Arden Shore Observes Silver Jubilee

THE annual Arden Shore pageant, which will be held at the camp Wednesday afternoon, August 19, at 3 o'clock, will celebrate also the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the camp. A cordial invitation to attend the pageant is extended to all north shore people.

Arden Shore camp was started originally in connection with Gad's Hill settlement at 19th and Cullerton streets, Chicago, and was founded by Mrs. Leila A. Martin, a worker at God's Hill, and will be present at the anniversary celebration next Wednesday. The original camp was in Glencoe, and was moved to its present site a mile north of Lake Bluff and renamed Arden Shore in 1908. During its first years in Glencoe, the camp was backed by Central church of Chicago and the Gad's Hill settlement.

Mrs. William E. Clow of Lake Forest will be hostess next Wednesday afternoon, and will be assisted by a group of past presidents of the Arden Shore encampment association. Those assisting Mrs. Clow will be Mrs. J. McGregor Adams of Highland Park, honorary president; Mrs. Frank McMullin of New York, who is here for the occasion; Mrs. Robert B. Gregory of Chicago; Mrs. James Keith, Mrs. Philip S. Post and Mrs. Charles H. Thorn of Lake Forest; Mrs. Grant Ridgway of Kenilworth; Mrs. Carl R. Latham of Evanston; and Mrs. Joseph J. Siddall of Glencoe, who is now president.

The committee serving refreshments will be, besides Mrs. Clow, the following from Chicago and the north shore towns: Mrs. Lloyd S. Shaw, Chicago; Mrs. Edwin Sherman, Evanston; Mrs. Frederick Tilt, Wilmette; Mrs. Mark W. Cresap, Kenilworth; Mrs. Norman W. Harris, Winnetka; Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, Glencoe; Mrs. Harry A. Sellery, Ravinia; Miss Mary Card, Highland Park; Mrs. Harry A. Hootan, Lake Bluff; and Mrs. William E. Casselberry.

Elizabeth Boyden Makes Bow Next Month

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made that Miss Elizabeth Boyden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden of 725 Pine street, will be presented to society the afternoon of September 12 at an informal tea in the Boyden gardens. The names of the young women who will assist Miss Boyden will be announced later.

Miss Corinne Fitzpatrick, who is director of the Community Nursery school, has just closed her summer group of the enterprise in Indian Hill, and during the month of August she is conducting groups in Hubbard Woods and in Lake Forest. Mrs. George Parker of Indian Hill and Mrs. Wayne Chatfield-Taylor of Lake Forest have aided the school by offering their homes for the project.

The Community Nursery school, to which Mrs. J. Williams Macy of Hubbard Woods has so kindly lent her assistance by the proffer of the use of her home for the past two years, will reopen in October with new quarters of its own. Children of the ages of from 2 to 6 are taken care of, and there are a few places for the term which are still to be filled.

Miss Fitzpatrick with Mrs. Carmelita Hinton started the nursery school movement in Winnetka four years ago, and since that time five or six nursery groups have started up along the north shore. Miss Fitzpatrick lives at 946 Linden avenue.

There will be a reunion of Kenilworth young marrieds in the form of a house party which will gather at the northern home of Miss Miriam Shattuck at Land o' Lakes, Wis., this week. Composing the party are Mr. and Mrs. Ward Starrett, 333 Richmond road, Kenilworth; Mr. and Mrs. Loomis Hypes, Glencoe; Mr. and Mrs. Dougal Kittermaster, Highland Park; and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sheridan of Evanston, who will motor over from the Wausaukee club in Wisconsin to be present at the house party.

Miss Undine Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dunn of 100 Broadway, accompanied by the Misses Whitman of Winnetka, has left to be a councilor of art at Highfield, a girls' camp located at Penobscot Bay, Maine. Miss Dunn graduated from Northwestern university in June. Miss Florence Marshall, who is head of the Girls' Vocational school of New York City, is in charge of the Highfield camp this summer.

George Massey, Jr., who is at the C. M. T. C. at Camp Custer, Mich., was one of 15 out of 3,100 competitors to make the rifle team at the camp. Instead of returning to Winnetka on August 24, he will go to Camp Perry, Ohio, to take part in the national matches in which the regular army, national guard, and civilians will participate. He will enter Yale university on October 1. David Rumsey and John Huddle are other Winnetka young men who are at Camp Custer.

Mrs. Barrett Conway of Londen avenue returned Thursday from Diamond G ranch in Wyoming. Miss Louise Conway will stay on at the ranch until the first of September with Mrs. Walter Wallace and her family of Mt. Pleasant road and Mrs. Ezra Taylor of Linden avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Street and their children are also among Winnetkans at the ranch.

Harry R. Hale has just returned to his home at 761 Foxdale avenue after spending a few days on Cape Cod, where he visited the John S. Miller family at their summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kirkgasser, 166 Woodland avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hershey of Oak Park and Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKay, Kenilworth avenue, Rogers Park, at dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of their seventh wedding anniversary. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Kirkgasser will give a dinner dance at the Bunker Hill club in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. Morrissey, Eastlake terrace, Rogers Park.

Chester W. Cleveland of Foxdale avenue, a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, is on the committee of the Collegiate club of Chicago which is making final plans this month for accommodations for local groups of fraternity men represented in the club membership. W. E. Hotchkiss, Phi Kappa Sigma from Cornell, heads the committee for the fraternity quarters arrangement. Erection of the club building will begin early in 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Lamson of 940 Sheridan road have just returned from a six weeks' trip through the Northwest. They stopped at Glacier Park on the way out to Seattle and Vancouver, and at Lake Louise and Banff on the way home. Miss Elizabeth Lamson returned yesterday from a 40-day pack trip through Yellowstone Park with Miss Louise May Greeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Albion S. Webbe of 1171 Oakley avenue, are spending some time at Horseshoe inn, Estes Park. The Sidney Bartlett family, 821 Foxdale avenue, spent a fortnight's vacation at Horseshoe inn also before returning to the village this week for a few days. Mrs. Bartlett and the children are now at White lake, Mich., where they are the guests of Mrs. Bartlett's mother, Mrs. Little, at her summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Porter of Sheridan road, are at their summer home, Great Spruce, on Head Island, Penobscot bay, Maine, for the remainder of the season, and they have as their house-guests for several weeks the Misses Emily and Frances Hamill of Hinsdale. Their daughter, Mrs. Michael Straus of Hinsdale, is also visiting her parents for a brief time, but will return to her home next week.

The Misses Joyce and Frances Whitman of 640 Hill road are spending the summer at Highfield camp at Penobscot bay, Mass. Miss Florence Marshall, head of the Girls' Vocational school of New York City, is director of the camp, and Miss Undine Dunn of Wilmette, who graduated from Northwestern university in June, is a councilor of art.

Mrs. Charles Howard Bent of 112 Woodland avenue has as her guest for some time her sister, Mrs. I. W. Baker, and her two children of Cleveland. Miss Marion Bent will return with her aunt and cousins when they go back to Cleveland in about a week, and will be their guest at their home for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Willett and son, Roscoe, of Louisville, Ky., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wales, 480 Sheridan road.
