

Rosenberg's

The North Shore's Greatest Store

The June Drive, 1925, marks the height of our achievements thus far

In order that we may know the true condition of things and mark our progress up to date, we have set aside March as a month in which to test our strength and discover our weaknesses. It is planned that every section, shall during June, give evidence of its full ability.

VALUES AT THEIR PEAK

Summer merchandise will be offered at prices which tell at a glance how keen we have become in searching the market for advantageous purchases. The quality of the goods will be an estimate of our judgment in such matters.

SERVICE AT ITS BEST

The service you receive will prove how close we have come to giving ideal Rosenberg Service. It will be a month of Saving for you. A month, we hope, of fuller appreciation of Rosenberg's—The North Shore's Greatest Store.

OUR EIGHTH ANNUAL ST. LOUIS MARKET SALE

Begins Thursday, June 5th

Women all along the North Shore have been waiting for the St. Louis Market Sale—an annual June event that offers enormous quantities of summer merchandise of standard quality at the lowest-of-the-year prices. For eight consecutive years this sale has been considered a worth-while selling event. The tremendous savings on every article urge your attendance.

A charge account is a wonderful convenience

A splendid all-the-year-round convenience and especially desirable during the month of June when we know you will be doing a great deal of shopping here. Opening an account entails but few preliminaries. The Credit Manager is very pleasant.

Credit Desk --- Third Floor

OF COURSE WE WILL NEED EXTRA SALES PEOPLE

And fifty women are going to have an opportunity of earning vacation pin money by working full and part time during our Greatest June Drive. Apply at once—Superintendent's Office—Third Floor. Please do not telephone!

IN SOCIETY

Elizabeth Greeley Wed This Afternoon

THIS afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Miss Elizabeth Greeley will become the bride of Walter F. Stile, Jr., of Fitchburg, Mass. The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard will read the service at Christ church at 5 o'clock, after which a small reception will be held at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Larned Greeley, 655 Maple avenue.

Attending the bride will be her sister, Miss Louisa May Greeley, who will be maid of honor, and Mrs. Frank C. Baker of Kansas City, Mo., Miss Dorothy Day of Winnetka, Miss Mildred Luthardt of Chicago, and Miss Nancy Miller of Chicago, the bridesmaids.

Robert Tunis of Cambridge, Mass., will be Mr. Stiles' best man, and Morris Larned Greeley, Jr., brother of the bride, Mars P. Bishop of Evanston, Carroll Harrington of Providence, R. I., and Richard Stiles, the groom's brother will usher.

Members Throng to Golf Clubs Today

MUCH of the Decoration Day festivity is centering at the golf clubs. Throughout the day special golf tournaments have been held at Indian Hill and Sunset Ridge, but in the evening the sports attire evident during the day will be supplanted by dress more formal, for both of these clubs are introducing the opening of the summer season with formal dinner-dances, which will be attended by a large number of members and their guests.

Winnetka Girl to Be June Debutante

WITH the advent of June, comes the word of a debut of summer charm. Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Ripley will introduce their daughter, Miss Beatrice, at a tea on June 27, in their new home on Indian Hill road, Winnetka. Miss Ripley will enter Vassar college in the fall.

The many friends and former pupils of the Columbia School of Music living in the various parts of the country, were charmed with the commencement program given by the pupils on Wednesday evening, May 20, at Orchestra hall, Chicago.

Word was sent out that the concert was to be broadcast over the Daily News station, WMAQ, so the absent friends and families of the faculty living elsewhere, listened in. The letters and telegrams received were evidence that the concert was greatly appreciated. Nita Clay, pianist, Herman Silverman, violinist, Marion Carlisle, soprano, Hilda Hinrichs, 'cellist, and Charlotte Erpelding, pianist, gave the following program:

Orchestra: March "Queen of Sheba"
Gounod

Piano: Concerto op. 22 G minor
Saint-Saens

Andante sostenuto
Presto

Violin: Concerto op. 22 D minor
Wieniawski

Allegro Moderato
Romance

Allegro con fuoco—Allegro moderato
(a la Zingara)

Voice: Recitative and Aria; O Patria
Mia "Aida"Verdi

Violoncello: Concerto D minor..Lalo
Lento-Allegro maestoso

Intermezzo

Piano: Concerto E flat major ..Liszt
Orchestra: Finlandia op 26 ..Sibelius

The committee of the summer Christmas Tree festivities to be held on the lawn of the Frank Ferry residence on Sheridan road, June 6, at 3 o'clock, wishes to announce that anyone who does not wish to make a gift for the tree, may send or hand in a donation of money to Mrs. A. Montague Ferry of 504 Ash street. Funds thus received will be expended to buy suitable gifts to send to India.

The decorating of the Christmas tree which is growing on the lawn, will be in charge of a committee of young girls which includes Doris Ferry, chairman, Jeanette Hill, Phyllis Ferry, Catherine Roach, Margaret Stults, and Eleanor Cushman.

Mrs. Archibald Freer (Eleanor Everest) is entertaining at the Cordon Sunday afternoon, June 7, in honor of Isaac Van Grove, Leroy Wetzel, Lester Luther, and the artists who will take part in the two American operas, "The Legend of the Piper" and "The Music Robber," which will be given Sunday, June 14, at the Central theater.

During the reception Mrs. Freer is giving, the Drake Ensemble orchestra will furnish music, and tea will be served.

Miss Elizabeth Wells Robertson and John Robertson, Miss Elizabeth Krysher Peyraud and Frank C. Peyraud will entertain a group of north shore artists and their friends on Sunday, June 7, at the home of Miss Robertson, 1250 Judson avenue, Ravinia. The hosts will make their guests welcome to a "feast of reason and a flow of soul in the greenwood." At sunset the thrushes, robins and many little singing birds will carol their vespers. Ravinia is at its best now.

The new cottage erected at the Bowen Country club in Waukegan, as a memorial to Laura Dainty Pelham, was formally dedicated on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. B. F. Langworthy and Mrs. M. H. Lieber attended the exercises. The former gave one of the addresses on the program.

The Chicago Wellesley club has chosen Mrs. Hubert Howard of Winnetka as its representative at the Wellesley college semi-centennial celebration held at Wellesley this week, on May 28, 29. Mrs. C. D. Kingsley, Mrs. Irwin Rew of Evanston, Miss Chi Che Wang of Chicago university, Miss Dorothea Schmiedgen and Miss Joy Scheidenhelm of Wilmette and Mrs. William E. Hincliff of Rockford went back as delegates from their college classes. And many other Chicago Wellesley alumnae expected to be present for the celebration in less official capacity.

Chicago university was represented by a Wellesley professor, Miss Helen Sard Hughes, Ph. D., Chicago. President William A. Maddox of Rockford college and President H. M. Moore of Lake Forest college expected to attend. Knox college was represented by its former dean of women, Mrs. Philip Post. The University of Illinois sent Professor Archibald Leslie, now at Boston university. James Milliken university represented by Dr. Noel P. Hudson, now pathologist of the Boston City hospital. Carthage college sent an alumna now living near Boston, Miss Lucile Rand.

Harry Jacobi, 934 Sheridan road, motored to French Lick, Ind., this week. He is expecting to spend several weeks there.

An evening fraught with interest to the members of the Music club of New Trier High school and their families occurred on Thursday of last week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sterrett, of Winnetka. The Music club, which has been in existence for several years, is composed of New Trier students who are drawn together by their talent for music. At the close of the year, they invite their parents for a closing session that has proved to be delightful to many music devotees along the shore. Parents of the young musicians who are also musical, participate in the final program, which offers numbers by family groups.

Miss Maria Lagerquist of 692 Ash street, leaves today for New York where she will spend a few days before sailing for Norway. She will embark in New York on the Swedish American liner, Stockholm, sailing directly to Gothenburg. Miss Lagerquist will attend the celebration of Mid-summer day observed every year in the Scandanavian countries on June 24. This observance ranks next to Christmas on the calendar of the north countries. Preparations are made weeks in advance for the festivities which include music, community dancing, speaking, and banqueting under the rays of the midnight sun.

The Folk Dancing class of Mrs. Edward W. Ellis of Indian Hill road, gave a dancing exhibition on Mrs. Ellis' lawn, under the direction of Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. John Coolidge, last Monday. Among those dancing were Mrs. John Coolidge, Mrs. Henry Gardner, Mrs. Morris Wilson, Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Mrs. George Blossom, Mrs. Charles Matz and Mrs. C. P. Hanly.

An exhibition of unusual interest may be seen at the shop of Elizabeth Duncan in the work of James Gilbert, American artist. Mr. Gilbert has received the Robert Rice Jenkins prize for 1925, of the Art Institute of Chicago, and the painting "Grey Morning, Ozumbra, Mexico," which took the prize at the Art institute, is among those at the Duncan shop.