

RESUME TUESDAY FILM AT CENTER

Community House Offers Tom Meighan Picture

Next Tuesday marks the re-opening of Tuesday motion pictures at the Community House. Thomas Meighan in "Old Home Week" has been selected as the feature picture. Performances will begin at 7:30 and 9 p. m.

In brief, "Old Home Week" deals with the experience of a small town boy, who returns home after having "made good" in New York. At least the townspeople take it for granted that he has been successful inasmuch as his business cards read "President of the Amalgamated Oil Co." The citizens hail his arrival with the keenest delight because the town is at that very moment in the midst of an oil boom.

At about the time the local "hero" discovers that couple of crooked promoters are in back of the oil boom, the inhabitants learn that their native son is in reality a failure and bankrupt. The resultant developments are full of action and suspense, eventually leading up to a surprise climax and a happy ending.

The feature picture at next Friday evening's performances at Community House will be "New Toys." An "Our Gang" comedy will complete the bill.

"New Toys" is a comedy-drama starring Richard Barthelmess and his wife, Mary Hay. Says one critic, "It's a laugh from start to finish and it's funny enough to make a Sphinx chortle with joy."

educated in the Winnetka grammar schools, attended Evanston Township High school and graduated from New Trier Township High school in 1911. During his years at New Trier twice he won the inter-scholastic golf championship, which marked the beginning of a brilliant career in amateur golf circles in this vicinity.

Worked in Ore Mines

Captain Hale attended the University of Illinois, but ill health made it necessary for him to forsake his studies and he spent a considerable period of time in the iron mine fields at Hibbing, Minn., later remaining at home until in 1916 he enlisted with Battery C., Illinois National Guard and saw service on the Mexican border in the famous Punitive expedition conducted by General Pershing. He received a commission as second lieutenant later in the O. R. C.

At the outset of America's entrance into the World War Captain Hale attended the first officers' training camp at Fort Sheridan, receiving a commission as first lieutenant of artillery in the reserves. He was immediately ordered, detached to France, and after attending the French artillery school at Samur, served with the French army until volunteered for the air service and was assigned to a French school, attached to the 90th Air Squadron.

Joins U. S. Air Forces

Transferring to the U. S. air forces Captain Hale later was ordered in service as an observer, achieving the rank of captain of reserves and seeing active duty in the famous Toule sector.

Later he was ordered back to the United States as an instructor in aeronautics, not long afterward receiving his pilot's license at Fort Sill, Okla. Followed a period of service at headquarters in Washington, D. C., assignment to Langley Field for two years, and still later to Georgia School of Technology as instructor in military science and aeronautics. At the time of his death Captain Hale was attached to headquarters at the Bolling aviation field near Washington, D. C., and at times served as junior military aide to President Coolidge. After the war Captain Hale was made a first lieutenant in the regular army and since that time was promoted to the rank of captain.

Captain Hale was best known in this vicinity for his prowess in golf. From the time of his achievements in that direction while a mere high school boy, he was the recipient of repeated honors which culminated last season in the winning of the United States army championship in a tournament at Fort Leavenworth, Kans. In 1914 he journeyed to England on a freighter to enter the British amateur tournament and later played in a French amateur tournament. He was one of the best known amateur golfers in the Middle West.

Surviving Captain Hale are his parents, three brothers, Sanborn, Noble and Irwin, and a sister, Ethel.

It makes the whole tire more flexible

FOR years, the head of the tire was built by all manufacturers as a separate unit.

Then Kelly tried looping the head into the cords of the tire fabric itself.

Even Kelly was surprised at the result. It made the whole tire more flexible. It made possible the new flexible Kelly tread—a real non-skid tread that engages the road with the ease and silence of well oiled gears and delivers even more mileage than the tires that made the Kelly-Springfield name famous.

Here is the best tire Kelly has ever built. Come in and let us show you one.
