

RIDING EXHIBIT OPEN TO PUBLIC

Indian Hill Equestrians Want Large Gallery

The Indian Hill Riding club is offering a very interesting list of events for its third annual Riding exhibition by the junior members, to be held Saturday, September 19, in the field adjoining the club stables and kennels.

Winnetka's Chamber of Commerce band will provide music for the day and the exhibition is open to every resident of the north shore. The Riding club is particularly anxious to have a large attendance since it is interested in popularizing its activities. The program is intended not merely for club members and their friends but is open to everyone. The list of events follows: Riding by boys from 5 to 8 inclusive; Riding by girls from 5 to 8 inclusive; Exhibition of fox hounds; Riding by boys from 9 to 12 inclusive; Riding by girls from 9 to 12 inclusive; Hunt team over hurdles and hunter class; Riding by boys from 13 to 17 inclusive; Riding by girls from 13 to 17 inclusive; Children's jumping class—all ages; Parents and children riding in couples; Gate and letter-box race by juniors.

Two of the events cover jumping over hurdles and the closing event the gate and letter-box race, is an unusually interesting feature. The contestant has to ride to a gate, open same, pass through, dismount, mail letter, remount, close gate and race back to the starting point.

Considerable interest has been shown by the junior riders of the north shore and a full list of entries is expected.

The committee in charge of the show is as follows: Godfrey H. Atkin, Chairman; Arthur M. Cox, Donald McPherson, Martin Lindsey, Harold Zeiss, Walter F. Walace, C. D. Dallas, H. A. DeWindt, W. G. Woolfolk, Ernest H. Hicks. The show starts at 2:30 o'clock.

One-Eyed Squirrel Babe Fares Badly In Big, Wide World

"And so, girls and boys, you see that one should never go out to see the big, wide world with only one eye open!"

Such might be l' envoi to the bedtime story dramatized last week by an infant squirrel which tried to leave its parental abode at the age of a few days and with only one eye yet opened.

The plot begins with a too curious young squirrel peeping over the edge of its tree-top abode at the world of men and affairs. Its single eye, gazing on a universe strange and fascinating, led it to seek a closer view. It tumbled earthward to a fortunately felineless section and began prowling about the lawn at 1024 Central avenue.

But fools and infant squirrels will have their guardian angels about, and soon the rodent prodigy was safely in the charge of a friendly woman. Attempts to feed it with milk failed utterly. It squeaked and whimpered, either through hunger or pique, that it had but one eye with which to view the world.

After feeding failed, a cigar box was tacked high on the tree trunk from which young Bushytail had fallen and he was placed therein, his wanderlust subdued. He spent a bad night of it, what with the reek of cigars stinging his sensitive nose and the cold night unmitigated by the presence of warm parents.

The next day, Mother Squirrel discovered her offspring after a frantic search of the entire neighborhood. Instantly she took him in her mouth, and the last that was seen of young Bushytail was his departure, only his scrubby tail visible as he was borne back to the tree-top home.

The incident closed with a chatter of parental castigations on the folly and wildness of modern youth.

The Temple club will meet Tuesday, September 16, for a regular meeting followed, as usual, by a social hour, with refreshments and dancing. A large attendance is desired for the first fall session.

Peter Pan Girls Promise to Panic Our Dance Public

Accustomed to providing novelties in the way of entertainment, Frint George, impresario of the Radio-Stars-In-Person diversion, promises to hand his north shore following a most unusual, but, withal, delightful wallop when his Peter Pan Girls, a girls' dance orchestra directed by a girl makes its first public appearance at the Evanston Country club the evenings of September 22, 23 and 24.

The Peter Pans will, of course, be accompanied by a large group of expert entertainers who have been engaged by Mr. George to stage benefit performances for the Evanston Civic band fund.

Evanston merchants who are sponsoring the civic band report a steady sale of tickets and three crowded nights are in prospect.

But, getting back to the Peter Pan girls. They're a complete "panic", and one doesn't have to take Frint George's word for that, because those who have heard the fair musicians are authority for the statement that they will be unable to fill the demands for their services when the dancing season resumes.

They have already been booked for several engagements, including some of the most notable dance events on the north shore, and they're tuned up to put over a riot of syncopation from the "kick off". Oh yes, they have been playing for the radio public. Listen in for them and judge for yourselves.

Dr. Stansell Home from Extended European Trip

Dr. Gilbert Stansell, pastor of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church, returned to the parish last Saturday after a two months' visit in Europe where he attended a great inter-denominational church conference at Copenhagen, Denmark.

Dr. Stansell stopped at West Mansfield, O., on his way back to Wilmette, and from there was accompanied by Mrs. Stansell and their children, who had been spending the summer in the Ohio city.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church this Sunday.

Readers of WILMETTE LIFE have been interested in recent weeks to hear of Dr. Stansell's experiences in Europe through articles that have appeared from time to time in these columns.

Susan M. Burlingham Is Summoned by Death

Mrs. Susan M. Burlingham, mother of Mrs. William C. Boyden, 725 Pine street, passed away Tuesday, September 8, at the Boyden residence. Services were from the home Wednesday and burial was at Graceland.

Mrs. Burlingham was 80 years of age and had made her home with the Boyden's during the greater part of their residence in the village. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Burlingham is survived by a son, Charles L. Burlingham. Another son, Frederick Burlingham, died early last winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Clark of 76 Warwick road, Winnetka, have taken an apartment in Evanston, and will move into their new home October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. MacCracken, 1427 Edgewood lane, are spending a week in New York state.

RAVINIA ENDS IN FLOURISH

Opera Potpourri Given on Final Evening

The first act of Madame Butterfly, three acts of Manon, and the garden scene from Don Pasquale comprised the final program of the 1925 Ravinia opera season last night. A record audience was in attendance.

Rosa Raisa sang the role with Martinelli as Pinkerton for the first time this season and Rimini as Sharpless also for the first time. Suzuki sung by Ina Bourskaya and Zoro by Paltrinieri repeated the successes of earlier appearances. The duet by Raisa and Martinelli, closing the first act, was one of the most favorably received numbers of the evening's program.

Lucrezia Bori, Tito Schipa, Leon Rothier, DeFrere and D'Angelo repeated the second and third acts of Massenet's charming version of Prevost's Manon Lescaut. Lucrezia Bori as Manon and Tito Schipa as Chevalier were recalled again and again.

Lucrezia Bori and Schipa, who sang the leads in the garden scene of Don Pasquale and in the second scene of Act Two with the chorus were also well received. Papi conducted with his usual brilliance.

Ina Bourskaya sang the title role in Carmen on Sunday evening with Armand Tokatyan as Don Jose, who constituted the surprise of the program with his unusually fine acting. Capping the events of the evening was the singing of the beautiful air Micaela by Marie Sundelius.

Winnetka A. C.'s Split Brace of Ball Games

The Winnetka A. C. baseball team showed what fighting spirit could do to a baseball game when they played the O'Shay Indians to a standstill last Monday. The O'Shays are leading the Industrial league in Chicago, having lost only one game this summer, but the Winnetka boys showed them the "farmers" could play ball. Coming into the ninth inning three runs behind the Winnetkans uncovered the old war clubs and before the O'Shays knew what was going on, pushed two runs over the plate and had the winning runs on second and third bases. Unfortunately the needed hit could not be produced and the game was lost 5 to 4. Sunday Winnetka A. C.'s won from the Pals A. C., 4 to 2. This Sunday the Waukegan Colored team comes to town. "Come out and get a real kick from this game," the locals advise the fans of the village.

The A. H. Barbers of 1214 Scott avenue are enjoying an outing at Castle Park, Mich.

Miss Laura Fisher of the Community House has just returned from her vacation at Winona lake, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Miller of 670 Walden road, and their daughter, Miss Virginia Miller, have returned from a summer spent in England, save for a brief visit in Norway. Miss Virginia will enter her freshman year in the North Shore Country Day school high school this fall.
