Park Ridge Girls to Be Picnic Guests

ONE of the high-lights in the lives of the girls of the Park Ridge school, is their annual jaunt to Ravinia Park with the Winnetka committee of the Ravinia club as their hostesses. This season about 60 girls will set forth in busses at 11 o'clock in the morning, Thursday, July 9. A luncheon will be served them at 12:30 o'clock, and they will remain for the afternoon concert.

Any Ravinia patrons who have tickets they wish to dispose of for the occasion are asked to communicate with the chairman of the winnetka committee, Mrs. John Vennema of 849 Willow road. All members of the Winnetka committee are urgently requested to assist in making the event one long to be remembered by the appreciative guests.

Frederick Scotts Plan Daughter's Debut

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made that one of the debutantes of the early autumn season will be Miss Isabel Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott of Hubbard Woods, who will be introduced at a tea Mr. and Mrs. Scott will give at their residence on October 17.

The Scotts are planning to give a debut dinner-dance for her at the Casino later in the season, after they have moved into town. Miss Scott's sister, Miss Emily, was one of last season's buds.

A brisk breeze whipping the lake's blue into white-capped waves and a sunlit garden delighted the eyes of a number of Wellesley alumnae from Chicago and the north shore when they gathered at the home of Mrs. William Sherman Hay, 645 Sheridan road, Winnetka, Tuesday afternoon of last week, for the tea given for Professor and Mrs. Hamilton McDougal. Receiving on the lawn with Mrs. Hay, were Mr. and Mrs. McDougal and Mrs. Robert Heald, the newly elected president of the Chicago Wellesley club.

A group of young girls, daughters of Wellesley alumnae, and prospective students of the college, served ice cool punch on the lawn, and in the house Mrs. Irwin Rew of Evanston presided at the tea table. Mr. McDougal who is head of the music department at Wellesley college, talked informally of the Wellesley of today and the beautiful pageant recently given in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the college's founding.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew E. Hope, will leave for New York Monday, July 6, later sailing for Europe to visit Mrs. Hope's mother, in Aberdeen, Scotland. Mr. Hope will spend the last part of August grouse shooting in the northern part of Scotland, after which he and his wife will tour France, Switzerland, and Egypt. They will then visit Norway and Sweden before returning to Scotland for a short visit prior to sailing for the United States.
