

LAUNCH SUNDAY CLUB MEETINGS

Young People's Group Predicts Best Year

The Sunday Evening club of the Winnetka Congregational church will resume its weekly meetings Sunday, September 27. The club is composed of a group of Winnetka young people above high school age who meet each week in the Camp Fire room at Community House for the purpose of discussing current subjects, both religious and non-religious.

Plans for this year's program are in progress, the program committee planning to inaugurate the season with a series of addresses on the great "living religions" of the world.

Dr. Norman E. Richardson of Northwestern university has been secured as the speaker for October 4, which date represents the first meeting of the series. He will talk on the general subject of Indian mysticism.

The first get-together of the season is scheduled for September 27 at 6:30 o'clock in the evening when the entire membership of the club will assemble for a beach party. On the following Sunday evening, supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock at Community House and will be followed by an interesting program.

Members of the club are anticipating great progress this year, both in club membership and in the quality of its programs. It is the plan of the membership committee to systematically work for the enlargement of club membership, including in its enrollment all interested young people in the community. The committee will continue its policy of admitting to membership both church members and those not affiliated with any church organization.

Old man, I certainly want to thank you for all the good advice you have given me about trading at PETERS MARKET. By following your suggestions I've saved myself time, trouble and money and have gotten first class meats and fine service.

Don't mention it, Happy. I knew you'd see the light sooner or later. I just can't help boosting a concern like PETERS MARKET, as I know from experience that they are right and that you will always be satisfied in dealing with them.

Al Espinosa of the Illinois Golf club made a late entry with Bobby Cruickshank of Oklahoma City in the Chicago district open championship at Briergate Golf club on Thursday of this week.
