What Kind of Underwear Will You Select for Your Family This Fall?

Distinguish the Best From the Rest

We would suggest CARTER'S, not only because the garment bearing the famous CARTER marker is the best value of today, but also the fact that CARTER'S underwear is made in a wider range of styles and fabrics than is any other brand of underwear.

We can meet your every requirement and you will find that you have spent your time profitably by stopping in the underwear section, where information and suggestions will be courteously given. You will receive personal attention that will enable you to buy just the right garment, thus avoiding any exchanges that you might have to make should you buy where less individual interest is shown. "CARTER'S Knit Underwear, please." Backed by the experience of 50 years.
