

HOLDS FRANCE WILL PAY DEBT

Educator Declares Plans Must be Worked Out

Dr. Bernard Fay, professor of history and literature at the University of Clermont-Ferrand, near Paris, France, reached Evanston this week and will teach in the Summer school of Northwestern university. Prof. Fay has made a special study of the relations of France and the United States and recently has had published in leading French reviews two of his articles. He says that inasmuch as there exists a French debt, France should pay America, but just how the debt is to be met, he points out, is the difficult question.

"We may as well admit that both the French and American people know that the debt exists," said Dr. Fay, "and that the greatest difficulty surrounds the ways and means of paying it. I feel that there probably will be several plans suggested during the next few years and that they may not be feasible. So much depends upon future trade balances between the two nations and related economical questions. Possibly within a decade the workable plan will be agreed upon and will be in operation. My guess is that it will be a long-term program covering many years."

Dr. Fay said that industrial conditions in France are very satisfactory now and that virtually no able-bodied workers are idle. The tourist rush from the United States is heavy, he declared, and the devastated section in France is being devoted now to productive uses. Recently Dr. Fay published a book upon "The Revolutionary Spirit in France and America During the Eighteenth Century." While at Northwestern university he will make a special study of Benjamin Franklin in the famous William S. Mason library in Evanston and will later publish a book upon "Franklin, A Citizen of The World."

Formal opening of the summer session of Northwestern university took place Tuesday at chapel, when President Scott addressed the new students.

Mrs. Franklin Rudolph and her family of 745 Sheridan road, are abroad.

RAVINIA OPERA OPEN SATURDAY

All Roads Lead to Summer Music Mecca

The twinkling lights of Ravinia park will announce the opening this Saturday night of the much heralded summer opera season; the gates long closed, will be thrown hospitably open, and the roads, widened and repaved, leading to the park, are now in readiness for the accommodation of the long lines of automobiles which will sweep into the Ravinia grounds on this most momentous occasion.

The fame of Ravinia is rapidly spreading. From the east, west and south come inquiries of the Ravinia summer opera company. Milwaukee has asked for a special train. Others demand summer accommodations "near the Ravinia Opera company." Thus, little by little, comes the recognition and enduring success which Ravinia must inevitably know as the Mecca of summer opera.

As has been announced "L'Amore dei Tre Re" is the opera Louis Eckstein has chosen with which to inaugurate the season, the opera being one of the most popular in the company's repertoire. The galaxy of stars in the cast includes Lucrezia Bori as Fiora, Giovanni Martinelli as Avito, Giuseppe Danise as Manfredo, Virgilio Lazzari as Archibaldo.

Gennaro Papi will conduct the performance.

For the second gala night "Martha" will be given with Tito Schipa, Ina Bourskaya, Florence Macbeth, Virgilia Lazzari, Paolo Ananian in the cast and Louis Hasselmanns conducting.

For those not familiar with the road to the eastern entrance to the park, it is announced that automobiles approaching from the north should follow Sheridan road to Dean avenue, proceed west on Dean to the road skirting the railroad tracks and drive south on this road to the Ravinia park entrance. The Green Bay road entrance is also open as usual to the western gate of the park.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Elting, 830 Mt. Pleasant court, are at the Hotel Lorraine in New York City for a brief stay.

Winnetka Golf Fans to Have Tournaments

Golf fans who play on the Winnetka Municipal links will have a meeting in the near future to arrange plans for tournaments this summer, according to Walter Stelzel, professional at the course. It is expected that regular tournaments will be held on Saturdays and Sundays after July 1. The greens have been greatly improved by the recent rain and the course is in fine shape for play, he said. Large crowds are now using the course during the week-ends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNie, 266 Forest avenue, and their little daughter, Marjory, left Monday for a 10 day motor trip. They will tour northern Minnesota and the lake region of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Andrew Perrin entertained her bridge club at the Orrington hotel for luncheon last Friday. In the afternoon they returned to the hostess' home at 85 Abbottsford road, where they played bridge.
