

North Shore Gardens Will Again Be Open to Public

WITH the advent of another spring comes the word from the Lake Forest Garden club that once again the public, that portion at least, loving beautiful flowers and shrubs artistically arranged, will have the privilege of making four Saturday jaunts to a number of delightful gardens, at a small admission fee.

But this season, Lake Forest estates will not be the only ones giving visitors glimpses of their beauty, for Winnetka and Kenilworth members of the Lake Forest Garden club will also open their gardens. In fact Saturday, May 16, will find several charming garden plots of the latter villages ready for inspection. Those journeying northward will find little white bags on the gates that will open in hospitality the gardens of Mrs. V. K. Spicer of Kenilworth, and Mrs. Howard K. Phillips, Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Mrs. Robert Cluett, Mrs. Frederick Scott, Mrs. John W. Scott, and Mrs. James Simpson, all of Winnetka.

On Saturday, May 30, the following Lake Forest gardens will be displayed; those of Mrs. Frances C. Farwell, Mrs. Aime Millet, Mrs. John Pirie, Mrs. James Viles, Mrs. George A. Seaverns, Sr. The following week, visitors will again go to Winnetka, to the gardens of Mrs. John Stuart, Mrs. Calvin Fentress, Mrs. Charles W. Hubbard, and Mrs. Edward Welles. The last visit will be to Lake Forest, on June 20, when Mrs. Louis Lafin, Mrs. A. A. Carpenter, Mrs. Roy K. Sturtevant, Mrs. Albert Blake Dick, Jr., Mrs. Philip Armour, Jr., and Mrs. William E. Clow, Sr. will open their gardens.

A ticket purchased at any one of the gates displaying a white flag will give entree to all of the gardens open on that particular day.

Madame Rider gave a lecture on Russian music and composers, playing Russian compositions by way of illustration, with that unusual interpretation which only an artist can give. By special request of the club, Madame Rider played one of her own compositions which proved her to be a gifted composer as well as and interpreter of other masterpieces.
