Watchman Severely Hurt When Struck by Machine

Harry Williams, watchman on the John W. Scott estate at Sheridan road and Woodlawn avenue, Hubbard Woods, sustained a compound fracture of an arm and leg and internal injuries Tuesday night of this week when he was struck by an automobile driven by Frederick S. Wayne, 1311 Lincoln avenue, Highland Park, a Chicago broker. The accident occurred on Sheridan road near the Scott grounds as Williams crossed the drive after having given directions to a passing motorist, the police assert. The Wayne machine swung around the other car just as Williams was walking back to the curbing, they said. Wayne was placed under $5,000 bail on the technical charge of assault. Williams was taken to the Evanston hospital.

Interior Decorator Goes East on Buying Journey

Miss Grace Herbst, owner of the Herbst Art and Gift shop on Lincoln avenue, who has recently added interior decorating to her other vocations, is leaving the village Monday, July 6, on a purchasing expedition to New York City in search of artistic and unusually attractive furniture, antiques and related interior decorating decorating appurtenances.

Miss Herbst's trip East is in direct response to very definite demands for the rarer things in household furnishings and anticipates results that will be highly pleasing to her growing clientele.

The Excel Electric Cooker will cook a roast and three vegetables at one time, enough for five or six people, for less than gas. See page 4.—Adv.

Church Relaxation

Some of us find it difficult to visualize relaxation in connection with church services. Yet the season seems to call for relaxation, so many of us leave Sunday morning services out of our summer schedule.

The Winnetka Congregational Church offers the kind of Sunday morning services that fit summer time.
