Prospective Theatre Guild Members Asked to Notify Committee

A membership campaign is being launched by the North Shore Theatre Guild in the towns from Evanston to Lake Forest inclusive, and much enthusiasm is manifested by the chairmen of each suburb and their committees who gathered at the home of Mrs. J. Williams Macy of Hubbard Woods for a tea Friday afternoon to discuss their drive and to hear a talk by Alexander Dean on the plans of the guild for the new season. Seventy-five women approximately compose the list of the entire committee with the campaign in charge who were Mrs. Macy's guests.

Residents of Winnetka who desire membership in the league, may either communicate with the village chairman, Mrs. Sherman Aldrich, Winnetka 1173, or the following members of her committee: Mesdames Laird Bell, Harry Barnum, Frederick Dickinson, Frederick Clerk, Lloyd Faxon, William O. Coleman, Warren Agry, Samuel Smart, Ward Pearl, Gilbert Crowder, Robert Harwood, Davies Lazear, A. H. Barber, Richard Walsh, Dudley Palmer, Louis Sherman, Miss Hazel Hartwell, and Miss J. M. Griffith.

The Glencoe committee consists of: Mrs. Harry Holloway, chairman, and Mesdames Markham B. Orde, Andrew MacLeish, Bruce MacLeish, William Sutherland, George Pope, Pirie Carson, Dwight C. Orcutt, Willing D. Kirk, Arthur Brintnall, Gordon Ramsay, Joseph Magnus, Henry T. Williams, James Simpson, Fred Klaner, and Miss D'Arcy Orde.

Organize New Club for Social Entertainment

The North Shore Dance and Card club will give its first party Saturday evening, October 17, at the Winnetka Masonic temple. This is a new club organized during the summer months with the desire of bringing together under pleasing environment, those persons who enjoy the form of pleasure the club's name implies.

Ten parties will be given during the winter with special features on various occasions. Music will be furnished by a five piece orchestra of Husk O' Hara's, prizes will be given for the card games, and refreshments will be served.

Further information may be obtained by phoning Charles Sommers, Winnetka 630, or Sherman Goble, Winnetka 1404.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Whitman have just returned from a five weeks' stay in Boston where they accompanied their daughter, Miss Carol, who went east early to take her entrance examinations for Wellesley college which she is now attending.

Mrs. Victor Etling and her two sons have been at their home at 830 Mt. Pleasant road a little more than a week. They have recently returned from a summer's travel through Europe.

Miss Virginia Berry of Hollywood, Cal., who has been visiting friends in Winnetka for two months, left Thursday for her home in the West. Among those who were her hostesses during her stay, were Mrs. H. I. Orwig and Mrs. J. V. Stixrud, with whom she spent the last fortnight.
