

PAST WEEK BRINGS LOCAL CLUB SEASON TO AN END

Woman's Club of Wilmette Shows a Splendid Record

ON May 6, the annual luncheon of the Woman's Club of Wilmette was given at the Edgewater Beach hotel, thus closing the year's activities. Every member should feel a just pride in what the club has given to its members and to the community, for it has been carrying on a splendid work.

The club has given 31 percent of its income to charity, or a little more than $5,000. A large part of this donation was made possible by the very efficient work of the Economy Shop under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Dixon. Another part of the charity work was done by the philanthropy department under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. C. West. About $700 was spent for material out of which 1800 garments were made. The institutions that were the beneficiaries either of funds, or clothing, or both, were the Frances Juvenile home, Cook County hospital, Infant Welfare, Lake Bluff orphanage, Mary Bartelme home, Little Wanderers, Sarah Hackett Stephenson Memorial Lodging house, United Charities, Legal Aid fund, Oak Haven Old People's home, Daily News Fresh Air Fund, Grosse Point Health Center, Chicago Woman's Shelter, Park Ridge School for Girls, local free movies for children, American Legion, Travelers' Aid, Glenwood Manual Training school, the Howard school which received from the club, a rug for the teachers' room. Seven hundred dollars has been given or pledged to the Wilmette Community Chest.

In the friendly cooperation with ex-service men at the Great Lakes hospital, Mrs. C. D. Ewer and her committee have done a wonderful work, especially through their personal interest which has meant a great deal to the boys. They made Christmas a real experience and brightened the entire year with flowers, cookies, candy, tobacco, books, magazines, and many necessary gifts of clothing.

Courses have been conducted in citizenship, current events, music appreciation (interpretation of the programs of the Dasch players), and effective speaking. Book reviews have been given, and the club's interest in art has been manifested by a gallery tour, by its cooperation in North Shore Art league exhibit, and by the three day exhibition of the artists of Wilmette.

The members of the club have enjoyed almost unlimited opportunities for pleasure. Three evening dances have been directed by Mrs. N. P. Colwell, and 28 luncheons. Mrs. E. D. Fuchs, the social chairman, has been most ably assisted by her committee.

The club has five well organized and active departments, namely, the art and literature, with Mrs. Sumner R. Mason, chairman; the child and home, Mrs. Lafayette Cozzens, chairman; civics and legislation, Mrs. James G. Wray, chairman; music, Mrs. Herbert B. Mulford, chairman; and the philanthropy, with Mrs. Herbert C. West, the chairman.

Programs as fine as any offered in Chicago or on the north shore have been presented at the club, accounts of which have been given in this paper as they appeared. Such nationally known persons as Dr. Richard Burton, Bertha Kunz Baker, Dudley Crafts Watson, Horace Bridges, and Carveth Wells were among those on the programs. The very high standards maintained in the club programs is due to the experienced president, Mrs. R. E. Pattison Kline, who has had the very able assistance of Mrs. Harvey Bush, program chairman, and the heads of the departments.

The club bulletin, edited by Mrs. John C. Boddie, has had four interesting issues a year.

The club owns its building which is free from incumbrances; it has a membership of 600 women with a waiting list of over 50.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Mrs. N. P. Colwell, president; Mrs. Hayes McKinney, Mrs. G. W. Kibby, Mrs. Arthur Dixon, vice presidents; Mrs. J. W. Fisher, Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Ralph T. Huff corresponding secretary; Mrs. David L. Anderson, treasurer.

On Monday the retiring board of directors of the club gave a luncheon for the retiring president, Mrs. R. E. Pattison Kline, at the home of Mrs. G. W. Kibby, 830 Lake avenue.

Wellesley Circle Elects New Officers

THE annual luncheon and election of officers for the Chicago Wellesley club will take place Saturday, May 9, at the Wedgwood room of Marshall Field's, at 12:30 o'clock.

The May meeting of the North Shore group was held in Highland Park on Monday afternoon. There was no program planned for this meeting, and after the election of new officers for the group, the meeting was turned into a social gathering. Mrs. T. Hamilton Walter of Evanston, is the new president; Mrs. Henry K. Urion of Winnetka is the vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Amory T. Irwin is corresponding secretary and treasurer, and Miss Emelyn Waltz of Glencoe, is the recording secretary.

Distinguished Guests to Attend Semi-Centennial

THREE president of New England colleges will be the speakers at Wellesley college's Semi-Centennial celebration on May 29. They are President James Roland Angell of Yale, President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard, and President Mary Emma Woolley of Mt. Holyoke.

One of these speakers, President Woolley, speaks to Wellesley in double capacity. Not only will she bring greetings from a sister college, like Wellesley a pioneer in women's education; but she will also speak as a former member of the Wellesley faculty. From 1895 to 1900 Miss Woolley was a member of the Wellesley department of biblical history.

About 250 universities and colleges in this country and abroad have received invitations to send delegates to the Wellesley celebration. The responses already received indicate a most distinguished gathering. Invitations have also gone to many friends of Wellesley, to various learned societies, museums, and foundations, to former faculty members and trustees.

Glencoe Library Club

THE annual meeting of the Woman's Library club of Glencoe was held all day Thursday, May 7, at the Union church, with a delicious luncheon served at noon. Mrs. Francis S. Graham, chairman of the social committee was assisted by a large group of young women, as hostesses.

Reports of officers, of the membership committee, revisions committee, building committee, and various other committees were made at the morning business session, and at the same time, the following officers were elected:

Mrs. Henry M. Paynter, first vice president; Miss Ethel Serene deLang, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Albert R. Gates, treasurer; Mrs. Fred P. Patton, chairman of civics committee, and Mrs. Francis S. Graham and Mrs. Chesley R. Perry, directors. Bessie Williams Boynton presented a playlet, "Where the True Begins" as the afternoon's program.

Mrs. Clarence T. MacNeille, 828 Bluff street, will open her home for a bridge and mah jongg party for the benefit of the building fund on Wednesday, May 20, at 2 o'clock. The prizes, all of which have been donated, are most attractive, and refreshments will be served. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the committee, or at Glen Cote.

The following club members are assisting Mrs. MacNeille in arranging for this function: Mesdames Augustus C. Allen, Paul L. Battey, G. Fred Earnshaw, Lionel H. Frank, Elbert E. Haight, Walter C. Hughes, George W. Mieth, Harry A. Peters, Henry T. Smith, Charles J. Watson, and Roger H. Weightman.

The Civics committee will give a party for the Night School class Friday evening, May 29, at 7:30 o'clock.

PACKARD SERVICE BY PACKARD . FOR THE North Shore

A block long

The new Packard Sales and Service Branch . . . Railroad Avenue and Clark Street, Evanston . . . now open for the convenience of Packard owners and prospective owners in the North Shore suburbs

THE OPENING of our new Packard Branch for North Shore Packard owners is another step forward in the development of Packard Service. Here Packard serves your Packard as only the maker can service his product; and here you will find a location convenient to your daily comings and goings.

All service operations except major operations are performed at this plant by experienced Packard workmen—tuning motor, grinding valves, removing carbon, adjusting brakes, oiling, greasing, washing, polishing and all the other matters of maintenance that constitute thorough upkeep. And here also is located a complete Packard Sales Department. A full line of Packard Sixes and Packard Eights awaits your inspection in this convenient show room, as well as a complete line of Packard accessories.

You are invited to call and inspect this splendid plant. And if there is some adjustment you desire for your Packard, leave it here in the morning and call for it on your return from the city in the evening. The Davis Street railroad station and the North Shore Church Street station are but a block away—the "L" only two.

PACKARD SERVICE

FROM RIDGE AVENUE—If southbound, turn left at the viaduct and down Railroad Avenue to Packard. If northbound turn east at Church Street, under viaduct, and north to plant.

FROM FOUNTAIN SQUARE, EVANSTON—Proceed north on Chicago Avenue to Church Street, west on Church to Railroad Avenue, and then north to the new Packard plant.
