

RAVINIA OPERA IN SECOND WEEK

Well Balanced Repertoire
Arranged with "Manon"
Booked for Saturday

"AIDA" SUNDAY NIGHT

Children's Concert Scheduled for Thursday

Another splendid repertoire will be offered at Ravinia during the coming week, which marks the second of the season for Ravinia opera and concerts. Again the schedule has been designed with a view to balance, the heavier works being interspersed with those of lighter caliber, thus appealing to all classes of music appreciators. Saturday night, July 4, the season's initial week will close with a presentation of "Manon" by Massenet, in which Lucrezia Bori, generally recognized as the greatest of all the Manons, will sing opposite Tito Schipa, whose reputation as Des Grieux is world-wide. Leon Rothier will be heard as the father. The large cast of this melodious French opera includes Desire Defrere, Louis D'Angelo, Giordano Paltrinieri, Margery Maxwell, Ada Paggi, Paolo Ananian and Virgilia Grassi. Louis Hasselmans will conduct. Sunday afternoon there will be a concert by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Eric DeLaMarter. Jacques Gordon, violinist, will be the soloist.

Concert Monday Night

Sunday night, "Aida" with that incomparable trio, Mme. Rosa Raisa, Giovanni Martinelli and Giuseppe Danise in the leading roles, will be presented and Virgilio Lazzari will come into the role of Ramfis, in which he enjoys world fame. Others are Ina Bourskaya, Louis D'Angelo and Giordano Paltrinieri. Mr. Papi will conduct. The Monday night concert by the Chicago Symphony orchestra, under the baton of Eric DeLaMarter, will have Florence Macbeth, soprano; Mario Chamlee, tenor and Alfred Wallenstein, 'cellist, as soloists. The reserved seats for these concerts are free.

Tuesday night, Shakespeare's immortal love tragedy, "Romeo and Juliet" will be given for the first time this season. Opera patrons will rejoice that Mme. Bori will sing the role of Juliet and that Mr. Tokatyian will be heard as Romeo. Leon Rothier is the Friar Laurence. Others appearing are Desire Defrere, Paolo Ananian, Louis D'Angelo, Giordano Paltrinieri, Philine Falco and Louis Derman. Mr. Hasselmans will conduct.

"Martha" is billed for Wednesday night with Mario Chamlee as Lionel, Miss Macbeth as Martha, Miss Bourskaya as Nancy, Mr. Lazzari as Plunkett and Mr. Ananian as Sir Tristan. Mrs. Hasselmans will conduct.

Children's Day Thursday

The children's concert, Thursday afternoon, consisting of a specially arranged program by the Chicago Symphony orchestra, will be followed by an entertainment staged by the students of Camp Roosevelt under the command of Capt. F. L. Beals. Exhibitions of boy scout work will be a feature. Children under the age of 12 years are admitted free to these concerts and the reserved seats are free for everyone.

Thursday night, the merry light opera "L'Elixir d'Amore", better known in this country as "The Elixir of Love" will be given its first presentation of the season. This has long been a favorite with Ravinia audiences because of its fine melodies and good fun. On this occasion Elvira de Hidalgo, coloratura soprano, will make her Ravinia debut, with Tito Schipa singing opposite her. It will be remembered that Mr. Schipa sang this role for the first time in his career at Ravinia two seasons ago. Mario Basiola, Vittorio Trevisan and Philine Falco are well cast in this opera. Mr. Papi will conduct.

The beloved operatic twins, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" will be given on Friday night, bringing many of the notables of the company before the public on the same evening. Mme. Raisa will be heard as Santuzza in "Cavalleria", a role for which she is justly famous. Mario Chamlee will be the Turridu and Giacomo Rimini the Alfio. Ada Paggi is cast as Lola. For "Pagliacci", Giovanni Martinelli will be heard as Canio in which part he swept his auditors off their feet on the occasion of his Ravinia debut last season. Marie Sundelius is to be the Nedda and Giuseppe Danise the Tonio, which gives him opportunity to sing the "Prologue" in his inimitable manner. Others in the cast are Desire Defrere and Giordano Paltrinieri. Mr. Papi will conduct.

Schipa Sings Saturday

"The Barber of Seville" is scheduled for Saturday night, this time Mr. Schipa being heard as Almaviva, opposite Mme. Hidalgo as Rosina. Mr. Rothier is to sing Dom Basilio and Mr. Trevisan will be Dr. Bartolo. Mr. Rimini is cast for the title role and Miss Correnti for Berta. Gennaro Papi will conduct.

Noted Dance Instructor in Mediterranean Lands

Miss Gladys Hight, of the Gladys Hight School of Dancing, is sailing for Europe this week. She will make an extensive cruise through the Mediterranean, visiting Spain, Monte Carlo, Rome, Athens, Damascus, Jerusalem, Egypt, Algeria and Tunis.

She will make a study of the native dances in some of these countries and return with an elaborate group of character dances, which she will present at one of the loop theatres in the fall.

Miss Hight will teach these dances in Wilmette on the stage of the Woman's club every Tuesday, beginning October 1.

Miss Hight has just finished teaching the normal course at Northwestern university.

Lake Bluff Orphans to Present Pageant July 4

A patriotic pageant will be given by the children of the Lake Bluff orphanage, Lake Bluff, Ill., July 4, from 2 to 3 o'clock. The Epworth leaguers of the Methodist Episcopal denomination and the general public are invited, according to an announcement made this week by Miss Jessie E. Arbuckle, superintendent of the Methodist Deaconess orphanage. The pageant will include pages from American history; The landing of Columbus; The Pilgrims going to church; Daniel Boone: The Spirit of '76; Life in the South before the war; The Civil war; The westward movement; "Over There"; The Goddess of Liberty.

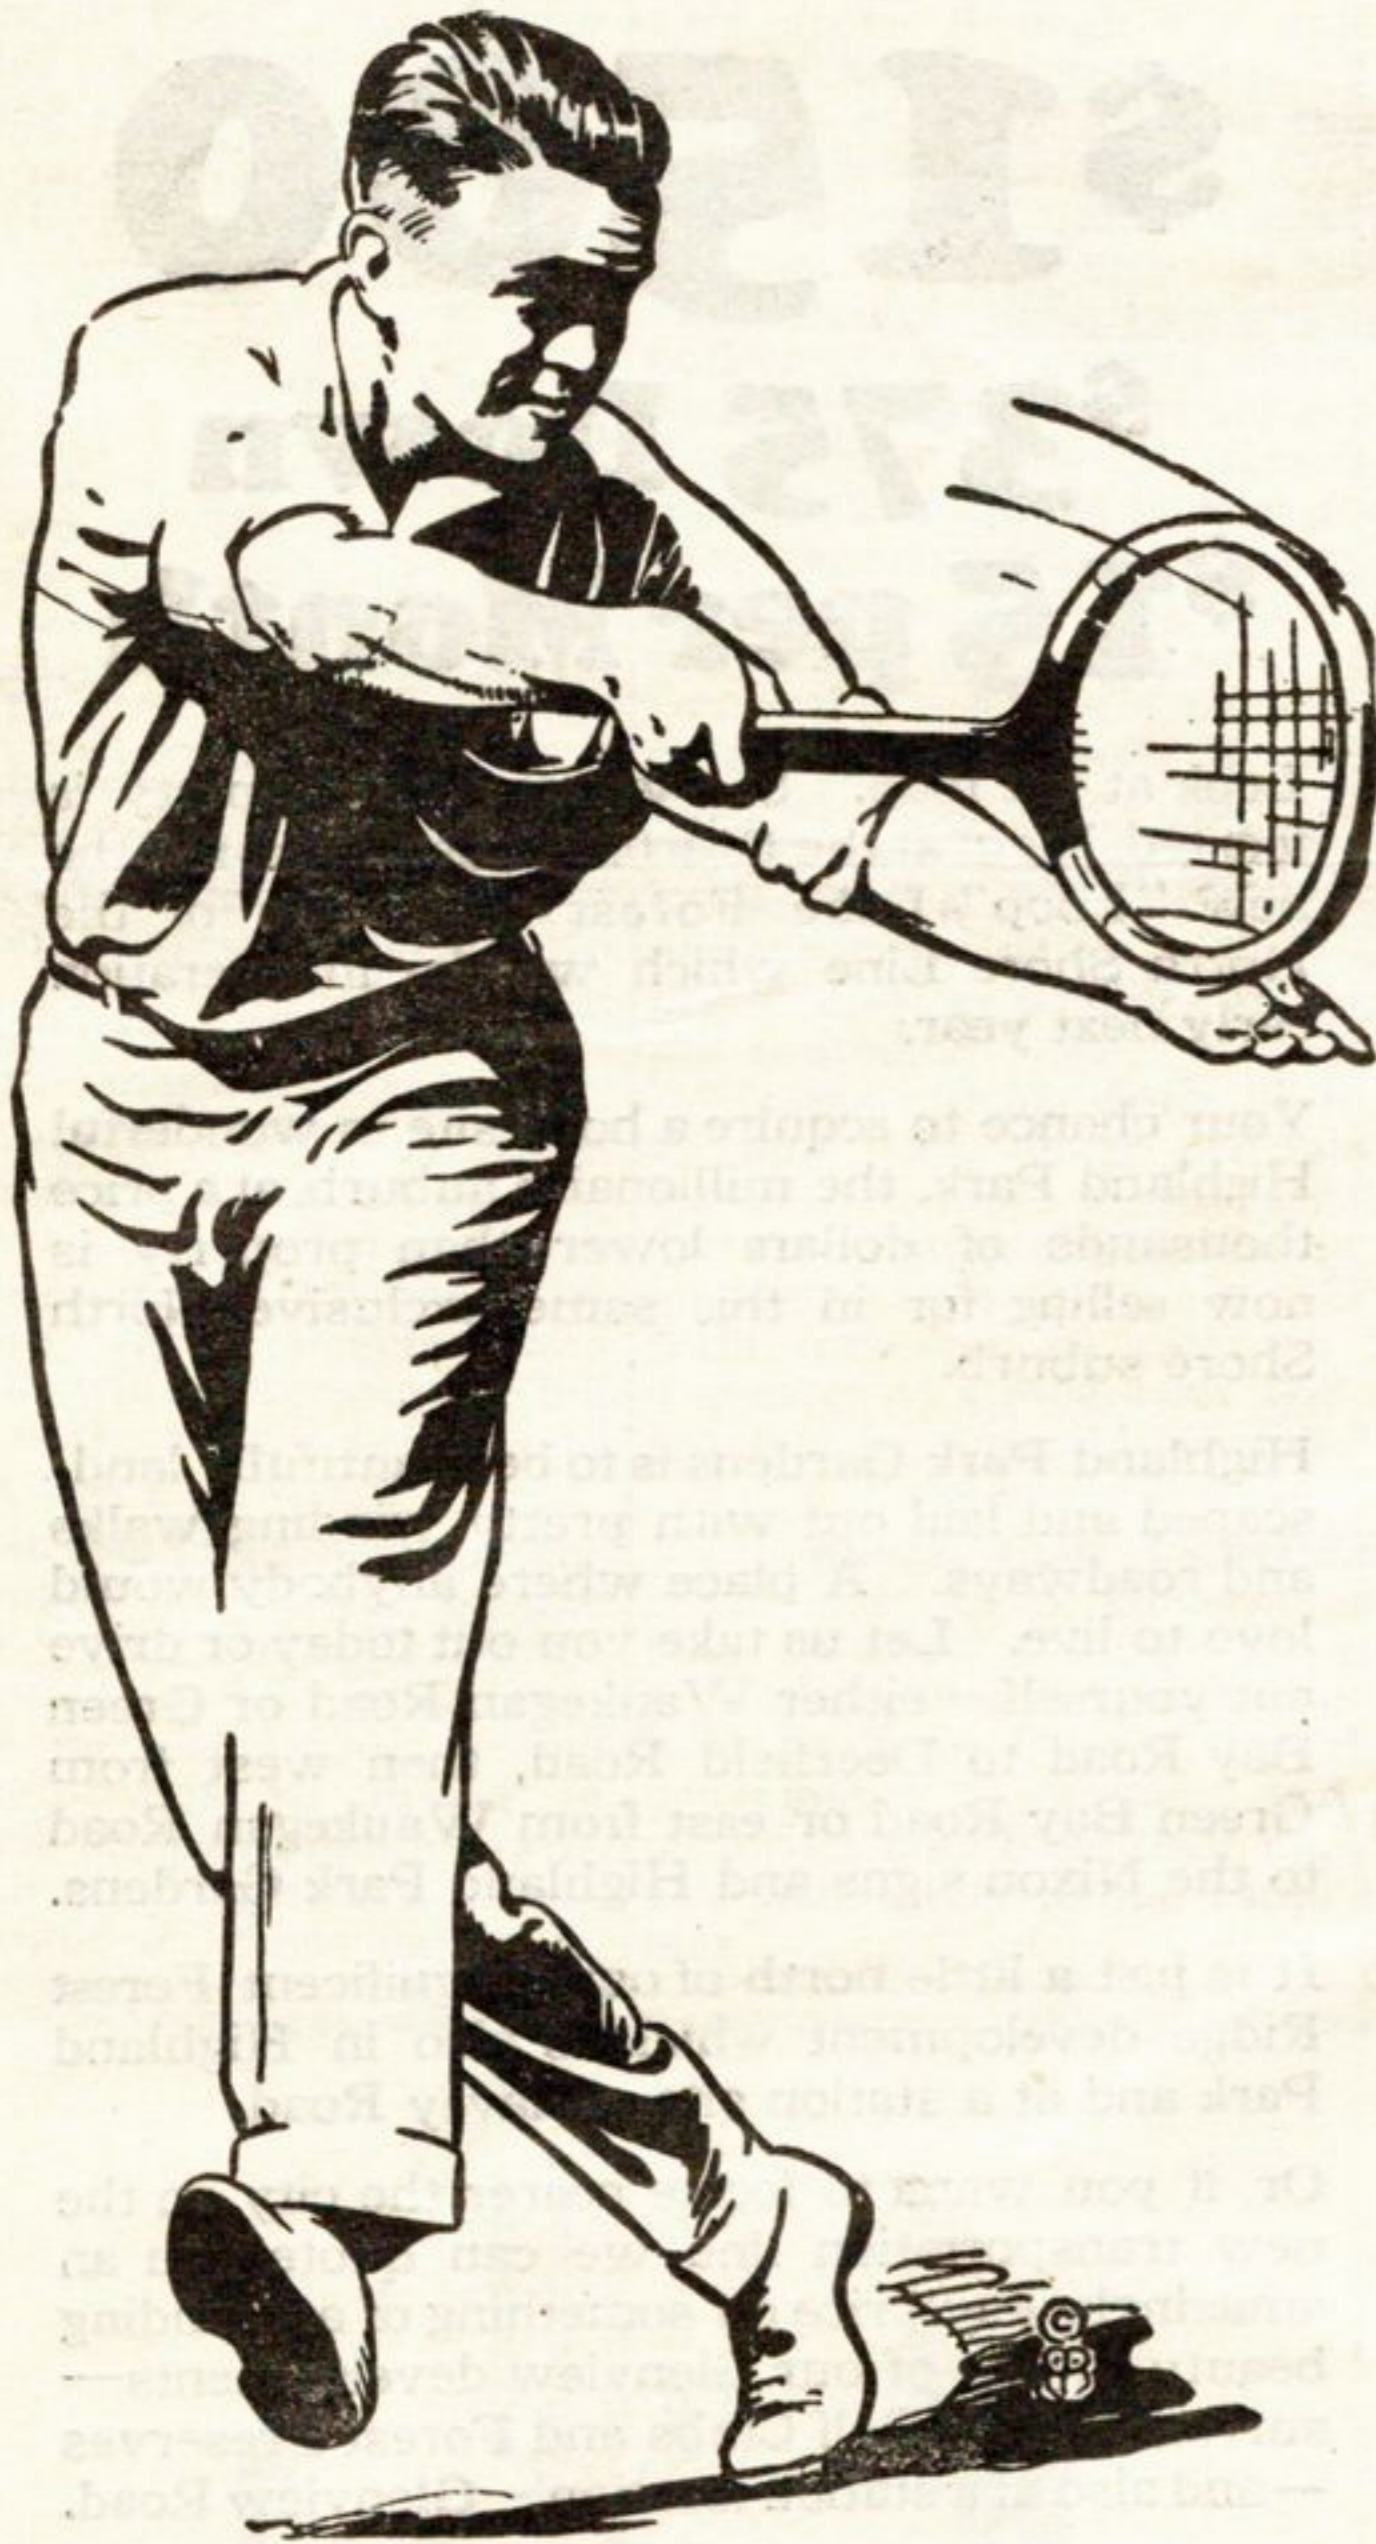

Howard Street Merchants Arrange Annual Festival

Harry Holbrook and W. E. Butterman have been named manager and chairman, respectively, of the festival committee for the festival week to be held by the Howard Street Business association, of Chicago. The festival will continue from July 6 to 11. There will be numerous forms of amusement, including street dances, parades, style shows and many other features. There will also be a merry-go-round and a Ferris wheel. Since the improvement of Howard street this festival has become an annual affair.

Stuyvesant Butler, younger son of Mrs. Hermon B. Butler of Prospect avenue, who is recovering from recent treatment at a hospital has gone to Trout Lake over the Fourth of July.

Chandler's

Fountain Square
EVANSTON

For Smashing Play! The Kro-Bat

A Spalding racket, constructed in a manner which gives the frame greater strength and perfect balance. A double duty racket with a happy combination of durability and beauty. Frames of finest second growth ash. Strung with split lamb's gut. Made to stand smashing play.

$15.00

Tennis Balls

The Spalding unstitched cover two-piece plugless ball—durable—resilient—and accurate. Used in 1924 Olympics. Some ball!

50c

Sporting Department—2nd Floor
University 123 Delivery Free

THIS STORE WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY SATURDAY!

Rosenbergo's

EVANSTON

Everyone Will Flock to the Beaches on the 4th of July

And you don't have to swim to take advantage of Evanston's wonderful beaches. It's almost as healthy just to go down and laze around on the warm sand and get a nice coat of tan. But whether you swim or not—you must have a smart bathing suit.

YOU MUST HAVE A NEW SUIT

The wool worsted suit in black or some dashing color is the best sort of companion to dips in the glistening spray. Buy one here tomorrow from our widely assorted styles. Then prepare to enjoy the heat!

$3.95 and $4.95

Diving Caps
That Fit Snugly Under the Chin
50c
White Belts, 25c

FLAG OUTFIT
$1.50

Set consists of a 3x5 foot flag, a pole and a bracket to hold the pole. Complete for only $1.50

Beach Kicks
98c

Colorful rubber beach slip-ons in bright shades to harmonize with your bathing suit.

"Over the 4th" Outing Apparel

Cool Correct Comfortable
No trip is more easily planned than a camping trip. You know the kind of camp you like and the few outdoor clothes you'll need. We've all sort of camping togs in the Apparel Section.

Linen Knickers $3.95	Duck Knickers $3.45	Khaki Knickers $2.25
Khaki Middies $1.50	Khaki Jackets $3.45	Tweed Knickers $3.75

Corduroy Jackets Heavy Knit Sweaters

Warm corduroy jackets in bright shades of Rose, Green, Blue, Wine and Red. This price is low, too. $4.95
Mannish, pull-over white sweaters in the heavy rope stitch. The very thing for campers. $7.50

Outing Apparel—Second Floor