

Garden to Provide Setting for Miss Scott's Wedding

THE beautiful garden of the Robert Cluett home on the bluff of the lake at Hubbard Woods will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Barbara Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott, and Donald Phelps Welles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phelps Welles of Evanston, Wednesday afternoon, September 23. The Rev. James K. Richards will read the service at 4:30 o'clock, and a reception will follow in the gardens where Miss Scott's sister became the bride of her fiancé's twin brother, Edward Kenneth Welles, two years ago.

Mrs. Welles will be her sister's matron of honor, and Miss Emily Scott will be her maid of honor. Miss Scott has chosen as her bridesmaids, the Misses Isabelle Scott, Margaret Scott, Joan Stuart, Louise Tyler, Madeline Presstrich, Marian Smith, Elizabeth Bunnell, Nancy Heffingfinger. Edward Welles will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Calvin Trowbridge, Edwin Winter, III, James Douglas, Jr., Lawrence Williams, Sanford Otis, Frederick Lawrence, Martien Jenkes, Odgen West, and Keith Carpenter.

Mrs. Lorenzo Johnson, 701 Sheridan road, and her granddaughter, Miss Helen Hardenbergh, are to sail for Europe from New York, September 27. They will meet Mrs. Johnson's son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Johnson, in Cairo, Egypt, where Mr. Johnson is charge d'affaires, and motor through France with them.

Later they will visit Mrs. Johnson's nephew, Hallett Johnson, who is first secretary of the embassy in Paris, and her niece, Mrs. Horace Lee of London. After spending several months with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Johnson in Cairo, Mrs. Johnson will return to her home in Winnetka in February.
