

Bryan's Death Blow to Sunday Club Followers

Wilmette feels keenly the passing of William Jennings Bryan because in his death patrons of the Wilmette Sunday Evening club have lost one of the most popular speakers ever to appear on the platform of that community organization.

Mr. Bryan appeared before the Sunday Evening club on three different occasions, according to W. Frank McClure, president of the club. One of the first addresses he gave on the Bible as opposed to evolution was before a local Sunday club audience. On one occasion the throng of listeners was so great that it became necessary for him to speak at an overflow meeting in the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farrell of Highland Park were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Busick at her home at 1408 Asbury avenue.

Mrs. Robert H. Ripley, 29 Indian Hill road, has gone to Massachusetts to stay until August 15.

FLOYD KOON AUTO SALES

1160 Wilmette Avenue

This Business Stands Squarely Upon The Car Owner's Good Will

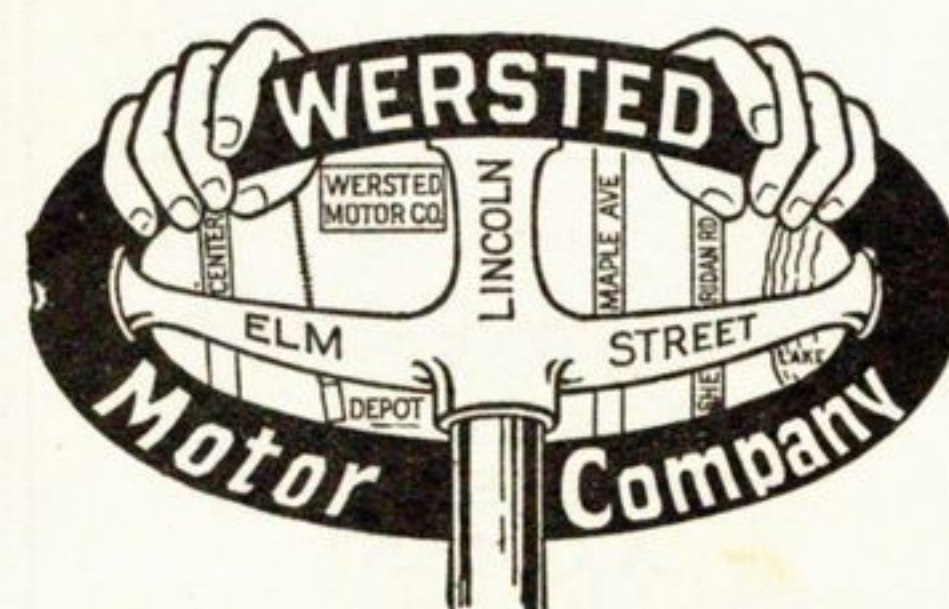

WHAT we have to sell here is not so much a good car as it is good automobile transportation.

This organization is built around the idea of constant service to the car owner, and constant co-operation with him. Automobiles are sold here with the understanding that they are to fulfill the daily expectations of the owner.

DODGE BROTHERS cars lend themselves admirably to this policy.
