A Perfect Fitting Bloomer

A woman, dissatisfied with ordinary bloomers, invented Kickernicks. She put years of experimentation into them and only after perfecting them did she place them on the market.

For Children at Play

When Children play, their little bodies should have absolute freedom. For the child wearing Kickernick Patented bloomers, no matter what his posture or how violent his exercise, there is no strain.

In our windows you will be interested in seeing Kickernicks on display.

These bloomers are ideal for high school gym classes.
