

MUSIC TO FEATURE AT CHRIST CHURCH SUNDAY

Music will have an important place in the services at Christ church Sunday morning, September 27. Choir-master Ellis E. Chase announces the following program:

Prelude—"Answer," by Wostenholm; "Meditation," by Pache; "Te Deum," in D, Woodward.

Anthem—"I will mention the Loving Kindness of the Lord," Sullivan; Solo by Edwin McCready.

Postlude—Marche Solennelle, Lemaignre.

The choir, now consisting of a group of 50 men and boys, is busily engaged each week with rehearsals for the winter.

Christ Church school convenes as follows:

9:30—grades five, six, seven, eight and high school.

11—Kindergarten, first, second, third and fourth grades.

The Girls' Church school choir meets for rehearsal at the Parish House Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

An important service will be held in the chapel Monday morning, September 28, at 9:30 o'clock, at which the boxes for the United Thank Offering will be presented. This United Thank Offering will be presented, with those of the past three years, at the Triennial Convention in New Orleans the first week in October. This money is given by the women missionaries of the church.

Edward Johnson First Artist-Recital Singer

On Monday evening, October 12, the celebrated tenor, Edward Johnson, will inaugurate the artist-recital series of the Winnetka Music club at the New Trier assembly hall. Mr. Johnson will give a recital of classic and modern songs.

Mr. Johnson is pre-eminent not only in recital but also in grand opera, having unusual histrionic as well as interpretative ability. He is an important member of the Chicago Grand Opera company, being entrusted with outstanding roles. He has also given several recitals in Chicago and elsewhere, always attracting large audiences.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlstrand and family, formerly of Garland avenue, have returned from their summer home on Round Lake and will make their winter residence at the Kenilworth inn.

Mrs. Anna Lena Bell is Summoned by Death

Mrs. Anna Lena Bell, wife of Edward R. Bell, 840 Center street, passed away Friday, September 18, at the Evanston hospital after illness of one week.

Services were held in the chapel at 1610 Maple avenue, Evanston, Monday, September 21, the Rev. Robert Holmes officiating. Burial was at Memorial Park.

ATTEND LECTURE ON BOOKS

Many Winnetka book-lovers are said to be interested in a lecture to be given this Sunday at the Studebaker theater, Chicago, by Clarence Darrow, famous criminal lawyer, on the subject, "My Favorite Books." The lecture is to be one of a series sponsored by Alexander Green, bookseller.

We've had so much beef at our house lately, that I am getting sick of it. I wish we could have more of a variety.

If you will trade at PETERS MARKET you will find a big variety of meats besides beef. Today they have some fine fresh Spring Lamb and you'll find they can fix you up a shoulder cut that will be delicious and at a specially cheap price. We had a delicious roast of lamb from there last night.

LEE SAYS:

WE know a man who WAS away from home NOT long ago and he SENT a telegram to HIS wife, "Have not FORGOTTEN—this is OUR wedding anniversary, LOADS of love," or SOMETHING like that, WHICH was a fine thing TO do, of course, but HE missed the date JUST two weeks, and IT will be several DECADES before he HEARS the last of THAT—but his intentions WERE good, anyway, and HIS wife ought to GIVE him credit for THINKING of the ANNIVERSARY at all—LOTS of men don't—AND right in that CONNECTION we want to SUGGEST that you MARRIED men look up THAT DATE right now, THEN when the time ROLLS around, take her HOME a box of RANFT'S candy AND see how happy it WILL make her.
