

RAVINIA CLIMAX MONDAY NIGHT

Triple Bill, Gala Program for September 7

Another performance of "La Tosca" with Mme. Raisa in the title role will be given on Saturday night, September 5, Giuseppe Danise being heard as Scarpia and Mario Chamlee as Cavaradossi. Others in the cast are Louis D'Angelo, Giordano Paltrinieri, Paolo Ananian and Merle Alcock. Gennaro Papi will conduct.

The last lap of the season will be entered Sunday afternoon, Sept. 6, when a concert will be given by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra with Alfred Wallenstein, cellist, as soloist. Sunday night, "Carmen," one of the most popular operas of the standard repertoire, will be given its only performance of the season with Mme. Bourskaya in the title role, Armand Tokatyan as Don Jose and Marie Sundelius as Misaela. Others are Giocomo Rimini, Paolo Ananian, Margery Maxwell, Louis D'Angelo, Philine Falco and Giordano Paltrinieri. Louis Hasselmanns will conduct.

The season will reach a fitting climax on Monday night, September 7, when, in accordance with long established custom a gala program will be presented that will reflect in splendid manner, the dazzling brilliance which has been characteristic of the entire season. Mr. Eckstein has arranged a triple bill for this occasion which will bring before the footlights an array of opera stars who have rightfully been described as the brightest jewels in the diadem of opera. It is a well established fact that no place in the world have so many stars of world magnitude been brought together in one organization as are to be found at Ravinia this summer, and on the occasion of the season's gala closing, they will appear in a program of opera scenes which may be called representative of their best work.

The first act of "Madame Butterfly" with Mme. Raisa in the title role and with Giovanni Martinelli appearing for the first time this season as Lieut. Pinkerton, will open the program. Little remains to be said concerning the "Butterfly" of Mme. Raisa, who singing the role for the first time in her career at Ravinia this summer, immediately won the acclaim of all who heard her and added to her repertoire one of her greatest roles. Mr. Martinelli has long been considered one of the world's greatest exponents of the role of Pinkerton and one can readily imagine the heights to which these artists will climb in the famous love duet that closes this act. Giocomo Rimini will be heard as Sharpless, a part he has not sung at Ravinia but which holds important place in his repertoire, and Mme. Borskaya will be the Suzuki. Giordano Paltrinieri will appear as Goro and Paolo Ananian as the Bonze. Gennaro Papi will conduct.

Massenet's "Manon" will provide a splendid vehicle for Mme. Lucrezia Bori and Tito Schipa, the second and third acts of this work being given, which means the inclusion of the famous St. Sulpice scene. These artists have been heard in these roles several times this season, each presentation of the work being followed by public demand for its repetition, and in it Mme. Bori and Mr. Schipa are found at their best. It has long been known that Lucrezia Bori was the best of the Manons and that Mr. Schipa was the premiere Des Grieux. It was little wonder then that when they should be cast vis-a-vis at Ravinia this summer they should bring new meaning to this brilliant opus of the French school. Leon Rothier will figure importantly in the presentation of this work, being heard as the elder Des Groeux in the St. Sulpice scene. Others are Louis D'Angelo, Desire Defrere and Virgilia Grassi. Louis Hasselmanns will conduct.

"Don Pasquale" of which an excerpt from act three will be given followed by the second scene of Act Two will bring Mme. Bori and Mr. Schipa to still another style of opera, as they will appear as the lovers in a work which is based entirely on comic lines.

EMPLOYEE PREVENTS DAMAGE
Fire which started in a motor car in the Skokie Motor company's place of business at 716 Elm street, last Saturday evening, was held in control by an employe with a small fire extinguisher until the fire department arrived, thus averting what might have been a serious blaze. Practically no damage was done.

tone, added to his laurels last week when he sang the role of Count Von Walsegg in the St. Louis Municipal theatre's initial presentation of "The Music Robber," last Friday evening, before an audience of over 8,000 music lovers.

Mr. Preston's singing was well received. One of the St. Louis critics writing that, "Howard Preston's Count von Walsegg was outstanding in its complete and finished characterization. Magnificent and rotund is his voice."

The opera "The Music Robber," with score by Issac Van Grove of Chicago, and libretto by Richard L. Stokes of St. Louis, is based on an episode in the life of Mozart and was presented for the first time Friday of last week.

Miss Gladys Swarthout of the Chicago Civic Opera company also had a principal role in "The Music Robber."

SEND LETTERS

Explanatory letters will be sent out next week to the parents of all pupils entering Skokie school this fall, it was announced recently by Willard W. Beatty, principal. It has been the custom every year for the eighth grade children to send similar letters to those pupils who will enter the school.

The student council of the Skokie school will have a reception committee to meet all new students on the opening day of school, and help them to get properly registered and acquainted with the school. It is planned to elaborate the adviser system this year so that every pupil will have a personal friend on the faculty to help him.

Mr. Krauss says:

Are your children ready to return to school? Of the 31,000,000 children in the U. S. who will return to school this month, nearly all will have clothing which needs cleaning and repairing to make it presentable. We have made preparations to do this work for North Shore school children quickly and efficiently.

With so many expenses incidental to getting youngsters back to their classes, parents will appreciate the benefits of a charge account with us. Get the work done now before the rush starts.
