

NEW STATE LAWS AID TO HEALTH

Insure Pure Milk and Boost Nurses' Pay

The Chicago Tuberculosis Institute comments very favorably on three new laws enacted by the 54th general assembly of the state of Illinois. Two of these relate to milk and one to nursing. Consequently they all have a practical bearing on the work of the Institute and, if rigidly enforced, should be a great help in promoting the public health.

One law requires pasteurizing plants to have state certificates. The other milk law provides that municipalities may prohibit the sale of milk from any herd that has not been tuberculin tested.

The law that relates to nursing provides that cities may levy a tax for the salaries of community nurses. Such nurses must be properly appointed and their duties prescribed under the law. These laws mean a great step in the progress of the state of Illinois and have long been desired by those interested in its welfare.

The Chicago Tuberculosis Institute, through the agency of the Christmas seal, provides much of the local public health service administered from the health center at Wilmette and Ridge avenues.

Brokers Plan Wandering Tour of West and North

Raymond E. Thatcher and Carl Forberg of the Hill and Wheeler real estate firm, left Sunday for an auto trip west and north.

The plans of the two men were deliberately indefinite. They expect to travel where fancy leads them, fish when they feel like it and loaf in the woods all they want. The trip is expected to last for about 10 days.

The campers' car left headed toward Minneapolis and St. Paul with further plans unknown.

WINNETKAN PREACHES HERE

The Rev. Ralph Morphet of Winnetka will preach the sermon at the 11 o'clock services of the Wilmette Baptist church, Sunday morning, August 30. Mr. Morphet has just returned from a European tour. He is affiliated with the Winnetka Congregational church.

SCHMEDTGENS ENROUTE ON TOUR OF CONTINENT

William Schmedtgen, well known artist, 710 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette, in company with Mrs. Schmedtgen and their daughter Dorothea, left this week for an extensive tour which will include England, the Continent and the Mediterranean countries.

They expect to travel first in England, going by way of Montreal and Glasgow. Beyond this, their plans are not definite, although they have obtained passports for Italy, Switzerland, Germany and France.

The trip, as planned by the Schmedtgens, will be made in true artist manner, with the route to be chosen according to the fancy or whim of the moment. Time will be taken to paint or sketch in hamlet and villages here and there—whether on or off the beaten tourists' trail. And there will be special study at some of the larger art centers.

A large share of their Continental tour will probably be spent in the small villages of Italy.
