

Davies' Leadership Talks Attract Wide Attention at Center

Director J. W. F. Davies of Community House, this week started a six weeks course of talks on "Leadership." The first meeting was held Thursday. This will be mainly a discussion course and those who attend will meet every Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Community House. Part of this course was given by Mr. Davies at the Community House last summer and was received with great enthusiasm, it was said.

This Thursday's class was so well attended and the talk so favorably received that it is predicted the ensuing lectures will attract an even larger following of those who are interested in learning from this expert the salient principles of leadership. The sessions are held in the Camp Fire room at Community House and entail no charge. Any person interested in work among young people is cordially invited to attend the classes.

BRUNSWICK RADIOLA

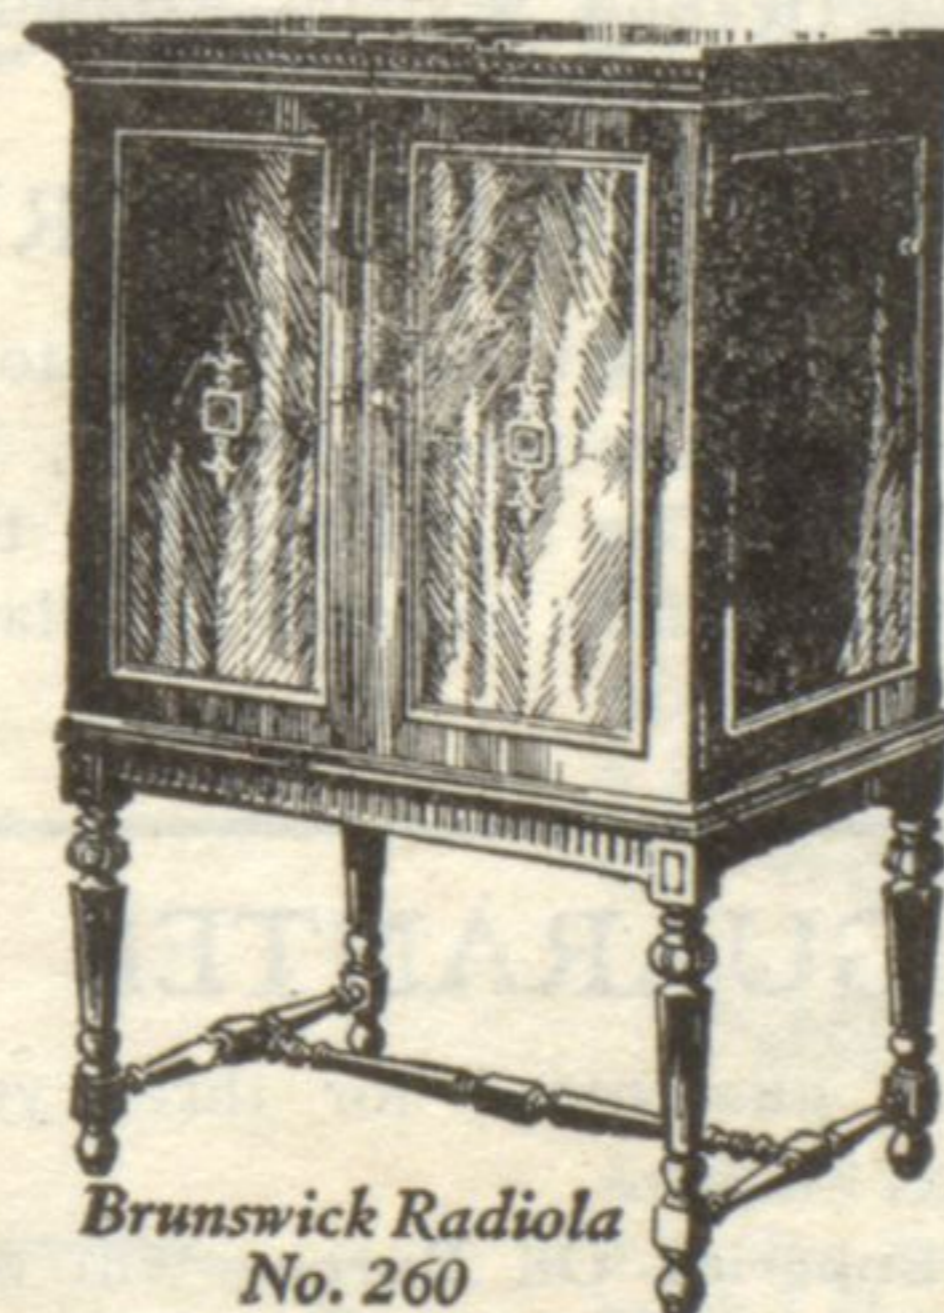

Why husbands stay home

—Wives now explain it in this way

MEN used to be wanderers—that's their nature. But now, instead of going into the world for adventure, they bring the world, with all its events, thrills and dramas, right up to the old fireside.

That's the purpose of this remarkable instrument—the Brunswick Radiola.

It's the greatest radio the world has ever seen—equipped with the outstanding receiving sets of the Radio Corporation of America—plus the most remarkable of phonographs, to play those old songs you love whenever the soul craves them.

Brunswick Radiola No. 260

To get a real thrill, come hear it. Not a "make-shift"—not just a radio set in a phonograph cabinet, but a scientific unit; a musical revelation.

Prices start at $170. Liberal terms of payment.
