

YOUNG ARTISTS DELIGHT CLUB

Women Provide Season's Final Program

The musical program presented at the home of Mrs. Asa B. Cooley, 1258 Scott avenue, on Monday evening, was most skillfully executed and enthusiastically received. The occasion was the closing meeting of the Winnetka Music club, formerly the MacDowell Musical club of Winnetka.

The artists were Marta Milinowski, pianist, Wally Heymar, violinist, and Bessie Andrus, soprano. The accompanist for Miss Heymar was Cordelia Schellinger and for Miss Andrus, Mrs. Andrus.

The opening number, Cesar Franck's "Sonata for Piano and Violin", was played with remarkable technical ability and discriminating appreciation. The quality of tone produced by Miss Heymar was unusually pure and resonant. The second section of this sonata, Allegretto poco mosso, being more familiar, was probably liked more by the auditors, of whom there must have been, incidentally well over 100.

Meyerbeer's well known "Shadow Song" from "Dinorah," was flawlessly given by Miss Andrus, who, with surprising facility, executed the ornate passages characteristic of this composition. Mrs. Andrus furnished an entirely adequate accompaniment.

Whitfield's "In an Irish Jaunting Car," a piano number unique in its various rhythms and Celtic humor, was played by Miss Milinowski with a true sympathy and rollicking spirit. The pianist showed her versatility by presenting appropriately Chopin's "Nocturne in G Major" and a Spanish dance by Albeniz.

Miss Andrus next sang "The Doll Song" from Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman." With her mechanical doll-like movements she delighted the assembled guests. In this connection the services of J. Williams Macy as official winder of the human doll must be noted. Miss Andrus followed this number with a very acceptable encore.

The evening's violinist, Miss Heymar, closed the recital with four very interesting selections, ably assisted on the piano by Miss Schellinger. The writer of this review is not alone in wishing that the three young artists had presented a much longer program.

DANCING CLASS GIVES INTERESTING PROGRAM

The accompanying program of the Community House Dancing class was presented under the direction of Miss Patricia Taylor, the instructor of the class.

It marked the close of the work for the season and was attended by a large audience of parents and friends of the children who crowded the Rudolph Matz hall to view the performance.

The children danced with unusual spirit and finish and there were many expressions of appreciation for the work of Miss Taylor, under whose direction the pupils have made marked progress. It is expected that there will be a heavy enrollment next season.

The program was as follows:

- Juniors
 - A—Nature Studies

URGE INTEREST IN OUR LIBRARY

About One-Third of Us Read Its Volumes

Many interesting facts are disclosed in the annual report of the Winnetka Public Library which was recently submitted to the trustees by Miss Mary Hewes, librarian, for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1925. The report follows:

Number of volumes in the Library 14,974
Number of borrowers 3,793
Circulation of books for the year 48,808

During the year 827 books were added to the library by purchase and 40 by gift.

According to the 1924 school census there are 9981 residents in the village, a little more than one-third of whom are holders of library cards entitling them to take books from the library. The average number of books read by each card holder was 12.8, a little more than a book a month. Each book in the library had an average circulation of 3.2 times. While this record is a notable one, still it is evident that the library is not being used by as many of the residents of Winnetka as it should be. The library is supported by and the joint property of all the residents of the village and it is the aim of the library board to have its facilities so well known that it will be utilized much more than it is at present.

Roofing Expert Returns From Winter in Florida

Howard S. Board, well known in Wilmette business circles for several years, has returned to the village after an extended sojourn in Florida and is now associated with the local offices of the Ajax Asphalt Shingle company.

Mr. Board represented the Richardson company on the West Coast during the winter season. He was formerly with the Parnell Roofing company and has directed the re-roofing of some of the most beautiful homes on the north shore.
