Mid-Summer Flower Show a Camp Benefit

THE annual mid-summer flower show given by the North Shore Garden club will be held Saturday, August 22, from 2 until 8 o'clock at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Stonehill, Sheridan road, Glencoe.

All the choice blooms from various gardens along the north shore will be in attractive display, and charming bouquets and buttonieres will be sold to the visitors. Tables exquisitely set for dinner parties, luncheons, and breakfasts, will be on display in the large reception hall, and the flowers will be exhibited in the conservatory and service garage. Sunset Camp at Antioch will be the beneficiary of the receipts from the flower show.

Miss Copeland Selects Wedding Party

MRS. LOWELL COPELAND of Lakeside, Mich., has announced Saturday afternoon, September 5, as the date for the marriage of her daughter, Elizabeth Sewall Copeland, to Paul MacClintock, son of Prof. and Mrs. William D. MacClintock. The time will be 4:30 o'clock and the place, beautiful Christ church at Sheridan road and Humboldt avenue.

Miss Ruth L. Copeland will attend her sister as maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be the Misses Margaret Boyden, Rachel A. Foster, Elsie Blatchford, Barbara Churchill, Martha Dickinson, and Elizabeth Smith.

Lander MacClintock of the University of Indiana will serve his brother as best man while John Nuveen, Jr., William E. Goodman, and Bronson Toleman, all of Chicago; Arthur P. Scott, and Frank H. O'Hara of the University of Chicago, and Larned Greeley of Winnetka will be the ushers.

A small reception will be held in the gardens of the William Cowper Boyden estate, 725 Pine street, immediately after the ceremony.

Donald M. Murray Home Scene of Wedding

RELATIVES and intimate friends will be guests at the wedding that will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Murray of 832 Bryant avenue, when the former's sister, Miss Margaret Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. B. Murray, becomes the bride of Roger Bridgford Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Russell of Madison, Wis. The Rev. Paul H. Clark of Elburn, Ill., will read the service.

Miss Emily S. Murray will be her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. Lewis N. Murray, Miss Thelma Fox, Miss Patricia McSarty, Miss Mary McKenna, Deborah Keith, Gretchen Puetz, Mary Puetz, and Virginia Puetz will stretch the ribbons. Mrs. Philemon B. Kohlsaat will play the wedding march. Gordon Thompson will serve as best man, and ushering will be Donald M. Murray, Lewis N. Murray, Adolph Sprey, and Ray Portman.

After October 1, Mr. Russell and his bride will be at home at 415 Brittingham boulevard, Madison, Wis.

One of the largest and most successful of the Winnetka picnics which have been given this year for the children and their mothers of the congested settlement districts of Chicago was that given by Mrs. Douglas Smith at her home at 915 Sheridan road, Wednesday afternoon, when a group of about 40 Italian mothers and as many as 80 children, some of them babies-in-arms, were entertained at a picnic lunch and beach party.

Community House contributed its bit by the loan of 100 bathing suits for the guests. Miss Helen Taylor of the Chicago Commons was one of the workers, and she was assisted by several young helpers, among them Miss Ruth Dennis of Evanston, and Mr. McCulloch, a 1926 graduate of Williams college who is studying social welfare problems at the Commons this summer. The fresh Winnetka air and gallons of appetizing milk were two important factors which made it a glorious affair for the guests from the city.

The North Shore Dance and Card club recently organized by the Temple committee of the Masonic lodge, has extended the time for reservations to September 15, on account of the summer vacation. The committee is making every effort to make this club one of the best of its kind on the north shore, and is happy to report, it is stated, that there is, even at this early date, a sufficient number of members to insure its success. Sherman Goble is chairman and Charles Sommers is secretary and treasurer.

Miss Bertha Smith of Edgewood lane, accompanied by Miss Isabel MacDonald is having a delightful stay in Nova Scotia where Miss Smith is visiting at her old home and taking many trips of interest. Miss Smith is the sister of Mrs. Theodore Valinda of 1412 Edgewood lane. Miss Smith and Miss MacDonald will return early in September.

John Huddle, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Huddle of 794 Rosewood avenue, spent a part of this week at home from Camp Custer, where he was among the Winnetka boys who won medals for marksmanship. He is spending the week-end with the George Gordons at Lake Hammond.

Mrs. Henry K. Urion and her children, 989 Cherry street, have returned from a two months' trip to Boston and New Hampshire where they were the guests of Mrs. Urion's parents at their summer home in the New Hampshire mountains.

Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Albert Gleaves Berry, Jr., are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter at the Evanston hospital, August 8. Mrs. Berry was formerly Miss Marion Blatchford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Blatchford of 605 Arbor Vitae road. Lieut. Berry is on a month's leave from duty on the west coast, where he will return when he leaves Winnetka September 7. He is at present the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Blatchford who are temporarily occupying the Cornelius Lynde home on Bryant avenue while the Lyndes are spending a month at the Blatchford summer place in Desbarats.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haskins and Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman of Winnetka, and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Rathbone of Kenilworth, are spending this week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Zinke of 375 Woodlawn avenue, Glencoe, at their summer home "Tarry-a-while," on Lake Winnebago.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Klauke, who were married July 18, at Sacred Heart church, have returned from their honeymoon trip to Minocqua where they were guests at the Northern hotel for two weeks. Mrs. Klauke was Miss Helen Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson, 323 Hazel avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Klauke are residing temporarily at the Jackson home, but after October 1, they will be at home to their friends in their new home in Highland Park which Mr. Klauke is building.

Mrs. James A. Donovan of 429 Hawthorne lane has as her guests for a week or 10 days, her mother, Mrs. F. M. Wright, of San Fernando, Cal., and her sister, Mrs. Joseph R. Byers, of Minneapolis. Mrs. Donovan entertained for her guests yesterday at luncheon and bridge. This evening Mrs. J. M. Coulter is entertaining for them at the Skokie club, and last evening Mrs. Arthur Medlicott of Evanston entertained for Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Byers at the Sheridan Shore Yacht club.

Virginia Withers Varney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Varney of 535 Cherry street, celebrated her seventh birthday with a party at her home August 11. Eighteen little girls were present to enjoy dancing on the lawn with the music furnished by an Italian and his hand organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Pearse of Golf lane, left this week for a few weeks' trip.
