

WINNETKA NINE PLAYS EVANSTON TEAM TODAY

Winnetka's fast-stepping baseball aggregation added another to its sizeable string of victories last Sunday by easily defeating the Silveroles of Chicago, 8 to 3. The win was Winnetka's fourth straight.

This morning the locals hook up with Evanston on the Playfield diamond at 10 o'clock. Tomorrow afternoon the boys will engage a strong Chicago nine, the hour being 3:15 and Playfield the scene of battle.

Winnetka was first to score last Sunday, getting one in the first inning on a triple to right by Smith and a single by W. Paletti. One more was added in the third and the Silveroles tied it up in the sixth by getting two runs. The lucky seventh was nothing but hits and passes. The bases were filled and White was to bat with three to two on him when he kissed one over the center fielder's head for a triple, scoring three in front of him. One more was added to the score before the inning was over and another in the eighth. The visitors scored one in the

Edmund J. James, Father of Mrs. Frazer, Is Dead

The many friends and acquaintances of Mrs. George E. Frazer, 639 Linden avenue, were grieved to hear of the death, recently, of her father, Edmund J. James, president emeritus of the University of Illinois.

Dr. James passed away at his home at Covina, Cal., where he went to live after his retirement from active work in 1921. Burial was at Champaign, Ill.

He was connected with many state and national research bodies and was active in the promotion of the university educational policy as it stands today.

Washburne Takes Brief Rest Before Summer Work

Carleton W. Washburne, superintendent of schools, left late this week to spend several days with his family at their summer home near Saugatuck, Mich. He later goes to Greeley, Colo., to give a special course of instruction at the State Normal college in that city. Mr. Washburne is constantly in demand for lectures regarding the Winnetka system of public school education, more frequently termed the individual system of instruction.

Winnetka Congregational Church

Summer Church

Let's admit the facts. Summer and the great outdoors call us. We're just as devout as ever, but something in us asks for a devot of Sunday worship a bit different from that which attracts us in the other months.

The Winnetka Congregational Church offers that sort of summer service which appeals to most people. Never particularly formal at any time, the Sunday services this summer are planned to fit the season of relaxation.

You'll find the speaking good the music well chosen and the atmosphere friendly.
