

Winnetka Leader Attends International Conference

MRS. WILLIAM GOLD HIBBARD of 840 Willow road, is leaving soon to attend the Institute of Politics at Williamstown, Mass., a conference which is held annually during the month of August. This year at the Institute, to which there are about 200 invited, there will be many prominent international figures, among whom is Count Alexander Skrzynski, the Polish minister of foreign affairs who visited in Chicago only last week. Round-table discussions will be held every day, at which important international subjects will be discussed. There will also be public lectures on the same subjects. Mrs. Hibbard has attended the Institute for two years, and this year has the honor of being the only woman to represent Chicago and the north shore. Mrs. Hibbard is well known for her interest in international affairs.
