

Award Lake Cruise to Miss Hayes in Products Contest

Miss Zita Hayes, Winnetka's entry in the Illinois Products Exposition ticket sale contest, annexed sixth place in the final ranking of the 10 highest contestants. As a reward for her diligence Miss Hayes will enjoy a lake cruise to Buffalo and return at the expense of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce. Miss Hayes' entry was sponsored by the Winnetka Chamber of Commerce.

In the final calculation of votes it was found that Miss Hayes had received 23,750 ballots. She won a place of honor at the Products Exposition banquet held at the Furniture Mart Thursday of this week, the event representing the formal opening of the exposition.

Miss Hayes has requested WINNETKA TALK to express her appreciation to the Winnetka residents who, by purchasing admissions to the Illinois Products Exposition, were responsible for her high standing in the contest, in which several hundred young women participated.

Winnetkans Named Head of Committee of Fifteen

Henry P. Crowell, 770 Humboldt avenue, is president of the Committee of Fifteen of Chicago which is being reorganized. A new superintendent to succeed the late Samuel P. Thrasher is to be appointed in the near future. Meanwhile the committee is functioning under the direction of L. L. Lewis, assistant superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bryson of 182 Myrtle street are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, Wednesday, October 7.

FAIR BOOSTS "FARM"

Country Day Pupils Stage Elaborate Exhibit to Raise Funds for Farm on School Premises.

Pupils of the North Shore Country Day school gave a "Vacation Fair" Friday of this week, the proceeds of which are to go to the fund they are raising for the "farm" which they are arranging on the school premises. The fair was arranged and staged entirely by the pupils, with the co-operation of a faculty committee.

The affair was held in the gymnasium of the school from 12 until 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The various grades in the school had booths in which were displayed the results of summer activities. There were articles made by the boys—boats, kites, airplanes, radios, doll-houses and furniture, wagons, jewelry and many other things. There was a nature study booth, in which were collections of butterflies, pressed flowers, stones, shells and other exhibits. There was a travel booth, containing maps, pictures, passports and other things of interest from foreign countries.

One of the most interesting exhibits at the fair was the doll booth. Costumes of all nationalities were displayed and dolls from many countries were to be seen. Another interesting feature was the pet show, which included horses, dogs, cats, sheep, roosters and every conceivable kind of a pet. Prizes were given for the queerest pet, the smallest, the largest and so forth.

The refreshment booth sold ice cream, home-made cake, candy, flowers and vegetables. As an added attraction a sideshow was staged by the boys of the eighth grade. The school orchestra of 15 pieces furnished music during the fair. This is an annual event at the school.

At the Woman's Club

The club rooms of the Winnetka Woman's club were filled Tuesday with a happy group of women who were served by the social committee to a delicious luncheon. Immediately after which, the business of the meeting was taken up.

Mrs. Prouty read an announcement for the Community Drama club which opens a course of lectures by Alexander Dean. Mrs. Zeiss reported 55 new members since April and only a small waiting list.

Miss Ruth Matz, the president, drew especial attention to the new ruling on entertaining guests: "Two guest meetings shall be held during the year to which each member may bring one resident guest without fee. At regular meetings, members may each invite one non-resident guest and a resident guest upon payment of the required fee." Miss Matz also urged those members who have delayed paying their dues to do so that the treasurer may close her books.

The program was the work of the art and literature committee, and was greatly enjoyed. Showing what a melting pot our country really is, and how similar were the instincts that led our forefathers to this free land, little Miss Cheney, so unlike her "American" ancestor, read her paper to a fascinated audience, and showed many Indian relics from the long ago.

"What Is Man?" Topic for Richards' Sermon

The Rev. James A. Richards' sermon at the Winnetka Congregational church tomorrow morning will deal with some of the pessimisms of the day, his subject being, "What Is Man?"

The program of music at the services will be as follows: Violin prelude, "Andantino," by Padre Marcini, Mrs. Valons Brewer; Anthem, "Prepare ye the Way of the Lord"; Offertory anthem, "Thy Hallowed Presence," Carter.

Miss Louise Varney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Varney, 535 Cherry street, will spend the winter months with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lowry of Wilmette, at their winter home, which is located near Miami, Fla. They left for the South, Monday, October 5.

Elsie Zeit McClellan will conduct her classes in dancing at room 208 Indian Hill building, this season, instead of in the Woman's club as has been her previous custom. Her work will open October 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard E. Hobart, 1417 Edgewood lane, have returned from a month's motor trip to the Land o'Lakes region in northern Wisconsin.

Mrs. Henry Leach, 885 Cherry street, has returned home from Parksburg, Iowa, where she has been visiting her sister.

Indian Summer
October in
NORTHERN WISCONSIN

Mellow, hazy, lazy days just made for loafing. Quiet water lanes wandering from lake to lake through forests aflame with color. Game, fish. Ideal golf and hiking, too. Snappy nights when you snuggle under for a round of the clock. That's Northern Wisconsin, in October.
