

Autumn Color Scheme Feature of Recent Kenilworth Wedding

Miss Louise Durham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Durham of Kenilworth, and Walter L. Mead of Wisconsin Rapids, were married Saturday afternoon, October 3, at the Kenilworth Union church, Dr. Ozora S. Davis of the Chicago Theological seminary, officiating. A ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents, 431 Abbottsford road, followed the service.

Miss Emily Durham was her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. John A. Cory was matron of honor. Miss Ethel McCall of Kenosha, Miss Anna Margaret Clifford of Racine, Miss Emily Phelps Mead, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Helen White of Wilmette, were the bridesmaids.

Stanton Mead acted as his brother's best man, and the ushers were Arthur Durham of Kenilworth, brother of the bride; Richardson Harwood of Natick, Mass., Whitney D Hobbs of Chicago, Gilbert K. Dickerman of Duluth, and John A. Cory of Chicago. Little Randall Hathaway of New York City, a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Autumn flowers adorned the church, and the bride was most becomingly gowned in white satin and silver lace. Her long train was lined with silver. The bridal attendants were attired in gowns of varying shades of peach color georgette and their hats were of brown velvet.

The bride and groom have gone abroad, and upon returning from their wedding trip, they will make their home in Wisconsin Rapids, Wis.
