

KENILWORTH HAS BUILDING BOOM

Permits to Date for 1925 Nearly Equal 1924 Total

Kenilworth building permits for the month of June totaled $134,000, breaking the record for monthly totals this year. Five new residences under construction have a total value of $131,000. They are as follows:
 C. R. Erwin, a frame and stucco residence at 611 Warwick road, $50,000; Lee M. Pedego, a brick veneer residence at 115 Robsart street, $28,000; James Crabb, a brick veneer residence at 151 Abbottsford road, $20,000; Omer B. Daken, a brick veneer residence at 721 Virginia avenue, $8,000; W. C. Snoddy, a frame residence at 227 Raleigh road, $25,000.
 There have been very few applications for building permits this month, it was said. One permit was issued to H. W. Jordan to build a frame residence at 320 Cumberland road, which will cost $17,000. Other permits have been issued for alterations to existing buildings and for the building of garages.

Indications are that 1925 will see more building in Kenilworth than last year. Permits for $355,825 worth of buildings have been issued so far, and the total permits issued in 1924 amounted to $419,245. Comparison of building records since the war shows that in 1920 the lowest level was reached, with permits for only $214,600 issued, while 1923 is the high year with $635,000 represented in permits.

"KNOW YOUR CLOTHES"

"Women ought to be on better terms with their clothes," says Anne Cornwall, leading lady for Douglas MacLean in his new picture, "Introduce Me." "It is only by knowing your clothes and studying their lines that you can wear them to bring out their modish effect to full advantage."

MR. Electro-serve says he doesn't think that a room is completely furnished without an electric lamp. We have some charming designs in floor and table lamps, reading lamps and piano lamps. Delightful finishes with shades in silk and parchment. Boudoir lamps that add a glamor to the last "good night."

With the Poets

Keeping the Home Sweet Home
 If you have any troubles from work or care
 Don't bring them home to poison the air
 All troubles should melt like the snows in June,
 When you enter its portals sing a joyful tune.

Step into your home with a smiling face,
 'Twill bring cheer like the glow from the old fireplace.
 For love after all is the big fire of our soul.
 It thrills our hearts' blood. It's Heaven's own goal.

So gather love's garlands while you may.
 Spill them over the home in your happiest way.
 For life's but a dream. Yes, a short one at best.
 The better we use it, the sweeter we'll rest.

Of Interest Only to Our Advertisers

The Full Page Ad is used by many of our advertisers to celebrate some big event in their history. For example, the Wilmette Shoe Store devoted its page, last week, to an announcement of its semi-annual sale in which it was offering its entire stock of shoes at a 20% to 50% reduction.

The Oil-o-matic Company, by means of 139 pictures of their oil burners showed their sellings for this, their first year. The heading read, "In one year's time Oil-o-matic outsells any other burner in this territory two to one."

Like the preceding company Wm. Edwards & Son of Glencoe and Northbrook celebrate on their full page an anniversary. They take the occasion to offer for sale at low prices many household hardware helps.
