DID NERO FIDDLE? "Nero fiddled while Rome burned." There is an adage which has been in common usage for centuries. And yet, did Nero fiddle? Were fiddles even known in Nero's time, half a century after the birth of Christ?

In "Quo Vadis," the new and gigantic First National production Nero is shown strumming a lyre while Rome burns. The producers of the First National classic maintain that fiddles weren't even known at that early date. What did Nero do while Rome burned? Did he fiddle, as the adage says, or did he strum the lyre, as the film experts contend?

LOCAL STARS COMPETE IN BIG SWIM CARNIVAL

Two hundred contestants, including an Olympic star and several other of Northwestern university's swimming aces, will unite in a great water carnival under the direction of Coach Tom Robinson, this Saturday at 2 o'clock, at the Patten gymnasium swimming pool. This is the 15th annual water carnival that the famous Purple mentor has conducted.

"I expect 200 of my pupils to perform," stated Mr. Robinson in discussing the annual event. "There will be races for the little children as well as for the more experienced. About 35 races of a 20-yard nature are listed for the gala event, but the feature event will be a race between eight of the fastest girl swimmers pitted against a team of eight of the speediest boy swimmers."

Several of Northwestern university championship varsity swimming stars will co-operate to make the swimming carnival an interesting one. Captain Dick Howell, who was a member of the 1924 Olympic team, which ran off with all the honors last summer in Paris, Paul Manovitz, a member of the globe-trotting championship varsity team last fall, Paul Corbett, of Kenilworth, another varsity star, and others will take part in the program. Sid La Pook, fancy diver, and Herb. Wells, a Northwestern alumnus, will do some fancy diving stunts. Announcement was made that Sybil Bauer may put on an exhibition in her famous back stroke swimming.

"There will be no admission charge for the contestants but all others will be asked to pay a minimum price for admission, which will be spent for the many prizes offered," explained Coach Robinson.

HOST OF VISITORS AT NEW CADILLAC EXHIBIT

More people visited the five sales rooms of the Cadillac Chicago Branch on the three days of Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of last week than were ever before known to call in a full week. The number of demonstrations made, during that period, in the new, improved Cadillac exceed substantially the highest week's record at any previous time. The introduction of the "New Cadillac" has awakened wider interest and produced more sales than any in the history of the organization. Commenting on the unprecedented attendance at the first three days' showing of the New Cadillac, H. M. Stephens, branch general manager, says: "With the new car, Cadillac has stepped ahead even farther and taken up a new leading position. The interest this has awakened dwarfs that aroused when the first American-built V-type eight cylinder car—the Type 51 Cadillac—was introduced in 1915. Cadillac has never done anything, in its 23 years of existence, which was so unmistakably approved by the public.

"We had laid plans, prior to the appearance of the advertising of the new improved Cadillac, to receive a large number of callers at our fire sales rooms. But our most ambitious expectations fell far short of even approximating the actual numbers who started coming early Thursday morning.

"The seven demonstrating cars which we had placed in service were kept on the street almost constantly from 9 o'clock in the morning until 11 at night. Throughout the afternoon and evening, those who wanted to ride in and drive the New Cadillac came in greater numbers than we could accommodate, and parties waited for rides.

Must Have Card to Get Into Canada With Auto

Hundreds of motorists have been turned back at the Ontario border for lack of registration cards during the past few weeks, according to the touring bureau of the Chicago Motor club. "It is absolutely essential," says a bulletin issued by the club, "that motorists carry their registration cards with them when entering Canada.

"The states of Pennsylvania and Maryland also request that motorists present their registration cards when called for."

DICK IS PICTURESQUE Dick Turpin "rode the roads" in Merrie England 175 years ago, holding up the coaches of the rich and taking the purses of the passengers. Nor did he spurn the magnificent snuff boxes and massive watches then in vogue. Smilingly the daring rogue would sweep the ground with the plumes of his hat as he robbed a fair lady and then spur Black Bess to a hard gallop and off to London to spend the fruits of his rascality.

Miss Irene Schuett, the sister of Mrs. William Buckner of 677 Willow road, is motoring today with a party of friends to Madison and the Dells, where she will remain two weeks at the Duclos Home hotel.
