

DOROTHY KLOTZ LOSES IN EAST

Glenna Collett Defeats Local Golf Champ

Miss Dorothy Klotz, representing the Indian Hill club in the seventh annual woman's invitation golf tournament at Shenecossett, Groton, Conn., this week, gave Miss Glenna Collett a hard battle for finalist honors before losing 4 and 3 to the national champion.

Throughout the match, which was the feature of the tournament, Miss Klotz repeatedly out-drove her opponent who is famous for her powerful drives. It was a spectacular match all the way.

Going out, Miss Collett was two up on the Indian Hill player, but Miss Klotz took the third hole and won the fourth on a birdie two, placing her again on even terms with the champion. The fifth hole was halved and Miss Collett took the sixth, seventh and eighth, leaving her three up at the ninth. Miss Klotz, however, followed hard and although she also lost the fifteenth, was 4 and 3 at the finish.

The opening round fell into a five-way tie with all scores at 91. In the play-off, Miss Klotz made a four on the first hole and Mrs. J. J. Thompson, Mount Vernon, and Mrs. Charles A. Downey, Springfield, Mass., made fives.

Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Childs, 906 Oak street, and Mr. and Mrs. Orval Simpson of Tower road, motored to Minocqua, Wis., last Tuesday to be gone a week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith returned last Sunday to Winnetka after a seven months' trip from coast to coast, and are at their home at 819 Oak street.

Winnetka A. C.'s Trim Chicago Royal Blues

Winnetka baseball fans were treated to a regular game last Sunday when the home boys came from behind and won from the Royal Blues, 8 to 4. The Blues are considered one of the best amateur teams in Chicago, which apparently meant nothing to the Winnetka A. C. as the final score indicates. Carpenter and Klauke accounted for most of the eight runs, while Luchessi held the Blues to one run after relieving Cary in the third inning. Three runs were scored off Cary in three innings because of ragged support. Sunday the locals meet the Concordia club of Chicago, champions of the south side.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Vander Vries and son, Jack, 968 Pine street, will leave next Tuesday on a five weeks' motor trip around Lake Michigan, going by way of Michigan.

Willard McNitt of 975 Pine street, is at the Evanston hospital suffering from a severe infection.

Mr. Krauss says; "The Tri-State convention of the Cleaners and Dyers is in session. Many new things concerning the industry have been discovered during the past year—among them the fact that an inferior silk, which cracks easily is being manufactured from sawdust. The public should guard against this by purchasing only from reliable dealers.

Take advantage of our quick service and the accommodation of a charge account."
