

SPOILED!

Driving a Chrysler Six actually spoils a man. He is not satisfied driving any other car.

The following North Shore owners, not content with any other car, drive two or more Chrysler Sixes:

- The Mercer family, Glencoe (5)
- The Phalen family, Evanston (4)
- H. G. Rice, Evanston (2)
- N. C. Flint, Evanston (2)
- C. A. Rich, Evanston (2)
- John Burnham, Evanston (2)
- Dr. H. F. Horan, Evanston (2)
- Guy Youngman, Wilmette (2)
- Frank Whiting, Glencoe (2)
- L. L. Buchanan, Winnetka (2)

JUNE IS ROSENBERG'S MONTH IN EVANSTON

Rosenberg's

The North Shore's Greatest Store

Miss Helen G. sketched in one of our Jantzen Swimming Suits at the Wilmette Beach last Sunday.

Mermaids, Attention!

Are you a true mermaid, romping gleefully with the rollicking, boisterous surf? Or do you like to sit upon the sands? In either case, we've news of importance to you. Come into the store and let us show you the trim, beautifully woven Jersey suits, brightly colored or smartly black. Take your dip a la Rosenberg's.

$2.95 to $6.95

THE VOGUE OF CRETONNE

Is sweeping the North Shore like wildfire—Cretonne for dresses, for ensemble, for beach capes, for beach pajamas, for children's rompers. Choose the most vivid pattern—you'll be in fashion. Prices begin at 49c a yard.

IN SOCIETY

Winnetka Girl to Marry Resident of France

MR. AND MRS. EDGAR STANTON, of 30 Locust road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Harriet Nichols, to Monsieur Robert Dupeyre of Grenoble, France, son of the late Gen. Charles Dupeyre who was killed early in the World War.

Monsieur Grenoble is a graduate of the University of Grenoble, one of the oldest universities in Europe.

Winnetka Girl on List of Future Brides

DR. AND MRS. R. S. CHILDS, of 906 Oak street, Winnetka, announce the engagement of their daughter, Harriet, to Burton H. Atwood, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Atwood of 839 Elm street, Winnetka.

Marion Lasier to Wed Former Winnetkan

MRS. DAVID S. LASIER, of 731 Lincoln avenue, announces the engagement of her daughter, Marion, to Donald Kenneth Morrison, formerly of Winnetka, now of Evanston. The wedding day has not been announced.

On Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Thompson of Oakwood circle, Wilmette, entertained the members of their daughter's bridal party at dinner at the Edgewater Beach hotel. Their guests on this occasion were Mrs. Norman Weyl, Miss Elizabeth Kerr, Elizabeth Munro, Miss Betsey Shapker, Miss Nelle Brown, Miss Frances Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wisdom, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mathews, Alien Bulley, John Keith, Alfred McDougal, Jack Taylor, Robert Ely, Russell Thompson and Miss Helen Thompson and her fiancé. The wedding will take place tomorrow.

The Wednesday golf days at Indian Hill have been greeted with enthusiasm by members this year, as usual, and this season the remodeled and redecorated clubhouse has proved an added attraction.

Next week the match will be 18 holes of medal play with handicap. On Wednesday, June 10, Mrs. T. K. Webster won the first prize, with Mrs. Henry Stanton, the second, and this past week the honors went to Mrs. Fletcher Marsh and Mrs. Horace Armstrong as winners of the first prize, with Mrs. Paul Noyes and Mrs. Robert Ripley carrying off the second award.

Miss Marion Fulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank David Fulton of 884 Hill road, who attends Syracuse university, is awaiting her father and mother, her brother Edmund, and her sister, Helen, who left Friday to motor east to meet her. From Syracuse they will motor to Poughkeepsie to attend the races, and will then tour the eastern cities for a number of weeks. They expect to pass the late summer in their home here.

One of the most delightfully interesting and instructive meetings of the Winnetka Garden club was held Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Willoughby Walling of Private road. Mrs. John Hardin presided as president in the absence of Mrs. William P. Sidley, who is ill. Mrs. Walter Brewster of Lake Forest delighted her audience with her talk on her trip to Holland and the Dutch tulip beds, internationally famous.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlan W. Converse, 396 Hawthorne lane, and their children left Winnetka for the East last week, to sail from New York to pass the summer abroad. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Browne of La Grange, have rented the Converse home for the season.

Announcement was made in New York, June 11, of the marriage of Miss Alice B. Crystal of that city, and Robert M. Felsenthal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli B. Felsenthal of Hubbard Woods. Upon returning from their brief wedding trip in the East, Mr. and Mrs. Felsenthal will reside for a time at the residence of the bridegroom's parents.

Announcement cards have just been received by many Winnetka friends of the marriage of Eric Delamarter, formerly of Ash street, to Mrs. Alice Youngman, on June 10, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ruth Silliman of Colorado Springs. Mr. Delamarter is assistant conductor of the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

Charles B. Klotz, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Klotz, 722 Prospect avenue, has graduated from the Morristown school at Morristown, N. J., and will arrive home Sunday, after completing his college board examinations. He had the good fortune of winning the tennis championship played at the school last week.

Miss Lorraine Thoms, 863 Lincoln avenue, returned from the University of Wisconsin Thursday of this week.

Miss Marjorie Newburgh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Newburg, became the bride of Clarence W. Edinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Edinger of 627 Garland avenue, Winnetka, Tuesday afternoon, at the home of her parents, 832 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette.

Her maid of honor was Miss Thelma Barthold of South Dakota, and Ralph

Mrs. Clarence Edinger

Edinger, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. The Rev. George P. Magill, pastor of the Presbyterian church, read the service which was witnessed by relatives and a group of intimate friends of the young people.

Several delightful pre-nuptial parties were given in honor of the bride and last Saturday evening Miss Newburgh gave a charming dinner-dance at the Edgewater Beach hotel for a number of her friends.

After their honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Edinger will reside in Evanston.

Miss Doris Hanville of 840 Foxdale avenue, entertained at bridge and a miscellaneous shower last Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Caroline M. Davis of Chicago, whose marriage to Carl Peterson of Muskegon, Mich. was solemnized at the South Side Presbyterian church Wednesday evening. A dinner at the Southmoor hotel followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Philemon B. Kohlsaat entertained the teachers of the Skokie school at her home on Woodland avenue Monday evening. Supper was served in the house and on the lawn, with the evening's entertainment provided by Helen Wing, Grace Holderscheid, and Hal Swenson, who recently received his M. A. degree at Northwestern university.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Baumann of 279 Linden street, with their son, Edward, have motored east for the commencement of their daughter, Christine, at Smith college, Northampton, Mass. Mr. Baumann also attended the reunion exercises at the Boston Institute of Technology. They plan to spend the remainder of the month in the White mountains.

A number of alumni living here journeyed to the far end of Chicago last Friday to attend the annual university "sing" at the University of Chicago, which was attended by thousands of former students who joined their fraternities to march around the fountain in Hutchinson court singing the traditional hymns of the Greek letter societies.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson, Jr., former residents of Winnetka, who have been living in New York for a year, are coming back to Winnetka to again take up their residence. They will occupy the Marcus Richards' home temporarily while the Richards are away.
