

Marion Lasier Weds Amidst Setting of Autumn Colorings

Autumn leaves in abundance, huge baskets of yellow chrysanthemums, and tall cathedral candles on either side of the main aisle leading to the altar formed the pretty and artistic setting for the wedding ceremony which united Miss Marion Lasier and Donald Kenneth Morrison last Saturday evening in the Winnetka Congregational church. Rev. James Austin Richards and Dr. J. W. F. Davies officiated.

Mrs. James W. Harris, Jr., of Long Beach, Cal., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and the bride's little niece and nephew, Ruth and Jinny Harris, served as pages.

Roger Morrison of Ann Arbor was his brother's best man, and the ushers were the bride's brother, John W. Lasier, J. Endicott Bradstreet, Stephen Claslin of Lombard, and Stanley Beaumont and Lewis Emerling of Chicago.

After a wedding trip of three weeks, which they will spend motoring in the East, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will be at home to their friends after February 15, at their new home, 1271 Scott avenue.

FACING THE MIRROR

one is liable to find unpleasant facts reflected in one's face. Perhaps the hair shows prematurely grey in some places. Of course it is a hint of departing youth but also a hint that a visit to our beauty parlor would defy old age for years to come, in facial appearance as well as color of the hair.

THE DIFFERENCE!

The difference in the smart looks of some men's furnishings, compared with those other men wear, originates in the workrooms where the furnishings originate. The superior style and lasting quality of haberdashery we sell results from the care we take to see that nothing of the "other sort" ever gets into our stocks.

"OFF WITH THE OLD ON WITH THE NEW"

How true that statement is in the light of our ever-changing every day life.

How true it is right now as we see the WINNETKA TALK discard its old dress for one more becoming.

How true it is in connection with this store where the old has been discarded in favor of the new—new fixtures, new merchandise, new faces.

We welcome the TALK in its new form just as we welcome you to this store. We hope you come often.

And if good merchandise, careful compounding and smiling service count for anything, you probably will.
