Mrs. Mellen Martin, Miss Ruth Matz, Mrs. Joseph Page, Mrs. Dudley Palmer, Mrs. James Rawleigh, Mrs. Gilbert Scribner, Mrs. Warren Shoemaker, Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Mrs. George Suker, Mrs. Henry Urion, Mrs. Edward Welles, and Mrs. Morris Wilson.

A cup of tea in a place to refresh the soul; this is offered each Monday and Wednesday afternoon by the deaconesses of the Winnetka Congregational church, in the hospital rooms of the Elizabeth Duncan Gift Shop on Elm street. Sometimes the talk drifts to the subject of the new church, and of course this is not discouraged! Everyone is invited to drop in when shopping, and meet the gaily arrayed waitresses who dispense the good things.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden and Mrs. Philip Sidney Post of 725 Pine street were present at the wedding of Miss Ellen Finlay, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Finlay, and Dr. William Kiser, Jr. of Atlanta, Ga., which took place in New York, Friday, April 17.