

The demand for White Silk Hosiery is increasing daily and when you phone or appear at the counter always ask for Phoenix.

Why?

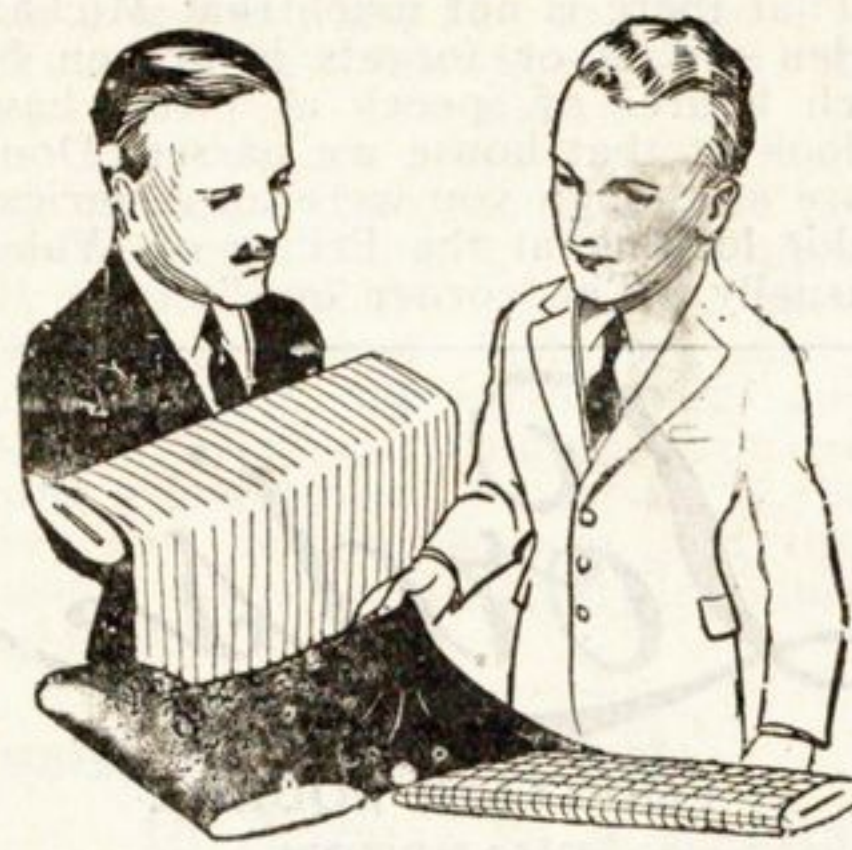

Because no other stocking can equal their wearing qualities. The transparency, lustre and texture of a Phoenix Chiffon Hose can be surpassed by none.

G. L. ZICK & CO.

STORE OF QUALITY AND SERVICE
WINNETKA, ILLINOIS

Otto Dovidat Ladies' and Men's Tailoring 794 Elm Street

Over Vollmann's market. I am in the new building and ready to serve you as before with the very best made to order clothing; also cleaning and pressing. A specialty is made of Ladies' Tailoring and Fur work.

CLOTH WORTHY OF OUR TAILORING

and tailoring worthy of the cloth—that is what you can count on at our tailoring establishment. All our fabrics are selected imported and domestic patterns of pure wool; exclusive in shade as well as design. Our tailoring too is the exclusive custom sort; clothes demanded by correct dressers.

H. E. ODHNER

Ladies' and Gentlemen's Tailor
Cleaning, Pressing and Repairing

1050 Gage St. Phone Winnetka 278

HUBBARD WOODS, ILL.

IN SOCIETY

Fete Thompson-Wisdom Wedding Attendants

COMMENCING yesterday, and continuing until the eve of her wedding on June 20, Miss Helen Thompson of Wilmette and her bridal party will find their days taken up with many affairs planned for them. Yesterday Mrs. Otto M. Ruth and Mrs. McKenzie of Kenilworth are giving a luncheon, and in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wisdom of Winnetka were host and hostess at a dinner for the bridal party at the Edgewater Beach hotel. Saturday, June 13, the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Charles E. Thompson, will give a luncheon for the bridesmaids at her home in Wilmette, and Monday, Mrs. Carey Matthews of Evanston will entertain at luncheon and bridge.

Miss Frances and Miss Nelle Brown of Highland Park will be hostesses Tuesday afternoon in Miss Thompson's home. Following day Mrs. W. W. Kerr and Miss Elizabeth Kerr will be luncheon hostesses. Mrs. Thompson will give a tea Thursday afternoon, and on Friday, Mrs. Ernest Clark of Evanston will entertain at luncheon.

Thomas Blackwood to Marry June 27

OF interest to Winnetka is the forthcoming wedding that will take place in Michigan City, Ind., on June 27, when Miss Emma Jean Arnt, daughter of Charles E. Arnt, will become the bride of Thomas Makepeace Blackwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackwood, of 682 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka. The Rev. Douglas Cornell of Glencoe will read the service. The list of the members of the wedding party includes: Mrs. Howard H. Spaulding, matron of honor; the Misses Julia and Lucile Kerrigan and Julia Collins of Michigan City, Miss Duane VanVechten of Chicago, Mrs. Waldorf Brach of Lincoln, Neb., and the Misses Rebecca and Charlotte Fay of Pittsburgh, the bridesmaids.

Arthur Andrews of Toronto, will be best man, and Howard Spaulding, Charles E. Arnt, Jr., Dr. Robert Lee, Paul Kerrigan, Stephen Armstrong of Chicago, and John and David Lasier of Winnetka, the ushers.

The Blackwoods are comparatively recent new-comers to Winnetka from Toronto.

Second Season Underway at Sunset Ridge

SUNSET RIDGE CLUB is devoting two days to its feminine members this season. Commencing on June 5, and continuing each Friday throughout the summer, members and their guests will have the privilege of gathering for luncheon and spending the afternoon at bridge tables. Mrs. Elbert Clark is in charge of these strictly social affairs, and during the month of June she will be assisted by Mrs. Burdette Mast and Mrs. Dudley Bradstreet. The luncheon that opened the season had about 16 table reservations.

Tuesdays, on the other hand, are given over to exercise in the out-of-doors. On these days women members gather at the club to tee-off for the golf events that are in charge of Mrs. I. B. Connor, who conducted them with success last season.

This past week, the blind bogey contest was won in class A and B combined, by Mrs. Arthur Goodman; class C, Mrs. Ward Pearl, and class D, the nine hole event, Mrs. Albion S. Webbe. Next week will be match play against par.

Miss Ruth Mehlhope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mehlhope, 300 Woodland avenue, is taking an active part in a number of summer plays to be given by the Hollyhock Players at Hollyhock House, the summer home of Lionel Robertson in Ravinia. A clump of these stately flowers in the doorway, gives the place its name. In the interior of the house hollyhocks are stenciled on the silk drapes which line the walls of the living room. A little stage is built at one end of the "hollyhock" living room where this band of players holds forth.

Mrs. Wiley J. Huddle, 794 Rosewood avenue, entertained at dinner on Saturday last, for her daughter, Margaret, prior to the Freshman Party at New Trier. The guests were Laura Richards, Margaret Hubsch, Virginia Lansing, Mabel Andreson, Jean Snell, Isabel Milton, Florence Taylor, Helen Gates, Ruth Whit, James Whitaker, William Hughes, David Schmidt, James Fleming, John Milton, Charles Markley, William Larkin, Henry Brooks, Stephen Plowman, and Ralph Netherstrom.

The art and literature department of the Illinois Women's athletic club will give a luncheon and bridge on Saturday, June 20, at the home of Mrs. Andrew W. Mitchell, 254 Scott avenue. Money raised at this function will be used to purchase paintings for the new clubhouse. Those wishing reservations are requested to call Mrs. Mitchell soon, as over 200 guests are expected.

Mrs. Arthur J. Schultz of 979 Cherry street, was a visitor at Catalina Island on Wednesday of last week. On Saturday evening, Mrs. Albert Cooper, formerly of Richmond Hill, L. I., entertained at dinner at her home. Mrs. Schultz will spend the week-end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of 819 Oak street, at their apartment on Coronado street, Los Angeles.

Mrs. William B. Hale is expected to return to her home at 900 Willow road this evening. She went to Detroit to attend the meeting of the Garden Club of America, and is motoring to Winnetka.

Jack Hamilton, 412 Walnut avenue, has returned from the University of Pennsylvania. He will be a councilor at Mr. Davies' camp during the summer.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Rabbi Louis A. Mischkind of the North Shore Congregation, Winnetka, to Miss Julietta Kahn, on June 11, in New York City. Rabbi and Mrs. Mischkind left immediately for Montreal, where they sailed on June 12, on the S. S. Montrose for a three months' tour of Europe. Miss Kahn, who was formerly connected with the Intercollegiate Menorah association, for the past year has been a graduate student in the School of Social Service Administration at the University of Chicago.

Miss Marjory Windes of 873 Spruce street, was appointed a member of the executive committee of the Chicago Rockford college association, which held its annual luncheon and meeting last Saturday in the home and garden of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pratt of Oak Park. Mrs. Andrew MacLeish of Glencoe gave reports, and an address was given by Edith Abbott, dean of the Graduate School of the University of Chicago. Among the plans underway, is the endowment of the Jane Adams social service chair at Rockford college.

A number of Winnetka friends of Miss Alice Knox of Highland Park, are rejoicing over the honor bestowed upon her at Vassar college, where she, together with 24 other members of the sophomore class, carried the time-honored daisy chain at the class day exercises on June 8.

The daisy chain was carried for perhaps the last time in the history of the college. This group of girls were chosen for their beauty through popular acclaim.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Harding, 789 Burr avenue, have motored east to spend the summer on the coast. On their way they will stop at Northampton for their daughter, Jane. They will also stop at Exeter, N. H. and see their son Victor. Miss Mary Harding plans to join them in the East after her school year is completed at Northwestern.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cochran of 370 Chestnut street, gave a buffet supper for 35 of their friends on Saturday evening.

Among some of the Winnetka young people home from Illinois are Jessie West, Beth Stutson, Perry Lieber, and Clayton Kentnor.

JUNE IS ROSENBERG'S MONTH IN EVANSTON

Rosenberg's

The North Shore's Greatest Store

Beginning Monday

SUMMER SEWING SALE

- EXCEPTIONAL VALUES IN
- Silks
- Wash Goods
- Laces
- Embroideries
- Pleatings
- Ruchings
- Ribbons
- Notions

We have been planning for this great selling for the last two months—and we know you will be satisfied with all the carefully prepared values which are to be offered. It will be mighty worth the while of every North Shore woman to attend this great three-day sale which begins on Monday next.

Pictorial Review sends Madame Neff to cut out your new summer frock

As an added feature of this great sale, Madame Neff, a famous dressmaker, will be in the Pattern Section each day. Select one of those chic Pictorial Review Patterns—buy the material in our Fabric Section and Madame Neff will cut out your dress for you, free of charge, of course.

SEWING SALE ACTIVITIES COMMENCE MONDAY --- the 15th

Use McCall or Pictorial Review Printed Patterns