

Miss Barbara Scott to be Married September 23

MISS BARBARA SCOTT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott of Sheridan road, has chosen the afternoon of Wednesday, September 23, as the time for her marriage to Donald Phelps Welles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phelps Welles of Evanston. The wedding will take place in the gardens of the brides grandfather, those of the Robert Cluett estate, where Miss Barbara's sister, Betty, became the bride of Edward Kenneth Welles, the twin brother of her fiance, two years ago this September. Mrs. Welles, as matron of honor, and Miss Emily Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott, as bridesmaid for her cousin, will be in the bridal party. Edward Kenneth Welles will also be among the attendants.

Miss Scott, who graduated from Miss Walker's school, finished her education in England and Italy. Mr. Welles was a member of the 1920 class at Yale.

Miss Serena Forberg, daughter of Mrs. A. N. Forberg of Linden avenue, has received the position of assistant instructor in chemistry at the University of Wisconsin for the year beginning this September. Miss Forberg graduated from the university in June, and intends to work for her Master's degree during the coming year. She has the distinction of being the first woman to have this honor conferred upon her.

That bridge luck changes any card player will readily affirm, and proof of the observation would seem to be in the changing names in the list of prize winners which comes to us every week from the Sunset Ridge club. This week Mrs. George Traver of Evanston won the first prize for members, and Mrs. Olson took second place, with Mrs. Barmore claiming the honors among the guests.

The Misses Betty Barber and Mary Forrest left Winnetka last Friday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Weart of Oconomowoc on a motor trip to Superior. They will be present at the pageant given annually by the Indians on the reservation. They will return to Oconomowoc in time to see the elaborate carnival, which, it is stated, will be better than ever this year.
