

'TORNADO' FILM COMES TUESDAY

"He Who Gets Slapped" Booked for Friday

Crashing, hurtling logs tossed ahead of a resistless torrent make a spectacular background for some of the action in "The Tornado" which was adapted from Lincoln J. Carter's famous melodrama of the same name. It tells the story of a man who seeks to lose his identity and heal the wounds of his heart by terrific toil in the North Woods. His great strength and forceful temper cause him to be known as "Tornado". House Peters takes the leading role. On the same program, Andy Gump will appear in his latest two-reel comedy.

Friday, May 29, the film which is heralded as "the greatest International success of modern times" will be offered at Community House. "He Who Gets Slapped," starring Lon Chaney, John Gilbert, and Norma Shearer, has received lavish praise from practically every motion picture critic. This unusual picture, adapted from the play by the noted Russian author, Leonid Andreyev, is set in the locale of a Continental hippodrome, with a clown as the central character.

"He Who Gets Slapped" is the story of a brilliant scientist whose life work is stolen by his patron and friend. "HE," embittered, and seeking forgetfulness, becomes a clown in a French circus.

Richards Views Bible as "Textbook of Life"

At the meeting of the Winnetka Sunday Evening club last Sunday Rev. James Austin Richards discussed the topic, "Science and the Bible." He emphasized the opinion that the sense of conflict in many people's minds between science and the Bible rests on four false assumptions: first, that belief in the principles of science destroys the idea that the Bible is inspired; second, that the religious authority of the Bible is imperiled; third, that the truth of the Bible is destroyed; fourth, that belief in evolution takes away the dignity and worth of man. Mr. Richards expressed the idea that the Bible is a repository of the body of religious experience; that it is the textbook for the laboratory of life.

Mr. Richards will again be with the club Sunday evening, May 24. He will present the topic "How may we think of God?"

The meeting will be held in the Camp Fire room at the Community House. Supper will be served at 6:30

ELM STREET TO HAVE NEW ELECTRIC DEPOT

Numerous improvements to their station facilities are contemplated by the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee electric railway, according to a report made to the Village council by the public utilities committee Tuesday evening. The committee reported favorably on the matter and work is expected to start in the near future.

The present passenger station at Elm street is to be replaced by a modern one-story structure, the architecture of which will harmonize with that of the Boal building, across the street. The new station will be able to take care of passengers more efficiently and will be larger than the present structure. The permit for its erection will be issued with the understanding that the North Shore line agrees to remove the station when grade separation is accomplished.

The company's plans also involve the removal of the merchandise dispatch station to the present sub-station on Lincoln avenue, just north of the passenger station. It is also planned to construct longer loading platforms at Elm street so that trains will not block the crossing when they stop to discharge or load passengers.

Frederick R. Corvinus Called by Death Sunday

Frederick Robert Corvinus, who had resided in Winnetka for 42 years, died in the Evanston hospital Sunday morning, May 17, of blood poisoning, and was laid to rest in the Memorial Park cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Funeral services were held from the Scott Undertaking chapel in Evanston, Rev. Stemple White of the North Shore Seventh Day Adventist church of Chicago, officiating.

He was born in Karlsruhe, Baden, Germany, January 3, 1849, and was thus at the day of his death on May 17, 78 years, 4 months, and 14 days of age. At the age of 19 he came to America and settled in New York state. After his marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Corvinus lived in Chicago some 20 years before settling in Winnetka. The home is at 752 Sunset road. Both were members of the North Shore Seventh Day Adventist church in Chicago. They had been married 42 years, and two of their three children were present at the funeral.—Fred Corvinus of Detroit, Michigan, and Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson of Berwyn, Illinois. One son, Ernest Corvinus, is in Arizona traveling, and it was impossible at the time to locate him.

KEEPING YOUR LAWN AND GARDEN IN GOOD CONDITION

Make the job easy by using the proper tools. There are the handiest of tools and all else you require waiting for you to make selections to your particular needs.

Grass Hooks

Get the grass in corners and hollows, the mower won't reach.

The Right Lawn Mower

It all depends upon the size of your lawn and the lay of the ground as to which style or size of lawn mower you had better buy. We have all the different sizes in widths and these are the easiest running and the longest wearing you can get at any price.

Hedge Cutters

With one blade notched to snip off the tough branches.

The Famous "Bartlett" mower is included in our stock. Your old mower may be all right with a good cleaning and re-sharpening. In any case it would be a good plan to bring it in and let us go over it and make it good as new.

Lawn Sprinklers

We have a large variety that you may select from.

Pruning Shears

Extra quality steel blade. Cuts clean and easily.

Hose Nozzles

Hose Couplings, Hose Menders, Hose Washers, Hose Reels and a good grade of Garden Hose.
