Edward Johnson Opens Season October 12

Stars of the first magnitude in the music world will delight north shore music lovers who attend the artist-recital series sponsored by the Winnetka Music club this fall and winter. The 1925-26 season will be long remembered in these parts for the appearance of such a group of world famous artists as was never included in any program given on the north shore.

The first of the series, which will be given October 12 at the New Trier auditorium, will be a recital by Edward Johnson, Metropolitan opera tenor. He was born in Guelph, Canada, but received his musical education in this country, and has been a favorite with American and European audiences since 1907.

Brailowski Coming Soon

Alexander Brailowski, young Russian pianist, will charm those who attend the second of the series with his playing. He has been called the most phenomenal pianist since Rubenstein and has long been a favorite in Paris and New York. In Paris he gave 26 concerts without repeating a number in the whole series, except by request. His popularity in New York has been unequalled, it is said.

In the third concert of the series, to be given January 8, 1926, Dusolina Giannini, dramatic soprano, will give a song recital. She is also well known to American audiences and has a rich and mellow voice, gorgeous in color and with a wide range.

Matzenauer Here in March

Margaret Matzenauer, noted Metropolitan Opera contralto will be heard in March. The late J. C. Huneker, one of America's foremost music critics, said of her that she deserved the title of the greatest living contralto. She has given concerts in every country in Europe and has gained a wide following there as well as in America.

Albert Spaulding, violinist, is another star who will be heard in the artist-recital series. He is a Chicagoan by birth and has appeared many times as soloist with the Chicago Symphony orchestra, although he has lived abroad most of the time for many years. He is listed among the 12 leading violinists of the world by music critics and is said to be the only American violinist who ever gained the distinction of appearing at "La Scala," Milan.

A few season tickets for this series are still available, and may be obtained from Mrs. Grant at the Winnetka State bank, it is announced. This is expected to be the most noteworthy and successful season in the brief but brilliant history of the Music club.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Laird are spending the month of September at Camp Tenderfoot in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Palmer are back from Cape Cod, where they have been spending the summer.

Jewish Congregation Receives New Leader

Rabbi Harvey E. Wessel, formerly of Chicago, was inducted as pastor of the North Shore Congregation last Friday night at services in the Winnetka Congregational church. He will fill the place left vacant by Rabbi Louis A. Mischkind. The ceremonies were conducted by Dr. Louis L. Mann, who delivered the installation sermon. Members of the congregation attended in large numbers to welcome their new leader.

Rabbi Wessel was born in Chicago and conducted congregations in North Carolina and California before coming to the north shore.

Services in observance of Hashonok, the Jewish New Year, will be held at the Winnetka Congregational church this Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock and Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

John J. Moran, chairman of the Civic committee of the Wilmette Chamber of Commerce, addressed the Glenview Chamber of Commerce at its inaugural meeting recently. William Taylor, president of the local Chamber, also attended the opening meeting of the neighboring business group.

Mrs. Barnett Faroll of 741 Prospect avenue, is expected home the end of this week from a five months' stay in New York City.

Mrs. William Eldridge, 475 Provident avenue, has returned home after spending the summer at Stamford, Conn.
