

Announce Names of Those Assisting at Ripley Debut

DURING the reception hours from 4:30 o'clock until 6, on Saturday afternoon, June 27, when Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Ripley will introduce to society their daughter, Miss Beatrice, the following group of Miss Ripley's friends will assist: Miss Judith Boddie, Miss Elizabeth Boyden, Miss Isabel Scott, Miss Mary Fentress, Miss Elizabeth Clore, Miss Eleanor McEwen, Miss Martha Thomas, and Miss Joan Stuart, all of Winnetka and Hubbard Woods, and Miss Jane Story of Riverside, and Miss Rosemary Ames of Chicago.

The tea will be given at the Ripley home at 29 Indian Hill road.

Miss Anna F. Murray, 1312 Church street, Evanston, will entertain the north shore alumnae of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college on Monday, June 22, at 3 o'clock.

This alumnae association has given very active assistance in raising funds for the college building now being erected on the new campus at 2778 Sheridan road, Evanston.

The student pageant, "Persephone", which was given at the Evanston Country club June 3 and 4, was sponsored by this group. Plans for summer and autumn activity will be made at this meeting.

Mrs. Albert G. Berry of Winnetka, gave a linen shower on Wednesday of last week at her home in honor of Miss Helen Muriel Rushton of Evanston, who will become the bride of H. Marshall Pierce, Jr., Friday evening, June 26.

Saturday evening, June 20, Mrs. Harry I. Miller of Glenview is giving a dinner-dance at Skokie club.

Mrs. Frederick K. Copeland of 665 Prospect avenue, left Thursday evening with her daughter, Mrs. Nat Blatchford, and her children, to accompany them to their cottage at Camp Ipagaki, Lac du Flambeau, Wis., where they will enjoy a summer's outing. Mrs. Copeland will remain with them over the week-end.

Saturday, June 20, garden lovers will again journey to Lake Forest to view the last group of gardens open under the auspices of the Lake Forest Garden club, for the present, at least.

The following estates will display the little white flag of admittance on this occasion: Mrs. Louis Laffin, Mrs. A. A. Carpenter, Mrs. Roy K. Sturtevant, Mrs. Albert Blake, Jr., Mrs. Philip Armour, Jr., and Mrs. William E. Clow, Sr.
