

Winnetka Women Give Great Pleasure to Large Groups

ABOUT 60 Park Ridge School girls were made happy by the picnic which the Winnetka committee of the Ravinia club gave them Thursday afternoon, July 9, at the Park. Busses were used to take the girls to Ravinia where they were served with box lunches put up by members of the committee. Among those who had a special part in the day's plans were Mrs. I. K. Friedman, who provided milk for the guests, Mrs. Archibald W. Shaw, who furnished the ice cream cones and candy, and Mrs. Edward Forman and Mrs. Warren Crawford, who provided entrance tickets to the Park for about 23 girls who were over 12 years of age. After lunch the girls heard the afternoon concert and entertainment. The guests of the Winnetka committee were privileged to hear the rehearsal of the opera "Pagliacci," which was sung Friday night. Giovanni Martinelli, the tenor, who starred in "Pagliacci," is living for the summer in the Winnetka home of Victor Elting at 830 Mt. Pleasant court.

A group of about 20 children and less than half as many mothers from the Northwestern university settlement were made happy last Tuesday afternoon by a picnic given them by five Winnetka women. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. A. Ballard Bradley, who was in charge of the affair, Mrs. Douglas Smith, Mrs. James W. Prindiville, Mrs. Robert C. Biddle, and Mrs. Buckingham Chandler. Since the first part of the day was unpleasant, the children were taken to Community House, where they ate their lunches in the gymnasium. Early in the afternoon the weather cleared, so the picnic was transferred to the beach of Mrs. Douglas Smith's home on Sheridan road. The hostesses wish to thank Community House for the use of the gymnasium during the early part of the day when the inclemency of the weather prevented the party from going outside.

Members of the Woman's Guild of Christ church were hostesses to about 50 children of Chase House, who came out in a special car Thursday of last week to spend the day in Winnetka. They were served with luncheon in the Parish House, and were taken for automobile rides along the north shore in the afternoon, returning to the city about 4 o'clock. Mrs. Frank D. Fulton was chairman of the committee in charge which consisted of Mrs. Godfrey Atkin, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Charles Jackson, Mrs. Harry Street, Mrs. Ralph Hobart, Mrs. C. S. Ostrom, Mrs. John Cobb, and Mrs. George Frazer.

Mrs. Ralph G. Ingersoll and her daughter, Miss Helen, of 66 Abbottsford road, are leaving today on a motor trip to the East with Mrs. Ingersoll's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lenham, of Milwaukee. The party plans to visit first Mrs. Ingersoll's brother in Philadelphia, then proceed to her mother's summer home, Mountain lake, in New Jersey. They will stay for a few days in New York City at her mother's winter apartments, and will then visit another brother in Buffalo on their return journey. The trip will probably take about two weeks and a half.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kirkgasser of 166 Woodland avenue, have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pohle and their daughter, Ellen, of Buffalo, N. Y. The evening of July 4 Mr. and Mrs. Kirkgasser entertained at a beach party in Mr. and Mrs. Pohle's honor. Other guests for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKay and their two sons, Bobby and Billy, and George, Jr., and Roger Peck Kirkgasser.

Mrs. Charles Anderson (Jane Van Doren Wright) is the guest of Mrs. Albert Bailey Potter (Margaret Sweet) of Hubbard Woods, at the summer home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Sweet, at Minnetonka Beach, Lake Minnetonka.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman M. Stineman, 1121 Ash street, are receiving the congratulations of their friends upon the birth of a son, Russell West, Thursday, July 9. Mrs. Stineman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. West of Wilmette.

Eward Kenny, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kenny of 126 Bertling lane, was expected to return Thursday or Friday of this week after an extensive trip around Lake Michigan, coming home by way of Mackinac, Eagle River, and Green Bay. Joseph Kenny will leave soon after his brother's return to join friends on a two weeks' fishing trip in northern Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Dain D. Fuller, 182 Forest avenue, have as their house guests, Mrs. Horace Smith and her daughter, Ann Franklin Smith, of Louisville, who will remain a number of weeks. Many social affairs are being given for Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Charles Fuller was hostess at a bridge-luncheon in her honor Wednesday last, at Indian Hill Golf club.

Mr. and Mrs. Coram T. Davis have returned to their home at 132 Bertling lane, after a motor trip to Ephraim, Wis., where they took their son, Coram, Jr., to Mr. Kinney's camp at Adventure island for the rest of the summer.

Miss Elizabeth Clore entertained at luncheon and bridge Wednesday at her home, 654 Cherry street, in honor of Miss Beatrice Ripley, whose debut at the home of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Ripley, was one of the charming affairs of the summer season.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Ferry, 391 Sheridan road, returned from a motor trip through Yellowstone park last week, and have left Winnetka again for State Line, Wis., where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fisher and their daughter, Janice, left yesterday morning for Mankato, Minn. They are motoring to Mankato and will spend two weeks visiting at the summer home of relatives.

Miss Ruth Melihope of 300 Woodlawn avenue, who graduated from the University of Chicago in June, returned last week from Duluth, Minn., where she attended the wedding of one of her classmates and spent 10 days.

Mrs. Thomas N. Wheatley, 329 Fairview avenue, has left to spend the summer in New York. She will be met later in the season by Mr. Wheatley and her son, Stanley, and they will tour the East.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bosworth, 881 Spruce street, and their house guest, Miss Amy Hunt of St. Louis, were guests over the week-end of Mrs. Bosworth's mother, Mrs. Hopkins, of Milwaukee.

Mrs. Blanchard Randail and her four children, of Baltimore, were the guests of Mrs. Randall's mother, Mrs. William McIvaine, of Hubbard Woods, prior to their departure to Charlevoix, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McPherson of Pine lane, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick West at their summer home, Court Hill, Pittsfield. They expect to be east several weeks.

Mrs. Albert Haberer of 1063 Oak street entertained members of her Chicago club and other friends at a lawn party Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace K. Tenney, 610 Pine street, departed Wednesday for an extended stay at Jamestown, where Mrs. Goddard Cheney has been spending the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Ball of Kenilworth are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Rockwell of 277 Chestnut street, at their summer home at Charlevoix, Mich.

Miss Marion Campbell of 271 Scott avenue will spend a month or two in Canada with her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. I. Campbell, at the summer home of the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Keehn and R. H. Uhlman and family, 336 Cherry street, have been spending a two week vacation in Glacier National park. They were expected to return yesterday.

Cretonne

THE SEASON'S BADGE OF CHIC

For Frocks For Coats
For Jackets For Beach Capes
For Rompers For Beach Pajamas

The last word in smartness for summer, beach and vacation wear are frocks and coats of cretonne. Evanston girls are sponsoring this mode which originated at Palm Beach last winter. We have noticed that coats in the simple mandarin style that hang loosely from the shoulder are the most popular.

The Famous Eswick Prints

Designed by the House of Standish—these cretonnes combine striking brilliancy of color and beautiful designs. Regularly selling at 89c a yard, they have been reduced for our July Sales to 65c—take advantage of this saving. 65c

Chintz Is Also Popular

Some girls prefer dresses in the lighter patterns so they have been making them up of pretty chintz. To purchase your material at this time will mean a decided saving, for this chintz regularly sells for 60c. 39c
