Drake Orchestra to Play at Benefit Dance

ON Saturday, May 9, one of the gayest dances of the season will be given at the Winnetka Woman's club, by a few of the Winnetka alumnae of Bryn Mawr college for the benefit of the present drive of that college to maintain the music department by a special endowment and build an auditorium. There is no hall at Bryn Mawr now, in which the whole student body may gather together due to the recent stringent enforcement of the Pennsylvania fire laws.

The Drake orchestra, renowned all over the country, has been engaged for the evening.

It is one of the finest dance orchestras that can be obtained, and Winnetka people are indeed fortunate to have this rare opportunity not only to hear, but to dance to this music. There will be a few bridge tables provided for those who do not care to dance.

The list of patronesses follows: Mrs. Laird Bell, Mrs. Darrell S. Boyd, Mrs. Preston Boyden, Mrs. Nathaniel Blatchford, Mrs. Richard S. Bull, Mrs. John W. Brown, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Goddard Cheney, Miss Lois Coffin, Mrs. J. F. Damman, Mrs. Malcolm Fleming, Miss Natalie Gookin, Mrs. Samuel A. Greeley, Mrs. Sydney Haskel, Mrs. William B. Hale, Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Mrs. Sebastian Hinton, the Misses Houghteling, Mrs. Richard P. Matthiessen, Miss Virginia Miller, Mrs. Philip W. Moore, Miss Louise Otis, Mrs. James Porter, Mrs. John R. Reilly, Mrs. Gilbert Scribner, Mrs. Henry Tenney, Miss Margaret Ullman, and the Misses Von Hofsten.

Arden Shore Issues Homecoming Invitation

THE annual Homecoming Day celebration will be held at Arden Shore Camp, Lake Bluff, on Sunday, May 3, and the board of directors invites all friends of Arden Shore to visit the camp on that day. There will be a short program at 3 o'clock, consisting of music by the Great Lakes orchestra and the New Trier Girls Glee club, an informal talk by Perry Dunlap Smith, headmaster of the Winnetka Country Day school, and camp songs by the boys.

Tea will be served after the program's conclusion. The hostesses of the day are Mrs. Harry A. Hooton and Mrs. George A. Mason, assisted by the following women of the north shore and Chicago: Mrs. Frederick G. Wacker, Mrs. Harry A. Sellery, Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, Mrs. Norman W. Harris, Mrs. Alfred MacDougall, Mrs. James Prentiss, Mrs. Willis Hutson, Mrs. Edwin Sherman, Miss Gladys Spry, Mrs. Richard Gambrill, and Mrs. Lloyd S. Shaw.

The list of Arden Shore workers for the coming drive starting May 4, is almost complete, and will include over 100 Winnetka residents. In addition to the list published last week, are the following: Mesdames Montague Ferry, Goddard Cheney, Charles Matz, S. Edwin Earle, Herman Hopkins, Andrew Mitchell, Paul Sullivan, James Pfeiffer, Austin Jenner, John Metcalf, Lawrence Onderdonk, George Perrigo, Dean Hole, Walter Neilson, Stuart Weston, Ralph Renwick, Stephen Birch, Melville Chatten, Heyn Lee Hooper, Randolph Buck, Harold Wilder, Arthur Cushman, Lewis Williams, Roger Ballard, John Roach, Robert Brown, William Van Horne, Keith Estelle, George McConnell, Robert Laird, Samuel McCaulley, Arthur Roberg, Willard Lochridge, Samuel Rice, Dorr Price, Howard Walsh, Harry Street, Arthur Woodward, and Miss Elizabeth Greeley.

Next Wednesday, May 6, sees the close of another successful year for the Woman's society of the Congregational church. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock, and will be followed by a "Surreise Program." News of the work done, and plans for the year to come, will be presented in a way to interest everyone.

Every member is asked to reserve the date, Wednesday, May 6, 1 o'clock. Women who have not yet become members will find this an opportune time to join. Their names will then be entered on the roll in the new year book, which is to be published during the summer. There are now about 375 members; and the enterprise and vigor of the plans for next year will command the attention of all women who like to be in a "going" concern.

With the closing of Indian Hill club, a little earlier perhaps, than the weather itself necessitated, came the announcement that the hospitable doors were closing to permit extensive remodeling and redecorating. For several months the interior of the club has been undergoing a process of renovation, and we have been told that the decoration of the interior, the work of Ernst von Ammon, is most artistic. From recent reports all is about in readiness for the opening, for on Thursday morning Mr. von Ammon was at the club putting the finishing touches on furniture and appointments.

Mrs. Lucy Graves and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartholomay, have taken the L. B. Sherman home at 575 Sheridan road for the summer months during the absence of its occupants who are sailing May 16, for a summer abroad. Mrs. Graves has purchased a home on Walnut street, near Willow, and the Bartholomays are building at the corner of Maple and Cedar streets.

Mrs. Paul of 824 Humboldt avenue, who suffered a fall a few weeks ago, and who has been confined to St. Francis hospital, has returned to her home and is convalescing rapidly.

The Grove House White Elephant Sale which has been an annual event, to which Winnetkans and residents of other north shore villages have always contributed most generously, has been given up for this year. The Grove House board, however, is cooperating this season with Thrift House and other Evanston charities, in holding a rummage sale at Thrift House throughout the month of May. Winnetka members of the Grove House board are busily engaged in collecting goods of all kinds, and will be only too glad to communicate with anyone wishing to contribute clothing, furniture, and household goods and miscellaneous articles which may be "white elephants" to their owners, but the sale of which will aid in bringing help to the unfortunate. Those desiring to donate, are requested either to send articles to Mrs. Hathaway Watson's garage, to Thrift House, or communicate with Mrs. Watson and she will arrange for conveyance of the goods, if necessary. Contributors are asked to make notation that articles are for Grove House.

The Winnetka members of the Grove House board working for the month's sale are: Mrs. Hathaway Watson, president of the board; Mrs. Frederick Scott, Mrs. John Stuart, Mrs. Francis Butler, Mrs. Calvin Fentress, Mrs. Cuthbert Adams, Mrs. Arthur Tuttle, Mrs. Victor Elting, Mrs. Morris Wilson, and Mrs. Frank Blatchford. Grove House will be grateful for any contributions.

"Neighbors' Night" was happily celebrated last Wednesday evening at the Congregational church. The Rudolph Matz hall was transformed from its usual appearance as a "movie hall," and with oriental rugs, flowers, lamps, and green trimmings, made a delightful reception room for the 200 or more who dropped in for the evening. Informal conversation was interspersed with music by the church chorus, which sang two numbers, and the chimes played by Ludwig Martin. James Fentress gave a group of Negro songs and melodies, remembered from boyhood days spent in the South, and Milton Higgins gave a reading in his own vivid way. Refreshments served by the deaconesses added to the pleasure of the evening; and the spirit of good-fellowship made this second annual "Neighbors' Night" a great success.

"The 'Stitch in Time' club of the Congregational church is ready to do your plain work or repair those rents and tears of an outrageous fortune! Your part will be to call Winnetka 250, stating that you need such help, and then to put such sorrowful garments into bag or basket, and they will be called for and delivered. N. B. All garments must be clean. Profits will swell the the new church building fund." The preceding notice comes from a group of workers anxious to "Fill a Need" while they help in a worth while campaign.
