

LOCAL CLUBS WILL SEND ENTRANTS TO MATCH AT SKOKIE CLUB

Skokie Hostess at Open Day for W. W. G. A.

ONE of the outstanding events in the women's golf world on the north shore occurs on Monday, June 29, when, at 9 o'clock in the morning, play will start at Skokie club in the Open Day for the Women's Western Golf association. There will be 18 holes, medal play, with prizes for low gross, first and second low net, and for the least number of putts. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, the event scheduled is a best ball foursome with a choice score of partners on the last nine holes.

This coming week, Monday's match will be a four ball foursome, when class A players (handicap 1-20) will invite partners from class B (handicap 21-36). An approaching and putting contest is on the program for the afternoon.

This week Mrs. Burt Hardenbrook won the match for low gross score, with Mrs. Louis Zinke carrying off honors for low net. In the afternoon, Mrs. Albert Webster of Kenilworth won the putting contest.

On Tuesdays, women golfers at North Shore have their day of specially planned events and tourneys, and next week the members will have privilege of inviting friends, for the first Guest Day of the season will be held at that time.

On Tuesday, in the play for the trophy put up by James Byrnes, Mrs. E. H. Uhlmann of Evanston won with a score of 81 net, with 105-24; 81. The best foursome event was carried off by Mrs. G. D. Wolff, Mrs. Lloyd Ayres, Mrs. John Cañe, and Mrs. E. H. Uhlmann.

During the past week, members have been playing in the semi-finals for the Nicholas Ellis trophy, and at the time of going to press, those still in the running were Mrs. Wallace Miller and Mrs. H. H. Harrison; Mrs. Ed. Baron and Mrs. A. D. Collins, who were paired off in order named.

Sunset Ridge

Tuesday at Sunset Ridge club, the committee in charge has planned for a foursome event, the award to be made on the choice score of partners.

This past week, in the match play against par, Mrs. F. W. Parker, Jr., was the winner in Class A and B combined. Mrs. C. D. Wagstaff of Evanston was winner in Class C and Mrs. Joseph Coombs and Mrs. R. Y. Hoffman tied their scores in Class D.

Local Clubs Honored

Teams of five women each from eight north side clubs took part in the first event of the North Side Club Woman's Golf association held at Onwentsia, Monday. Indian Hill won the honors of the day. The Nassau system of scoring was used, and the Indian Hill team was 11½ points ahead of their nearest rivals.

Following is a list of the teams and their scores: Indian Hill, 82; Skokie, 70½; Evanston, 66; Onwentsia, 55½; Exmoor, 54; Glenview, 48; North Shore, 28; and Briergate, 15½.

Mr. Spry is conducting an artist class this summer at the State college in Alabama. He will devote one day a week to the work in Winnetka.

Lake Forest Garden Club Show Staged Next Week

THE Lake Forest Garden Club show will be held on June 27 and 28, in the Service buildings of Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick's estate. This flower show will differ from previous ones in that all classes will illustrate the use of flowers in planting plans, color arrangement, table decorations, and emphasize the proper decorative use of flowers. All who are interested in gardens and flowers are urged to exhibit. Prizes will be awarded and in addition the bronze medal of the Garden Club of America will be awarded to the most meritorious exhibit in the show.

Club Plans a June Outing at Ravinia

THE Friends in Council of the Tenth district will have an outing at Ravinia Tuesday, June 30. Not only club members, but their husbands and friends will partake of the picnic supper at 5:30 o'clock, and will later attend a performance of "Aida", at 8:15 o'clock. Tickets may be procured at the gate from Mrs. Dennis
