Lusk Invites Students to Autumn Violin Study

Milan Lusk, internationally known violinist, whose home is in Wilmette, will accept a limited number of earnest violin students for the autumn term, and suggests that those interested make an early application.

Mr. Lusk will be heard extensively in the concert field this season. He will appear on different artist courses in the adjoining states. One of his important Chicago engagements will be the next month at Orchestra hall. He has given recitals this summer at some of the most prominent north shore country clubs.
