

All Prosperity Depends upon the Bank

TO EVERY PERSON in every community, the Bank is a vital factor of convenience and progress.

Without Banks, business methods would revert to the days of barter, when there were no standards of exchange, no uniform commercial usage, no adequate credit facilities.

From the time when every man's pocket was his bank and his memory was his only set of business records to modern financial achievement is a huge step. The growth of business can never be greater than the progress of the institution of Banking.

This Bank measures its usefulness to the community on a basis of actual service to its people. We are glad of the opportunity of serving you.

LEE SAYS:

WE KNOW a small boy IN THIS town who is ABOUT seven years old AND the other night he HAD a spell of the TOOTH ache and we asked HIM the next day how HE LIKED the tooth ache AND he said he liked it FINE because it felt SO GOOD when it quit HURTING—and it just STRIKES us that that BOY has the right idea AND if we didn't have ANY troubles to worry US and if times were NEVER hard and if the SUN never got clouded OVER, how would we BE ABLE to appreciate THE good times and the SUNSHINE when we had THEM? And if there WERE no poor Hot Water Bottles ON THE market you COULDN'T appreciate the WONDERFUL value and QUALITY in these KANTLEAK Bottles that we HAVE been selling here IN Winnetka for the PAST twenty years.
